OUR NEIGHBOR.

When Douglas first struck out in opposition to the base and tyrannical course of Mr. Buchanan, our neighbor of the Review seemed to have caught the spirit; and actually gave some slight evidence of recovery from the miserable and loathsome disease of old-lineism, which had so long been preying upon his system. For a time, he seemed to breathe free and easy, and ceased to utter forth his wild and vulgar old-line ravings. Hopes were entertained that he might possibly yet come out, at least, a decent Douglas democrat; but the insidious disease had too deep and strong a hold upon him;—his relapse was sudden and violent, and leaves no hope of a permanent cure. The health-giving remedies, of independence, freedom of thought, self-respect, devotion to truth and liberty, produced but temporary effects upon his degrading system. The canker was internal and deep seated, but he gradually worked its way to the surface, and is now discharging itself through the columns of the Review. That the disease was malignant, foul, ulcerous, cankered, can be seen from its weekly discharges! Such vast quantities of "wood" and "niggerism" are thrown out, that his friends need not be surprised if wood should sprout up all over him. He is even now paving the way, to claim as his own, and his party's, the darkest species of Abolitionism.

Wheat is selling to-day at from 75 to 80 cts per bushel.

THE VICE PRESIDENT.

Since the Hon. J. C. Breckenridge made his first appearance in public life, we have entertained for him a very high regard, notwithstanding the abhorrence with which we looked upon his political principles. His deportment as a gentleman, his dignified manner, his courteousness towards political opponents, rendered him popular with all parties; but his recent course in descending from his high position as Vice President of the United States, to mingle in the local party strifes of the day, is humiliating and disgusting in the extreme.

What a spectacle would it present to the World, were the President, Vice President, the Cabinet, and other officials to engage constantly and actively in the political contests and strifes which agitate our country? The very idea is revolting to the good sense of every high minded and honorable man. The President should be the President of the whole People, and not of a party. The same is true of the Vice President. They should look solely to the discharge of their high duties! They should stand above the turmoil of party conflicts! They should keep themselves aloof from the turbulent streams of partisan warfare! To mingle in this warfare, is but to sacrifice the exalted character which should pertain to every officer of the General Government. The man who has been honored with the office of Vice President of the United States, who will so far forget himself and his station, as to become a partisan speaker during his term of office, is unworthy the place—he degrades himself and his office—he offers an insult to the American People—he disrobes himself of that impartiality which should pertain to every high officer of Government—he becomes, at once, a partisan officer.

It really seems to have become the settled aim and purpose of the Old Line party, to convert the Government into a system of party machinery, for the accomplishment of party ends. Every officer from the President down to the petty Post-Master, has become a political worker; and all the patronage and power of their office is brought to bear upon elections. "Secret Circulars" are issued to office-holders, who are required to use a portion of their salary, and all their influence for the success of party. Honesty, capability and faithfulness are all thrown aside in lieu of zealous partisanship! Such policy is based upon corruption, imparts its influence to all the machinery, and will, if not checked, destroy our Government. Let the people rebuke this spirit before it is too late.

MORALITY IN CRAWFORDSVILLE.

Since our last issue (Thursday) our town—in former years quiet and orderly—has been one continual strife and confusion, in all manner of wickedness; and should things continue long as they have during the past few days, we fear our town will soon lose all claims to decency, morality, or honesty. The time has come when we can say in truth, that we are hemmed in on every corner, by doggeries and billiard saloons, in their most hellish forms; established for the purpose of misleading the youth and unsuspecting among us; and we see daily and hourly the fruits of their demon-like pursuits.

On Thursday night of last week, the work in its true form commenced, by a gang of desperadoes who make these kinds their places of resort, forcing into an alley and filching from the pockets of a drunken Irishman, by the name of Pat. McMullen, about three hundred dollars. The man charged with and arrested for committing this act, are John Griffith, Wm. Gwynn, and Tom Brown. They all underwent an examination before Esq. Parsel, who fixed their bail-bonds at $1,000 each; and in default of which they were committed to jail to await their trials in the Circuit Court. Griffith and Gwynn were arrested by the officers on Friday night, and Brown on Sunday about noon.

On Saturday a young man by the name of Lowman, who resides near Darlington in this county, was lodged in our jail for horse-stealing. He had taken the stolen horse to Cincinnati, and there made an attempt to dispose of him; but failing to produce a bill of sale of the same, was arrested.

On yesterday, Wednesday, a young man by the name of Wm. Goggin, was arrested under a charge of having stolen some money, and a certificate of the deposit of a watch for repairs, of some person whose name we did not learn, and on an examination, was committed to jail, to await a hearing at the next term of the Circuit Court. Our county jail has now within its walls, nine men and one woman, all committed for violating the laws of their country. It is truly sorrowful to think of men and women, becoming so debased, as to compel the officers of the law for the safety of the community, to confine them like mad-men. But its even so. Their confinement in jail however, will be short, as the fall term of the Circuit Court, convenes on Monday next. Upon an examination, should their innocence be established, they will again be set at liberty; but if proven to the contrary, their resting place will be in an institution erected by our State, for the reception of such as will go on in their God-forsaken pursuits.

Circuit Court.—The fall term of this Court, commences in this place on Monday next. From the fullness of the Jail, we would suppose the Docket to be large.

The Review has much to say, of late, about the inconsistency, the duplicity, the hypocrisy of others. He talks as glibly, and as fluently, as if purely and perfectly innocent himself. He noble fellow; if his story is to be believed; has never manifested the slightest inconsistency—not the faintest symptom of hypocrisy. He seems to have forgotten his previous opposition to Lecompton, his bitter denunciation of the English bill. He seems to have forgotten his hostility to Mr. Buchanan's Kansas policy! He almost, or quite swore in his wrath, that he would never support any man who ever squinted toward Lecompton, or the English Bill! Treacherous memory that he has! Why, he was violently opposed to Lecompton; and now sustains it! He was bitterly opposed to the English Bill, and now sustains it! He denounced the Kansas policy of the Administration, but now sanctions it! Was he honest then, or is he honest now? Was he hypocritical then, or is he hypocritical now? One or the other, he must be! Ah, neighbor! clear thine own skirts, ere thou chargest others!

QUERY.—Why don't the Old-Liners bring D. W. Voorhes & Co., the Lecompton orators, into the 8th Congressional District? If your principles are National, the discussion of them will certainly result in no harm. Make your appointments gentlemen, and we will publish them gratis, with pleasure. Where's McDonald?

A FIRE.—The Machine shops of New Albany & Salem Railroad, at Lafayette, was destroyed by fire on last Monday morning. It was supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The Courier says "the total loss of the company will not exceed $8,000. The buildings were of frame, and not of a permanent character."

It is now conceded that D. R. Knox, has the best and cheapest stock of boots, shoes, clothing, hats and caps, in our town; and so large is their custom since they have opened, that they have been compelled to make purchases every week. Therefore, their stock is always new and complete, and of the latest designs. No lady or gent, can go into this establishment and find an old rusty garment; and all that make their purchases at this house, go away smiling and delighted with the idea of saving two or three dollars by calling at the "Cheap Store." We say, to those wanting a good boot; go see their superior stock. They also have a fine stock of gloves, hosiery, shirts, collars, cravats, etc., very low.

GROCERY STORE.—Our friend J. G. ROYLAND, has gone into the Family Grocery trade, at the old stand of E. Clark, on Washington street. Mr. B. intends increasing his stock, until it will prove to be one of the places where our citizens will be able to get any article in the line of Family Groceries they may wish to buy. Call in and see as you pass that way.—Read advertisement in another column.

See the advertisement of Messrs. Ross & White in to-day's paper. These gentlemen since having their Cabinet buildings burned, are holding forth in No. 4, Commercial Row, where the public will be accommodated with all articles of Cabinet work, Chairs, &c.

They wish all those indebted to them, to call and settle immediately. Their loss was heavy in the late fire, and they are therefore compelled to make this reasonable request of their old customers.

The Daguerreian.

Mr. A. S. Hughes, the Daguerreian, is again at home, and will be pleased to have his friends, and all others, who may wish a superior picture of any kind taken, to call at his rooms, in Empire Block—west end, 3d story. Mr. H., also, requests us to say, that he will be on the grounds of the Union Agricultural Fair, during the three days of exhibition, which is to be held at Russellville, Putnam county, commencing on Wednesday, Sept. 8th, with his grand Pavilion; for the purpose of enabling all who may be at the Fair and desire a superior likeness of themselves or friends to be accommodated.

Lecompton Popular Sovereignty.

Jesse D. Bright in his speech on the Lecompton Bill, expressed the following "conviction":—"So strong, Mr. President, is my conviction of the viciousness of the principle of submitting to a direct vote of the people the propriety of the enactment, or rejection of laws, that for one I am prepared to extend the same objection to the submission of the entire Constitution to the same tribunal!"

Mr. Vice President Breckenridge, in his late stump speech in Kentucky, said:—"The startling doctrine has been started in this country that a constitution has no validity until submitted to the vote of the people." As an abstract proposition I will never submit to it. I will never consent that Congress shall have the right to reject a constitution because the people of a Territory choose not to submit it to the people.

A SLAYER CAPTURED.

CHARLESTON, Aug. 27.—The brig Echo, of Baltimore, entered the harbor this morning with three hundred Africans on board. She was captured five days since off the North coast of Cuba by the United States brig Dolphin, and brought into this port by Lieut. Bradford.

Latest from Europe.

BY THE TELEGRAPH CABLE.

LONDON, VIA VALENTIA, IRELAND, Friday Morning, August 27.

The Emperor Napoleon and Empress Eugenie will return to Paris to-morrow from their tour through the Empire. The King of Prussia is too sick to visit Queen Victoria as was expected. Her Majesty returns home on Monday. By the terms of the treaty of peace with China, the Empire is opened to the trade of all nations; the Christian religion is allowed, and the diplomatic agents of nations admitted.

Full indemnity is provided for England and France, but the dispatch received makes no mention of indemnity to the United States.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 21.—The announcement of the treaty of Peace with China has given general satisfaction to the Emperor and Court.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 9.—The steamer Madras arrived at Suez on the 7th inst, with Bombay dates to the 10th of July.

The intelligence from India embraces nothing of importance.

FROM SALT LAKE.

St. Louis, Aug. 27.—The Salt Lake correspondent of the Republican says that David A. Burr, son of Surveyor General Burr, was in the city and had succeeded in getting Charles W. Moocher, formerly clerk in the surveyor's office, to file an affidavit denying the truth of his former affidavit sustaining the charges against Gen. Burr.

The Indians are more hostile than at any time since the Territory was settled. Nearly all the tribes are committing depredations, and a number of settlers have been killed, and several bands of horses were run off.

As yet the troops have made no effort to protect the settlers.

The soldiers received their pay the latter part of July, after which a large number deserted, taking along some mules and citizens' clothing from camp.

Cedar Valley is said to be a poor place for winter quarters.

Gen. Johnston is making preparations to send some of his animals to the other valleys.

Gov. Cumming still retains the confidence of the community, and, therefore, his acts and policy give general satisfaction.

FROM KANSAS.

LEAVENWORTH, Aug. 26, per U. S. Express to Booneville.—A military Commission, authorized by the Secretary of War to adjust certain difficulties between the Quartermaster Department and the contractors who furnished the mules for the Utah expedition, met yesterday at Port Leavenworth. Present—Major Sherman, Lieut. Col. Roberts and General Gaines. The board made two ineffectual attempts to organize, and its preliminary proceedings were exceedingly unharmonious. The question of precedence in rank had not been definitely settled last evening.

St. Louis, Aug. 28.—A dispatch from Kansas City, dated Aug. 26, per U. S. Express to Booneville, says that Monsieur Borden's party arrived there the night before from Pike's Peak for the purpose of procuring outfits to work newly discovered mines. They brought several ounces of gold, and confirmed the existence of mines which are situated on Cherry Creek, one of the most Southern branches of the Platte, in latitude 39.

President Buchanan in an alarming Position.

A correspondent from Bedford Springs to the Baltimore Sun, writes as follows:—"The lady of Col. Alfred Spates, of Cumberland, Maryland, one of the visitors at the Bedford Springs, by her dashing exploits with a pair of superb horses has created quite a sensation. The other day she sent her card to the President, who, of course, with his usual politeness, placed himself in her charge, and the lady gave him a glorious round behind her gay steeds. Dashing through the Bedford town at a spanking pace, the horses fleeted with foam, the lady glowing with excitement, and the President known to everybody, very serious alarm seized the public mind that some aspiring dame had caught up the Chief Magistrate of the United States, and was cloping with him. As it was observed, however that the President took it very calmly, called upon no one for help, and seemed perfectly resigned to the consequences, whether it was a broken neck or matrimony, nobody interfered. In good time the party returned, and the President was restored safe and sound to the anxious friends."

PERSONAL RELICS OF GENERAL PERSIFER F. SMITH.

A sale of the personal effects of the late Gen. Persifer F. Smith took place yesterday morning at the auction store of M. Thomas & Sons, which attracted a large number of persons. The articles comprised 244 lots. A French traveling clock brought $40; a field glass $22; another ditto $15; a chess board, made from the wood of the flag staff at the palace of Mexico $12.50; a handsome dress sword was bought by Gen. R. Patterson for $8; a pair of gold epaulettes containing 64 diamonds, made in the City of Mexico, were sold to Mr. E. McCoy for $100; a brass mounted saddle, with appropriate figures was bought by Gen. Patterson for $71; a major-general's hat was bought for $71; a major-general's hat was bought for $71; a back-gammon board attached, made of the wood of the fortifications at Vera Cruz and of the flag staff at the City of Mexico, and elegantly carved, was sold for $50. The principal competition was for a large military arm chair, made of wood from the fortifications of the castle of San Juan D'Ulloa, at Vera Cruz, which sold for $150.—Philadelphia Press, 23d.

Bill English Deserted.

The constituents of Mr. BUCHANAN's candidate in the Second Indiana District, are already showing marked symptoms of a general rebellion against the imperial decree from the White House. The organ of the Washington County Democracy (the Salem Democrat) repudiates ENGLISH, and comes out directly for the Opposition candidate. A lively stampede of the Democracy of that county in the same direction, is spoken of as a certain event. The same thing may be looked for in the other counties.—Cin. Gazette.

Joseph E. McDonald.

We had the pleasure of listening to this gentleman's harangue to the undersigned Democracy, last Saturday. It was in his old style of denunciation of men whose opinions happened to differ with him; and comes with bad grace from a man who has loudly advocated these same opinions in former years. The explanation and eulogy he passed upon the Dred Scott decision presents a striking contrast with his famous letter, written by himself, to a committee of his fellow citizens in this district. It is an admirable illustration of his political consistency.

Article, July 3, 1849.

Gentlemen—Having seen your circular to the candidates of the District, in the public Press, and not wishing to conceal any opinion held by me in regard to the political question now agitating the public mind, I hasten to reply to your interrogatories.

1st. I do admit and believe that Congress has the right to legislate on the subject of slavery for all the Territories of the U. S., the District of Columbia inclusive.

2d. I am in favor of the adoption of the Wilmot Proviso in all the Territorial organizations.

3d. I am in favor of the prohibition of the slave trade in the District of Columbia. I am in favor of the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia, the citizens of the District expressing a wish to Congress therefor. If this could not be done, I should be in favor of removing the seat of government to free soil.

4th. I am opposed to the admission of any more Slave States from any Territory not properly included in the Texas compromise. I do not believe that Congress ought to disturb the compact entered into with Texas on that subject.

5th. I am in favor of the exemption of the homestead from execution.

6th. I am in favor of the State Convention to amend our Constitution.

Yours respectfully,

J. E. McDONALD.

Mr. McDonald was, at the date of this letter, the Democratic candidate for Congress in this Congressional District. The Convention which nominated him was held at Lafayette on the 12th of June, 1849.—Fountain Ledger.

Jesse D. Bright.

The National Democrat of Indianapolis, the State organ of the Douglas Democracy, says that it "hazards nothing in saying that Jesse D. Bright is, to-day, the most unpopular man in Indiana." "Yet unpopular as he is," it adds, "he wields the sceptre of a despot and sets the will of the masses at defiance. Weak with the people, he is strong through the fact, management and sleepless vigilance of his enemies. Overwhelming as would be the popular verdict against him through the ballot box, the Democratic party of the State has been but a plaything in his hands, and its edicts but the reflection of his whims and prejudices."

Shocking Tragedy in Pike County, Mo.

A terrible tragedy, consisting in the murder of a young lady by her father, and the subsequent suicide of the murderer was enacted near Bowling Green, Pike county, Mo, last Friday. The parties were a German named Myers, and his daughter. The daughter was an illegitimate child of Myers, and the two had lived together as parent and child, without any apparent difficulty, the girl discharging the domestic duties of the household.

On Friday morning last, the hands on the farm went out to work, leaving Myers, and the girl at the house, in their usual good spirits, and giving no indications of the terrible event that followed. On their return, the girl was found dead, on the floor, weltering in a pool of blood, shot through the heart. By her side lay Myers, also dead, with a bullet hole through his head. None of the circumstances that led to the bloody tragedy are known; but the fact that the girl, upon examination by the ladies of the neighborhood, was found to be eniente, points to another and more fearful crime as the cause of the affair. The father, it is supposed had dishonored his own offspring, and both had agreed on a bloody death, as a means of not being living witnesses to the exposure of guilt of the one, and the shame of the other.—[St. Louis Evening News.

The South Bend Forum says: "Col. May, though a large man, is brim full of Democracy."

"We fear the Forum editor is mistaken in the filling. Democracy never filled a man out as the Colonel is, nor in the part that predominates in him."—Logansport Journal.

As the Col. says he is "out diggin'" around the Democracy and dungin' 'em," it is quite reasonable to suppose that he carries the great "fertilizer" with him!—Indianian, Warsaw.

The Man with a Shovel Need not Apply.

"We find in the Gospel (Maine) Banner the following advertisement:—"I am desirous of securing the services of two male teachers to teach school the coming winter. I take this method therefore of making known the fact. If this notice meet the eye of any man (I mean physical as well as mental) who is willing to teach as well as keep school, I should be happy to see him."

"N. B.—No person who wears a shawl, spectacles, or walks with a cane, need apply, as sufficient instruction from that class has already been had."

"H. B. MAYNARD, Agent."

ARRIVAL OF STEAMERS.

New York, Aug. 28.—The steamer Edinburg, from Glasgow on the 14th, and the New York, from Bremen on the same day, have been signalled below. Their dates have been anticipated.

Health for the Sick.

Dr. Roback's SCANDINAVIAN REMEDIES are creating a revolution in Medical practice. They act directly upon the circulation. Disease originates in the blood, and these medicines purge it out. In dyspepsia, nervous complaints, scrofula, rheumatism, incipient consumption, fits, liver complaint, bronchitis, fever and ague and all disorders of the lungs, the liver, the bowels, the nerves or the skin, they are infallible. See advertisement.

A BARGAIN.

A new house, containing four apartments—3 rooms and a hall—lot fifty by one hundred and sixty feet, with an alley on one side and end. There is also a good cistern, smoke-house and other out-buildings necessary for a private residence. This property has only been occupied ten months; is in a desirable part of town; and will be sold at extremely low figures. Also, a nice vacant lot—50 by 100 feet—inclosed by a good fence—no other improvement. For particulars call at the "Journal" office.

Wood! Wood!—Those of our subscribers who wish to furnish us wood on subscription, will oblige us and themselves by bringing it along, while the roads are good. We will allow you $2 per cord for good three feet wood. By the cord is the way we wish to buy it, and not by the load.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

[From the New York DAY BOOK.]

Hair Dye is VILE WASH, but the article that will naturally restore the color of the hair, the changing of which to gray, being an indication of a lack of proper secretion, is truly a valuable medicine. Prof. Wood's Hair Tonic, if the certificates of the leading minds of the Union, dryness, premature change of color, and the several evidences of a lack of secretions at the roots of the hair, which can be found. Quick preparations abound, and "hair tonics" fill every "corner grocery" in the country. Avoid all "hair tonics" unless known to be the preparation of some man whose celebrity has become world-wide. Do not let any nostrum vender experiment upon your hair. Touch nothing you have not good reason to believe is all that it purports to be. Prof. Wood has earned by years of severe test, of the virtues of his preparation, his present fame. Over 150 certificates are before us of the value of this Hair Restorative, from parties who have tried it. Use no other.

CAUTION.—Beware of worthless imitations, as several are already in the market called by different names. Use none unless the words "Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, Depot, St. Louis, Mo., and New York, are on the label." Sold by all Druggists and Patent Medicine dealers. Also by all Fancy and Toilet Goods dealers in the United States and Canada. July 5, '58.—3m

WE invite the attention of the sick and afflicted to the advertisement in our columns of Dr. Eastley's Iodine and Sarsaparilla and Gridley's Salt Rheum and Tetter Ointment; Dr. Carter's Cough Balsam, Dr. Baker's Specific, Dr. Hooper's Female Cordial and Dr. Eastley's Fever and Ague Killer. These medicines are prepared by a thoroughly educated Physician, Chemist and Pharmacist, so that all can rely upon them as being safe and effectual in curing the diseases for which they are recommended. They are standard remedies, and can be found in nearly every Drug and Apothecary store in the United States.

THE SKIN.

Is formed with thousands of pores in every inch of surface which it is the duty of the impurities of the blood—the acknowledged cause of all diseases of mankind—when the skin is dry and parched—when it is covered with eruptions—when it is cold and clammy—when it is in ward fever or inflammation—it is impossible for the skin under these circumstances to perform its proper functions and to carry off the impurities from the body as designed by our Creator. Morse's Indian Root Pills remove these obstructions, and produce free and healthy blood, remove the eruptions from the skin, and cause it to brighten with the fine glow of youth and beauty. Beauty so much admired and loved. Beauty without paint and cosmetics—but beauty produced by health and happiness. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all dealers in Medicines.
