

THE TRADE PALACE

Established 1848—Sole Agents for Standard Patterns.

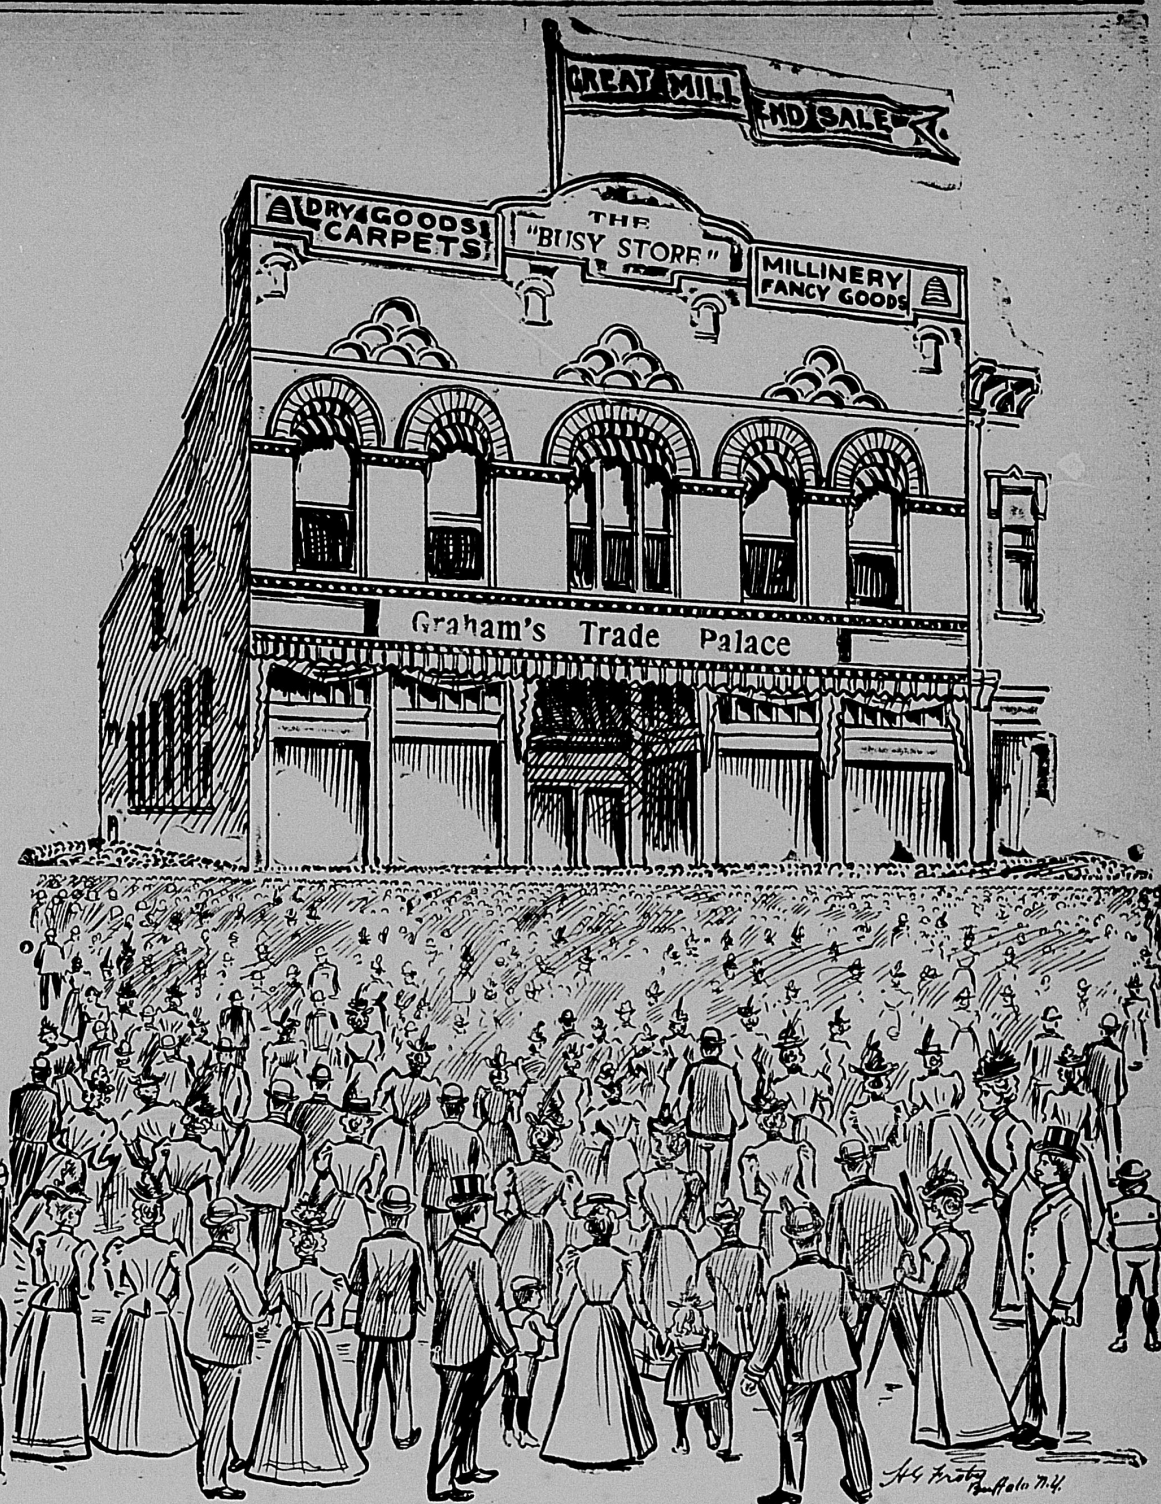

The 2d Week of the Monster "Mill End" Sale

OPENS TO-MORROW, SATURDAY, AUG. 5th.

You might have thought on first seeing this ad it was slightly overdrawn; but, friends, this "Mill End Sale" is the greatest merchandise event that ever happened in Crawfordsville and this picture is a fair representation of the crowds that have daily thronged the old Trade Palace since this sale opened. It is the biggest hit of the year and the talk of the whole county. The surging crowds in the store reminds one of a bee hive, where human bees are sapping the sweetest values of any in this town in

Prints, Percales, White Goods, Gingham, Organdies, Dress Goods,
SILKS, LINENS

And all other yard goods. But this is not alone a sale of yard goods—it is a sale of broken sizes, small lots and mill accumulations of any and all goods that a manufacturer—be he a maker of Hosiery or Underwear, or Shoes or Shirt Waists, or Carpets, or Draperies, or anything whatever—is willing to sell "at a price."

The Mill-Ends of Wash Goods

Are Phenomenally Priced.

And are indeed the most wonderful Wash Goods bargains of years. And there are plenty for everybody. There are enough Mill-Ends of Wash Goods here to supply every woman and child in Montgomery County. These are the loom-ends of this season's Wash Goods. The styles and qualities are the same as the full piece goods that are selling at full piece prices all over the country. You get them here at Mill-End prices.
