DO MORE THAN MERE ROUTINE

Teachers should enter upon their work with a firm resolve to do more than mere routine work—to simply go through the motion of imparting instruction to their pupils. The first thing to do is to study the nature and disposition of pupils and to start out with an honest purpose to win their respect, confidence and esteem. With out this little can be accomplished with the average pupil. Next in importance is the cultivation of tact. A tactless teacher is certain to be a failure, no matter how well he or she may be educated. Tact is all-important. It overcomes many difficulties and surmounts many obstacles. Politeness and courtesy should be strongly impressed upon the youthful mind as being cardinal virtues, and uncouthness and ruffianism should be adjudged vices. Principals of schools should be in constant touch with the teachers under their supervision and impress them with the importance of conforming to the ideas governing that particular school. The principal is the guiding star and should be so regarded by the teachers.—South Bend Times.

HOW long are you going to fuss along with that old dilapidated Buggy, paying out a big part of what a new buggy would cost, for repairs? Have a vehicle in which you can take pride as well as comfort. Altho the season for selling is nearing its close, the season for riding will run on indefinitely. Our repository offers a wide choice in surreys, buggies, phaetons, runabouts and stanhopes for this time of year; and we are not asking so much for them as formerly. It's a good time to make a change. Let us show you. —If you use Harness in any way, shape or form, you will be pleased to find such a complete stock of HAND-MADE work and buggy harness and sundries kept in Decatur. This is the time of year your horse needs fly nets, and we have them at any price. Bring on your repair work.

a plank favoring a tariff only for revenue and opposes the collection of more money from the people than is necessary to pay the expenses of economical government. The collection of $90,000,000 more taxes during the fiscal year ending June 30 than even the annual billion dollar appropriations called for was characterized as an outrage on the people. And so it is an outrage, but congress when it meets next winter will find a way to spend these ninety extra millions. The last congress spent two billions in two years and the next probably will get away with two and a half or three billions.—Huntington News-Democrat.

Race prejudice is not a matter of geographical distinctions. The British at Vancouver have been handing it over to the Chinese and the Japs in a style that makes the San Francisco hoodlums look like second raters.—Fort Wayne Sentinel.

WEMHOFF-PILLIOD

(Continued from Page 1.) Immediate friends and relatives of the bride and groom. The various other unmentioned rooms were attractively decorated with astors, ferns and smilax. The bride is a very pretty young woman, with a sweet and winning manner, and has many friends here as this has always been her home. The groom has an excellent position with Favorite Stove Co., at Piqua, Ohio, and he, too, while here, has won many friends. The happy couple will leave for an extended trip through the north and will be at home after October the 15th, at 1816 Anna street, Piqua, Ohio, where a furnished house awaits them. The out-of-town guests who received invitations to this delightful affair were: From Fort Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. John McMillen; Mr. and Mrs. Frank McBenette; Mr. and Mrs. John Dailey; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foehy; Mrs. Emma McMullen; Misses Mayme and Rosella McBenette; Misses Elize and Gertrude Cunningham; Florence Merze; from Piqua, Ohio, Mrs. Mary Pilliod; Miss Esther Pilliod; Adrian Pilliod; Misses Alma and Maude Pilliod; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pilliod; John Friggie; Miss Tillie Miller, of Dayton, Ohio; Will Murray, of Dayton, Ohio; Messrs. Francis and Martin Hoffman, Miss Mary Hoffman, of Toledo, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gasson, of Anderson, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. James Gardner, of Chicago, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cathro, of Fort Sheridan; Frankie and Ethel McLain, of Chicago, Ill.; Miss Anna McLain, of California.

IS NOT YET CONVERTED.

The Stand-Patters Getting Ready to Stand Pat.

Washington, September 11.—Representative Dalsell, of Pennsylvania, one of the "stand-pat" Republicans of congress, who is here, was asked today if he had been converted to the revision doctrine during the summer. "Not yet," he replied. "I do not believe that it is necessary to revise the tariff. I am in favor of letting it remain just the way it is at present. The schedules have worked successfully and have built up the present prosperity of the country. However, there will probably be a declaration in the next Republican platform favoring revision. In that case I believe the tariff should be revised along conservative protectionist lines. I do not at the present time expect to see the question of revision made an issue in the campaign, unless in an incidental way. Senator Knox is the proper man to carry out such a policy, and, of course, I am in favor of his candidacy for the presidency. But it is too early to talk candidates. We yet have a session of congress before us, the action of which will largely depend upon the president's message. Much may happen before the next campaign."

Bluffton Defeats Richmond and Portland Beats Van Wert—Double Header Here Today.

Portland at Van Wert.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.
Decatur 12; Kokomo 3.

Bluffton 7; Richmond 4.

STANDING.	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Decatur	23	17	.575
Richmond	23	17	.575
Portland	20	18	.527
Kokomo	20	20	.500
Bluffton	17	23	.425
Van Wert	15	23	.397

On a field that was a sea of mud and in a misty rain, Decatur proved to be the best mud horses and defeated Kokomo in the first game of the series by a score of twelve to three. The antics of the players at times was most amusing, as at no time was fast fielding thought of, and it was up to the team that did the heaviest batting to win, and that team proved to be Decatur. Lacey, our old hoodoo, was on the slab for the visitors, and what the locals did to him was a plenty, and at the end of the second inning he gave up the ghost and hiked for the bench, which he warmed for the remainder of the game. While Lacey lasted, singles and doubles came fast and furious, and it was a wonder that the heavy hitting did not bring down a thunderstorm instead of a mist. Heretofore Lacey has always proven effective against the locals, and as the manager of the visitors was contemplating taking three games, he sent our old foe in against us and the way in which we evened up old scores was a shame. Cy Stout, a big six footer, essayed to take up the work where Lacey stopped, and did exceptionally well until the fifth inning, when a little batting rally let in three runs and Stout looked as if he was willing to give up the job, but no other available pitcher being on hand he was forced to stay. Lefty Richardson was selected to work for Decatur, and Captain Behringer certainly showed excellent judgment in using him, as he had everything, and showed that he was the candy kid when it came to handling a wet and slippery ball. Six hits was all the visitors could register in nine innings and he forced nine men to fan, not a bad record for a bad day. The hitting of the locals was all that could be asked for, and after getting on bases the boys ran wild, securing eight stolen bases off of Catcher Orr. The victory put us a tie with Richmond, as Bluffton proved herself to be the right team in the right place and now that we are on top, we are going to be hard to dislodge. The score tells the tale.

NOTES.

Pi rice, in running to first, after making a pretty bunt, had the misfortune to be hit on the hump by the ball, Lacey throwing it. Jim escaped uninjured.

Again we are tied for first place.

Lacey, our old hoodoo, did not have the goods and was Laceyed all over the lot.

Cullen had his batting clothes on, securing four safe drives in five times up. The fifth time he fanned.

Orr was an easy mark for the locals when it came to stealing bases, and the boys only pilfered eight. Orr's work in throwing to bases was decidedly off color.

Only one error in the mud is quite a remarkable feat for any team; this lone black mark being to Witham, who could not take in a nasty throw.

Richardson had the goods, and his delivery was unsolvable to the visitors, and he was only touched up for six bingles. He struck out nine men, but unfortunately hit three of the opposing batsmen.

A double header is the bill for today, and the boys are going to work hard for two victories. If we can capture two games, our chances for the pennant look decidedly bright, but otherwise the complexion would be something awful. Let's all pull any way.

The antics of both teams trying to field in the mud was very amusing, and evoked much laughter from the audience.
