The value of wise and discreet action has been splendidly demonstrated during the past week. By the prompt and united action of the banks throughout the country, runs on financial institutions were nipped in the bud. Wherever there were symptoms of financial hysteria—and that's all there is to any uneasiness felt outside of Wall street—the rules established by clearing houses worked to a charm. Ignorance and greed were held in check, panicky conditions were allayed and reason resumed sway. This verifies what has often been said, truthfully, that every emergency produces its heroes. It is in the hour of peril that the courage and wisdom of man are brought out.—South Bend Times.

Evangelical Ladies Hold
Successful Sale—Revival
Services Interesting.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church held an all day session at the home of Mrs. J. Moser on Rugg street last Thursday. Knitting comforts was the order of the day and at noon an elegant dinner was served by the hostess, which proved her to be adept in the culinary art. The dinner and the work was dispatched to the satisfaction of all who were present.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Evangelical church met with encouraging success at their recent sale of ready made garments. They have planned for another sale to be held the first week in December. The time and place will be duly announced. Orders for garments will be accepted in advance.

Several brilliant society events are scheduled to come off next week and from all indications some formal parties will be held. Watch these columns for reports of them and if you know of any social affairs and we fail to call upon you for them, notify us by telephone or otherwise.

The revival services at the Methodist church continue to grow in interest and large audiences are present at each session. Rev. Oborn is proving his worth as an evangelist by delivering powerful sermons and interesting the people. Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock a meeting will be held for men only, and Rev. Oborn will talk on the subject "The Best Job." Don't fail to attend this meeting as it promises to be quite interesting to the men who attend. Much good is expected from this series of meetings and with the support of the church members and all who are interested in the Christian cause, they will be such.
