

FALL SHOES

These cool evenings makes us think of high top shoes. Why not buy early and get good selections. Goods are coming in every day in all new and novel patterns. Also the full toe and comfortable heel for people who are on their feet all day.

We are always glad to show you our goods. Come in.

TAGUE SHOE STORE

WEATHER

Generally fair tonight and Wednesday; warmer tonight.

RAILROAD BULLETIN GRAND RAPIDS & INDIANA.

Northbound.

Into Effect Sunday, June 28.
No. 5—Daily 11:28 p.m.
No. 7—Daily 7:57 a.m.
No. 8—Daily ex. Sun. 5:15 p.m.
Southbound.

No. 4—Daily 2:29 a.m.
No. 12—Daily ex. Sun. 7:16 a.m.
No. 2—Daily ex. Sun. 1:11 p.m.
No. 16—Sundays only 8:56 p.m.

ERIE.

Into effect Sunday June 21, 1908.
Eastbound.

No. 8. Daily 5:28 a.m.
No. 12. Daily 2:00 a.m.
No. 22. Daily ex. Sunday 2:00 p.m.
No. 4. Daily 3:26 p.m.
Westbound.

No. 7. Daily 1:52 a.m.
No. 9. Daily 3:12 a.m.
No. 3. Daily 12:46 p.m.
No. 21. Daily, ex. Sunday 10:10 p.m.
No. 15. Daily 7:30 p.m.

T. ST. L. & W. R. R.

No. 2—Frankfort to Toledo, Ex. Sun. 12:45 p.m.
No. 1—Toledo to Frankfort Ex. Sun. 12:22 p.m.
No. 3—Delphos to St. Louis Ex. Sun. 7:21 a.m.
No. 4—St. Louis to Delphos, Ex. Sun. 7:57 p.m.
No. 5—Toledo to St. Louis daily 10:17 p.m.
No. 6—St. Louis to Toledo daily 5:05 a.m.
No. 9—Sunday only, Toledo to Frankfort 10:44 a.m.
No. 10—Sunday only, Frankfort to Toledo 7:07 p.m.

Daily Interurban Schedule THE FT. WAYNE & SPRINGFIELD RAILWAY CO.

Trains Leave Decatur 5:50 a.m. 7:00 a.m. 8:30 a.m. 10:00 a.m. 11:30 a.m. 1:00 p.m. 2:30 p.m. 4:00 p.m. 5:30 p.m. 5:30 p.m. 7:00 p.m. 7:00 p.m. 8:30 p.m. 11:00 p.m.

Trains Leave Ft. Wayne 7:00 a.m. 8:30 a.m. 10:00 a.m. 11:30 a.m. 1:00 p.m. 2:30 p.m. 4:00 p.m. 5:30 p.m. 7:00 p.m. 8:30 p.m.

Theater parties taking the 7:00 p.m. car will arrive at Calhoun or Berry streets, Fort Wayne at 8:10 p.m. The last car leaving Fort Wayne at 11:00 p.m. will wait until after the show.

NOTICE.

I will start my cider mill August 18th, and will make cider every Tuesday and Thursday every week until further notice. Factory N. 3rd St. Respectfully, P. KIRSCH.

HEAVY HICKORY WOOD suitable for furnace or heater. A. M. York, Phone 502. 215-61

THE PICTORIUM TONIGHT

First reel—"Kerchoo" and "Don't Pull my Leg."

Second reel—"Macbeth, the Great Shakespeare Play."

SONG.

"Gypsy Ann" and "Some Day."

Admission 5 cents.

John B. Stoneburner

Mr. Edgar Kilbourne is at Fort Wayne spending the day.

John Bowers made a business trip to Portland this morning.

Oscar Hoffman went to Winchester this morning on business.

Daniel Welty is spending the day in Fort Wayne on business.

Quite a large crowd enjoyed dancing at the park last evening.

John and Herman Colchin were out at their farm yesterday making some improvements.

Chas. Van Camp is moving his family to the Kinney property in the Melchers addition.

Bryan was the principal speaker at a meeting of organized labor in Chicago yesterday.

Walter Moach and wife left for Fort Wayne this morning for a short visit with friends.

Hear Judge Erwin and E. G. Hoffman at the court house Wednesday night of next week.

All the county offices at Bluffton are to be equipped with typewriters and book machines.

Chas. Beam has returned to his home in Fort Wayne after a pleasant visit here with friends.

The street sweeper was out this morning and the streets now present a very neat appearance.

Mrs. Eli Springer and daughter, Miss Florence, left this morning for Indianapolis, where they will attend the state fair this week.

Fred Schafer landed at New York City yesterday and will arrive here Friday after a most delightful three months' trip through Europe.

The Silas Smith saw mill on the J. B. Eaton farm near Bluffton, caught fire for the second time today and was destroyed at a loss of $300.

Mr. and Mrs. Runyon left this morning to attend the state fair at Indianapolis.

Miss Lilah Lachot is at Bluffton spending the week the guest of lady friends.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bailey have returned home from a pleasant visit at Fort Wayne.

Mr. Geiberson, stone contractor, of Cleveland, left this afternoon for Indianapolis.

Bert Bailey, of Monroe, was a caller here this morning and left on the 10 o'clock car for the north on business.

Mrs. Julia Dodane and Miss Isabella Bircott, of Cleveland, are in the city visiting P. F. Dodane and family.

The mail carriers have returned from Marion, where they have been attending the semi-annual meeting of rural carriers.

A local stating that Mr. and Mrs. Frank Christen had returned to Chicago, was an error. Mrs. Christen says they haven't near completed their visit.

A shipment of marble to be used in the office fixtures of the First National bank arrived this morning and the workmen are busy putting it in place.

After forty years Major N. N. Boydston, of Warsaw, has just received from Uncle Sam a draft for $1,000 for services rendered during the civil war. Major Boydston served one year as an enlisted man and more than three years as an officer.

A political sensation was created at Washington, Ind., last Friday, when Captain S. F. Horrell, former editor of the Washington Gazette and one of the foremost Republicans in Davies county, declared that he would not support Injunction Bill Taft for president.—Celina Democrat.

J. B. Stoneburner will present an entire new program this evening at the Pictoriom. These reels are exceptionally good. First is "Leap Year Proposal of an Old Maid." Second "Arabian Dagger." You should not fail to see these.

An effort has been on foot for a county fair in Bluffton, and an effort will be made to enlist $15,000 to buy grounds and construct buildings. At the fall festival a tent will be constructed and the stock will be sold at this time.

Miss Myrtle Burkhead, of Decatur, and Miss Jessie Case of Chicago, who is visiting with the former, transferred here Saturday afternoon enroute to the former's home in Decatur from Redkey, where they have been visiting several days with relatives.—Bluffton Review.

One of the features of the fall festival to be held at Bluffton under the auspices of the various lodges, will be an automobile parade. There are over fifty machines of different makes in Wells county. Manson W. Reiff, prominent Eagle, has been placed in charge of the automobile show.

Chas. Henderson, of Wyoming, is the guest of his uncle, Joseph Shoaf and family of near Peterson. Mr. Henderson is a former Adams county boy, but this is his first visit here since leaving Wyoming with his parents twenty-three years ago. He took a large load of cattle from Wyoming to Chicago, and while there decided to run down to visit Indiana.

A. C. Hoffman left on the 8:30 car to spend the day in Fort Wayne.

Messrs. Baumgartner and Mishand, of Berne, are in the city on business.

John Flannery has returned home after spending Labor Day at Kokomo.

Robert Liechty went to Fort Wayne to spend the day looking after business.

Workmen have completed leveling the lawn at the Dr. Boyers, corner of Third and Monroe street.

Dan Niblick is again at work after a two weeks' illness, during which he fought off typhoid fever.

Mrs. Fred Schafer and Jennie Studabaker left on the 10 o'clock car for Fort Wayne to spend the day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Gehring have returned to Huntington after spending several days here with friends.

Otto Boggs, of this city, is seeking a location for a weekly paper and will probably move to Ohio soon.

Word has been received from Frank Wemhoff, who left last week for Memphis, Tenn., that he arrived there all O. K. and likes the place very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daniel and Mr. and Mrs. Lesh, of Chicago, have left for Indianapolis after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Schafer here.

Kenneth Larwell's cottage at Rome City caught fire yesterday and was extinguished by the aid of a bucket brigade. Very little damage was done.

Father T. J. Travers returned Saturday to his home on east Walnut street from Decatur, where he has been visiting friends for several days.—Portland Review.

It is not believed there ever was a man who had any dry goods bills to pay the first three months of his married life. Brides usually get enough to last them a year.

Miss Celestia Wemhoff and Anna Clark will leave in the morning for Van Wert to take in the fair and visit the rest of the week with Miss Nancy Krauze and Margaret Hyland.

The warm sunshine of today has dissipated the chilly weather to some extent, and made it much more pleasant to the thin blooded people who have been suffering for the last few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matthews have returned to their home at Bloomington after a several days' visit with Mrs. Mary Wemhoff. Mr. Matthews is a member of the firm of Matthews Bros. stone contractors of that place.

Eph Moseure, of Vera Cruz, who has been ill for some time, is reported in a very serious condition. He is suffering from several minor maladies greatly aggravated by the infirmities of his advanced age.—Bluffton News.

A young lady clerk in one of Bluffton's stores showed the proper spirit at the carnival grounds last Friday night, when she gave a young fellow who attempted to be too fresh a resounding slap in the face. He sneaked off in the crowd.

The directors of the great Fort Wayne fair are offering $9,000 in purses and stakes for the races and will have four $1,000 stakes, one each of the first four days. Eighty horses have been entered in the stakes and cheap rates have been secured on all interurban and steam lines. The dates are from September 15 to 19.

Hon. Levi Mock has proposed a bill which he may submit to Joseph Burns for introduction at the special meeting of the legislature. It is for the purpose of total prohibition in Indiana, making it an offense of $100 to sell any liquor in the state. If introduced the republicans could show their real temperance sentiment they have been so boastful about since the state convention.—Bluffton Banner.

Fire Driver Foster Harbaugh and a few of the firemen made a drive to the old Cline & Tribble sawmill Sunday afternoon and extinguished a smouldering fire in a big pile of sawdust. The fire had been smouldering there ever since the fire which destroyed the mill a week ago last Wednesday night. A high wind threatened to blow the embers into surrounding buildings. The firemen believe that they got out all of the fire this trip.—Bluffton Review.

"Lena Rivers," by Mary J. Holmes, the play that comes to the Bosse opera house Tuesday evening, has become noted for the beautiful gowns worn by the ladies of the company, five in number. Several Parisian and London importations are worn and each is said to be a delight to all the ladies who see the play. The management is in close financial straits and friendless, all causing her to become despondent. It is also said that there is in the case a disappointment in love in which a well known Ligonier man is concerned.

Companies of the 160th Indiana volunteer infantry will hold their eighth annual reunion at Goldwater park, September 15, and have sent in their lists from the following places in the number indicated: Wabash, 51; Bluffton, 65; Tipton, 54; Logansport, 32; Ossian, 46; Huntington, 29; Decatur, 41; and Marion 98. Anderson, Warsaw, Lafayette and Columbia City have not been heard from. The invitations are being sent out from the Marion headquarters as fast as the lists are received. Inquiries regarding the reunion have been received from W. J. Vigus, chaplain of the regiment; Don Spielman, Indianapolis; Alva W. Humbaur, Whiting, Ind., and Boston Vail, Wapakoneta, O.—Bluffton Banner.

Chas. Henderson, of Wyoming, is the guest of his uncle, Joseph Shoaf and family of near Peterson. Mr. Henderson is a former Adams county boy, but this is his first visit here since leaving Wyoming with his parents twenty-three years ago. He took a large load of cattle from Wyoming to Chicago, and while there decided to run down to visit Indiana.

REAL THE SNOW HAS ESTATE AGENCY FOR SALE

HERE ARE A FEW SAMPLE PROPERTIES WE ARE NOW OFFERING FOR SALE

We have a large number of others on the market, and may have just what you are wanting. If you are interested in the purchase or sale of business rooms or residence, town or city property or farmland in Indiana, Texas and New Mexico. Examine our recent large descriptive lists of these properties. If you wish a buyer for your property, see what we may be able to do for you. No charge for advertising property if left on the market for the time listed.

THE SNOW AGENCY DECATUR, IND.

710—Is a three quarter acre tract on the gravel pike just outside of the city limits of Decatur. Has all new buildings in a good location: house a story and a half frame, six room building with nice front porch, good cistern and natural wood finish throughout. Can be bought for $1,025.00.

674—Is a three quarter acre tract of well improved ground just outside the city limits of Decatur on the traction line south. Has good frame story and a half house, good garden plenty of fruit, and shade, has large cistern, small stable and some other buildings. Good location just beyond the corporation at $1,550.00.

694—Is a 55 acre tract within a half mile of the stoned road and near church and school and about two miles from a good market railroad station, etc. About twenty acres of this farm is black land as is to be found along the Wabash river. The remainder is largely sand and clay loam. The buildings are inexpensive and the land needs fencing. Considering quality of the land, location, etc., it is a good bargain at $2,100.00, if sold within the next 60 days.

675—Is a 110 acre tract on the public road near market and about $\frac{1}{2}$ mile to school also near graded school and church. Has ordinary house, large barn, and some other buildings; productive soil, a mixture of clay and sand loam with some black land. It sold soon the farming implements, stock, etc., can be sold with this farm. The tract alone can be sold for \$1,450.00.

665—Is a one hundred acre tract of perhaps 40 or 50 acres black land with the remainder a mixture of sand and clay soil. This land lies on the public road in a good location near Decatur. Has inexpensive buildings, a horse and hay barn, perhaps 30 by 40, a small cottage house and some other buildings. This tract can be bought for $5,600.

690—Is a sixty acre tract on the stoned road within a mile and a half of Decatur; is a good average quality of land, of which 25 or 30 acres is black and yellow sand mixture; has good cottage house with brick cellar, about 14 by 16 feet in size; horse and hay barn, crib, granary, etc. This farm is a half mile from school and church, is on the telephone and rural free delivery lines and for the next 60 days can be bought for $35.00 an acre.

732—Is a good 81 acre tract on the gravel pike within about three miles of Decatur; is well fenced, has good average buildings, which consist of a convenient story and a half ten room house on stone foundation, large horse and hay barn, crib, granary, etc. This farm is a half mile from school and church, is on the telephone and rural free delivery lines and for the next 60 days can be bought for $2,750.

WE HAVE A LARGE LIST of smaller tracts ranging from one to ten acres and some good 40, 80 and 160 acre tracts not given in this list. See our larger list before buying.

Call For a List of City Property

You have tried the rest, now try the best—Admiral coffee. 209tf

If your dealer does not handle Admiral coffee, others do. 209tf

209tf

209tf

209tf

209tf

209tf

209tf

209tf