For these fall evenings when the snap is in the air, we can't do better for you than a nice fall weight overcoat. They're suitable for anytime. You ought also to have one of our fine fancy weave suits for business; and a black cheviot or thibet for other wear. We'll dress you right if you'll let us; it won't cost you more than you think it's worth; and you'll be satisfied.

GENEVIEVE IMPROVES

Operation Was Successful—
Mrs. Mylott Came Home
Yesterday

Mrs. Thomas Mylott returned yesterday from Chicago where she has been at the bedside of her daughter, Miss Genevieve, who was badly injured in a wreck on the elevated railroad. The injured girl is doing as well as can be expected and it thought that she will fully recover in time. The operation which was performed to remove a portion of a broken bone from her skull was quite successful and now the family is hopeful for the ultimate recovery of the girl. Mrs. Mylott will return to Chicago in the very near future. She has engaged attorney Bartle of that place to make a thorough examination of the accident and in the event that the wreck occurred responsive to negligence of the railroad employees it is quite likely that a damage suit will follow. It is quite evident that the engineers were wholly responsible for the mishap as they were both trying to reach the crossing place first. The Decatur friends of Miss Genevieve are glad to hear of her improved condition.

ASA JENNINGS WHERRY.

Asa Jennings Wherry, son of William and Pernilla Wherry, was born at the home of his parents about 7 1/2 miles southeast of Monroe, Ind., Dec. 16, 1896. Departed this life Oct. 3, 1908, age 11 years, 9 months, 17 days. His death was due to an accident. While driving a team hitched to a disc harrow, in some unknown way he fell in front of the harrow and was caught and dragged several rods. When found life was extinct. He leaves a father, mother, four brothers, two sisters, grandmother and many friends. Funeral services from Clark's Chapel Oct. 5, at 1 p. m., by Rev. C. P. Marsh, pastor Bobo charge.
