The "scare" campaign that the Republicans were going to start has been going on for some time. They are scared to death.

Congressman Adair is speaking every night. In the list of his dates next week is Decatur, Oct. 14; Portland, Oct. 15, and Muncie, Oct. 16. Uncle Nate is not in good voice and it is feared that he will not be able to speak only by proxy.

The deficit in the United States revenues for September was $4,583,971 as against $3,909,128 for August. It would seem that a tariff that has the effect of putting more money into the public treasury and less grab into the coffers of the monopolists would be welcomed by the people of this country.—South Bend Times.

The Hon. Champ Clark, congressman from Missouri, and in all probability the next speaker of the lower house of Congress, will make an address at the court room tomorrow, Friday evening. Mr. Clark is one among the nation's best orators and will both instruct and delight those who hear him. Some of the fortunate ones will remember him at St. Louis, where he acted as permanent chairman of the Democratic national convention in 1904. Decatur and Adams county is most fortunate in having so brilliant a speaker with them for one evening.

Mr. Hanly announced at Crawfordsville this week that he was a $10,000 governor and that he had saved the state hundreds of thousands of dollars. He said the people would make a grievous mistake to choose a cheap man for governor, and rather gave out the impression that he himself was without any doubt the biggest and best man that had ever filled the governor's chair. Really J. Frank is getting chesty. It is quite refreshing to hear a man telling of his own greatness rather than leaving it to the people to pass upon.—Columbia City Post.

Prof. Charles W. Eliot, president of Harvard university, in a recent communication to the Reform league of New York, delivered a telling blow to the high tariff system under which the country is now suffering, and by which the many are being robbed for the benefit of the favored few. Prof. Eliot's letter is a stinging rebuke to the system which builds up monopolies and increases the cost of products to the American consumer and at the same time enables the trusts created by the tariff to sell their goods cheaper in foreign markets than at home. His statements are particularly interesting in view of the fact, not only that he is one of the leading educators and foremost economic scholars in the country, but he is also at the head of the institution of which President Roosevelt is a graduate, a position which it has been said President Roosevelt would like to occupy at some future time.

All his life Tax Title Hawkins has worked on the theory that money is the ruling power, not only in business but in politics. He is acting upon that theory now. It may hire agents to malign his opponent and it may capture a few votes on election day, but it will never appeal to the militant force of the better element of the eighth district, who, regardless of party, are demanding that the man they vote for must be honest honorable in his dealings, and a man who possesses the ability to represent them in congress. Do they know of Mr. Hawkins possessing a single one of these qualifications? He has not dared to go out over the district and attempt to defend his position realizing that if he were to do so he would only expose his own incompetency, hence he has chosen the paid agent, back door policy, relying upon mud-slinging tactics and his great wealth to carry him through.—Portland Sun.

DEMOCRATS DECISIVE VICTORY

Republicans Claims for Georgia Proven Absurd.
Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8.—A general election was held throughout the state yesterday. The only contest was between Joseph Brown, Democrat, and Yancey Carter, Independent, for governor. With 130 counties heard from, Carter had carried two and Brown the others. Brown's majority will be in the neighborhood of 95,000. Carter was supported by the opposition, republicans, populists and independents. Bryan carried the state in 1896 by 34,141 and in 1900 by 46,665.

CELEBRATE HISTORICAL EVENT

Decatur, Ky. of C. Will Observe Anniversary of Discovery of America.
The Decatur Council Knights of Columbus will celebrate the anniversary of the discovery of America at their hall on Wednesday night, Oct. 14. Preparations are now going on for the event. Several good speakers are on the program, among them the Rev. Thos. Henshaw, of Van Wert, who has spoken here on several occasions. It will be made a great event for the local knights and their friends.

VISIT THE CHARGES

Six M. E. Ministers, Including Dr. Wilcox Hold One Day Missionary Services

IN DECATUR TODAY

One Day Rallies Held at Ossian, Fort Wayne, Hoagland and Poe

Composing division E, of the Fort Wayne sub-district rally arrangement, the Revs. C. M. Hobbs, Fort Wayne; J. S. Newcomb, Hoagland; C. L. Marsh, Bobo; G. W. Martin, Ossian; E. B. Brown, Fort Wayne, and Dr. C. B. Wilcox of this city have held one day missionary meetings at various points in this vicinity, meeting with marked success at each place they visited. The ministers held services at Ossian Monday, Fort Wayne Tuesday and Hoagland and Poe yesterday, and will conduct meetings at the local M. E. church this afternoon and evening. The general work of the church is extensively discussed at these missionary meetings which creates enthusiasm in behalf of the Christian cause and inasmuch as such work is being done over the entire district is evidence that much good will be derived therefrom. Rev. G. W. Martin has acted as chairman of division E and he has efficiently looked after the duties characteristic to the position. The Revs. C. M. Hobbs, J. S. Newcomb, C. L. Marsh and G. W. Martin are scheduled for addresses at the meetings to be held here this afternoon and evening, and a large attendance is expected. The afternoon services will begin at 1:30 o'clock.

A FAMILY MEETING

Studabaker Family and Near Relatives to Be Royally Entertained

IN DECATUR TONIGHT

Relatives from Kansas, Fort Wayne and Bluffton Are Here

An event that will no doubt be long remembered by the Studabaker family and relatives is scheduled to occur at the home of Miss Hattie Studabaker this evening, when at a six o'clock family dinner relatives from Kansas, Fort Wayne, Bluffton and Decatur will be royally entertained. Mrs. Ann Deam and daughter, Mrs. Holliday, and Mrs. Mosure, of Kansas, cousins of the Studabakers, arrived in Bluffton several days ago and in their honor, Mrs. E. Weickling of that place entertained the Studabakers. The Kansas guests including Mrs. E. Weickling, Mrs. W. McBride and daughter, Meud, Mrs. Eugene Morrow, Mrs. J. Simison and Mrs. Cook, of Bluffton, came to Decatur today and they, together with Mesdames W. J. Vesey, Sarah and Allen Vesey, of Fort Wayne and Mesdames John Niblick, Elizabeth Morrison, A. D. Suttles and D. E. Studabaker of this city and Mrs. O. P. Edwards, of Lelaps, Ohio, are to be entertained by Miss Hattie Studabaker this evening. A most enjoyable time is anticipated by all who are fortunate in being included in the party. The same party will be entertained by Mrs. W. J. Vesey at Fort Wayne next week.

A BULLETIN OF IMPORTANCE.

The Feeding Stuff Control Law in its Relation to Producers and Consumers.

Information having reached this office that in some parts of the state the requirements of the feeding stuff law are not understood, it is deemed advisable to issue this circular of information.

1. The Feeding Stuff Law covers all materials used for the feeding of domestic animals except hay, straw, whole seeds and the unmixed meals made directly from the entire grains of wheat, rye, barley, oats, Indian corn, buckwheat, broom corn, wheat flour and other flours. All materials except these specifically mentioned as being exempt must be registered and tagged when offered or exposed for sale in this state.
2. The law contains no provision which prevents any farmer or consumer from mixing and having ground materials of his own production in any

WORTHY OF CONFIDENCE.

An Offer Backed Up by One of the Most Reputable Concerns in Decatur.

We will either cure you of constipation or pay for all the medicine used during the trial. You pay us nothing if we fail. That's a mighty broad statement, and we mean every word of it. We will back it up with our personal reputation, too. Could anything be more fair and secure for you?

The most scientific, common sense treatment is Rexall Orderlies. Their active principle is a very recent scientific discovery that is odorless, colorless and tasteless; very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in its action, and particularly agreeable in every way. This ingredient does not cause any diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence or griping. Rexall Orderlies are as pleasant to take as candy and are particularly good for children and delicate persons. If you suffer from chronic or habitual constipation, or the associate or dependent chronic ailments, we urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Remember, you can only get them at our stores. The Smith, Yager & Falk Co., Decatur, Indiana.
