REGULATE

THE CORPORATIONS

In order to give respectability to its utterances the Daily News quotes Judge R. S. Taylor and seeks to reflect upon Senator Stephen B. Fleming for a bill presented by him when he was a member of the state senate. That Judge Taylor should lend himself to such unfair methods is either proof that he is ignorant of the facts or has reached that mental stage that should disqualify him for public service—a position he holds on the Mississippi commission through democratic friendship.

The facts are these: The bill published by the News and interpreted by Judge Taylor, to suit its partisan purposes, is the New Jersey corporation law.

The News and Judge Taylor purposely omit the remarks of Senator Fleming in presenting the bill to the senate for he did not indorse it; in fact he presented it as a rebuke to the republican senate, or rather the republican legislature, for having neglected to control corporations.

Senator Fleming said in his address that the bill was an exact copy of the New Jersey incorporation law, the fees from which sustained the whole government of that state.

Senator Fleming said there were many objectionable provisions in the law—many provisions he did not approve of, but he said that so long as Indiana permitted corporations, organized in New Jersey, to come into the state and do business, according to New Jersey laws, our government ought to have the fees—the game as well as the name.

Senator Fleming openly criticized the legislature because it had not passed a law regulating the corporations doing business in the state—because it had not a law on its statute books regulating and controlling corporations organized in other states, and turning into the treasury the fees from that source.

That was why he introduced the New Jersey law and said that so long as New Jersey created corporations could come into Indiana and do business, the state ought to get the benefit of the fees—the game as well as the name.

The Indiana senate rejected the New Jersey law, but Senator Fleming's agitation led to the enactment of a law regulating the corporations, and it will be recalled that fees from that source materially enriched the state.

Senator Fleming's position was that the state of Indiana should regulate and control all corporations doing business in the state—that the state should require them to obtain charters from it and exercise jurisdiction over them, and that is why he gave the legislature the alternative of doing that or obtaining fees from the corporations that were being created in New Jersey to do business in Indiana under the very law Judge Taylor and the News resurrect—a law that was presented then as a rebuke to the republican legislature—a legislature that was giving corporations free rein.

The honest people of Indiana will certainly indorse the views of Senator Fleming and approve his course in the senate.—Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette.

Congressman Adair, the democratic representative of the Eighth Indiana district introduced a bill at the last session to give every ex-soldier of the civil war a pension of $1 per day. Speaker Cannon and his aides, James S. Sherman and James E. Watson, smothered the bill, giving as their excuse that it would cost the country $17,000,000 a year. And then they went right ahead and voted for a subsidy of $75,000,000 to the ship owners' trust. Millions for the trust; not one cent for the soldiers.—Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette.

In 1904 Wm. H. Taft recommended to congress and congress passed a law whereby the United States government guaranteed the railroad builders in the Philippines 5 per cent profit on bonds amounting to $1,500,000 a year for 20 years. This meant the guaranteeing of a return of 5 per cent to railroad constructors or $30,000,000 all told. Mr. Taft was willing to subsidize railroads and have the government guarantee their interests, but he is opposed to guaranteeing to the 15,000,000 bank depositors in the United States the security of their savings.

"In amount, the failures of the last nine months exceed in number the failures of the corresponding nine months of 1893, and the difference between assets and liabilities is greater this year than it was in 1893, although the total number of the liabilities was greater in 1893 than this year. But it must be remembered that the McKinley law was still in force in 1893. It was in force until the summer of 1894. The Wilson bill was not passed until the summer of 1894. The failures of that year were not as great either in number or in the amount of liabilities as they are this year. The failures in 1896 were not equal to the failures of this year in number or in amount of liabilities, and yet in 1896 the republicans were talking about a democratic panic and promising prosperity."—Wm. J. Bryan's Speech.

As we understand Mr. Roosevelt's defense of the Harriman campaign contribution—

1. It was entirely proper for Mr. Roosevelt to solicit this money, because he intended to bunco Harriman and did bunco him.

2. Secrecy was necessary because Mr. Roosevelt's motives might have been misconstrued by low-minded persons who would see in the transaction a sordid attempt on the part of Harriman to control the presidency through the use of tainted money.

3. Publicity of such a contribution before election might have thwarted the high moral purpose of Mr. Roosevelt in separating Harriman from his money without giving him anything in return.

4. Other presidential candidates should never be permitted to engage in similar negotiations, because even were they sufficiently patriotic to repudiate the moral obligation they would not be sufficiently practical to deceive a man like Harriman.

5. The fact that it was Theodore Roosevelt who did this is a complete answer to all hostile criticism.

Having defended the contribution, perhaps Mr. Roosevelt will now explain just how the money was used, as Harriman said, to turn 50,000 votes in the election.

bitterness between the two factions. With the opening of the present campaign the men who supported Mayor Dunne turned against Mr. Bryan. The conservatives, as they called themselves, have now swung into line for Bryan and Stevenson which, according to their representations, gives the democrats the almost solid support of the car men. The democratic leaders were jubilant last night when they learned of the action of the "conservative" wing of the car men's organization.

MAKES ASTONISHING CURES

Mi-o-na Tablets Cure Dyspepsia by Promptly Removing the Cause, or Money Back.

Dyspepsia cannot be cured by taking a digester, such as pepsin, because pepsin simply digests your food artificially, and not all of the food either, for it has no effect at all on starchy food such as potatoes, rice, oatmeal, bread, etc.

There is just one way to cure dyspepsia and stomach disorders, trivial or serious, and that is to tone up or put energy into the stomach walls, so that they will be able to properly mix or churn the food.

Mi-o-na tablets cure stomach troubles by putting strength and energy into the stomach. They quickly arouse the stomach from its inaction, and in a short time it is able to do its work properly.

Mi-o-na is successfully used in remedy of pregnancy, in car and sea sickness.

And bear in mind that when the stomach is in good condition, constipation disappears, and nervousness, drowsiness, night sweats, heartburn, etc.

Holthouse Drug Co. sell Mi-o-na tablets at 50 cents a large box, under a rigid guarantee to do all that is claimed for them, or money back.

THE SOCIAL NEWS

Columbian Club Entertained

LAST EVENING

A Profitable Missionary
Meeting—Eastern Star
Hold Meeting

A pleasant and profitable missionary meeting was held yesterday afternoon by the Christian Woman's Missionary Society at the home of Mrs. Fisher. Good helpful talks on missionary work were given by those present. Both the evangelists contributed to the interest of the meeting by talks and Mrs. Crabb sang beautifully that lovely old song "Cast Thy Bread Upon the Waters." Several poems were read and a pleasant social hour enjoyed during which time the hostess served tea.

The members of the Columbian Club entertained the members of the Y. L. E. and Bachelor Maids club at a card party at their club rooms last evening, after which a social session was held. These boys still hold their reputation as royal entertainers, as was evident in the manner in which they carried out the program. Excellent music was furnished by Ralph Moser and Vane Weaver. The boys had arranged an oyster fry, which was served late in the evening at the Smith and Parrish restaurant. The boys intend to hold these sessions every few weeks during the winter.

The Queen Esther Circle of the M. E. church will meet with Miss Helen Niblick Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A good program will be given and a cordial invitation is extended to all members and friends.

The Eastern Star lodge will hold their regular meeting this evening. All the members are urged to be present at tonight's meeting as much business of importance will be transacted.

The meeting of the Ladies' Mite Society of the M. E. church which was to have been held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. J. Rice, has been postponed one week because of the death of a relative of the hostess.

HON. GEORGE E. CLARK SPOKE

Addressed Audience at the Court Room Last Night.

Hon. George E. Clark, of South Bend, addressed quite a large number of voters at the court room last evening, speaking from the republican standpoint. Mr. Clark is one of the best orators in Indiana and has many friends in Decatur, regardless of politics. His speech last night was a eulogy upon Taft whom he compared with such men as Lincoln and others of historic fame. He was listened to attentively throughout and his remarks seemed to please at least the greater portion of his audience.

CHURCH AFFAIRS

Last night were very interesting and helpful. The whole aim of the evangelist seems to be to bring the people to a knowledge of God's word and an acknowledgment of Christ's claims upon them. His theme last night was "The Name That is Above Every Name." Among other things he said that Christ exalted his own name by the life he lived—a sinless and a helpful life. His Father exalted Christ's name when at his baptism he said audibly "This is My Beloved Son." And again on the Mount of Transfiguration the same words spoken "This is my beloved son; hear ye him." Not Moses, who was a leader of the Jews nor the Prophet Elijah whose prophetic utterances were to be fulfilled in Christ, but His Son who was henceforth to be the leader of all peoples. Mrs. Crabb sang a beautiful solo: "The Name of Jesus." The theme for tonight is: "He that Wineth Souls is Wise," and the solo by Mrs. Crabb is entitled: "Save One." You are all very cordially invited to forget politics until election day and give some thought to the higher and better things of life. By recent occurrences we are brought sadly to acknowledge the fact that "in the midst of life we are in death," and that truly we know not what a day may bring forth.

BAKER FILES HIS PETITION.

To Run for Congress on Independence Ticket.

The petition that has been circulated in various parts of Jay county during the past two or three weeks, the signers of which request that the name of Nathan H. Baker, of Portland, be placed on the county ticket as the candidate of the Independence party for congress from the Eighth district, was filed Tuesday morning in the office of the clerk of the Adams circuit court. At the same time, similar petitions were filed in each of the five other counties of the district. Under the law, it is necessary for the candidate for any office of any party, who is not nominated by a regularly organized convention, to get on the ticket through a petition therefor, signed by a given number of the qualified electors of the territory in which he is a candidate.

OPERA HOUSE.

The talking pictures at the opera house last night made a decided hit, the house was well filled and everybody went away pleased. Tonight the company will give one show at 8:30, the usual hour for attractions at the opera house. If you want to see the real talking pictures we have them for you at the opera house tonight, also high class vaudeville, and if you say you didn't get your money's worth come to the box office and we will refund your money. The price is 10c for blue chairs and 20c for opera chairs. Reserved at Holthouse Drug Store.

DON'T LOSE YOUR HAIR.

Parisian Sage Stops Falling Hair in Two Weeks, or Holthouse Drug Co., Will Refund Your Money. Look at your comb.

Hair coming out pretty fast, isn't it? Getting so thin on top that you are commencing to feel rather shaggy. Perhaps you are even beginning to worry. Don't worry; don't lie awake nights; don't wait another day, but go to the drug store of Holthouse Drug Co. and get a large bottle of Parisian Sage. It will only cost you 50 cents, and before you have used it a week you will say it is worth $10.

The people in Decatur and vicinity, and especially the readers of the Democrat ought to know that Holthouse Drug Co. guarantees Parisian Sage to stop falling hair, to cure dandruff, to stop itching scalp.

As a hair dressing and especially for ladies of refinement, it has no equal anywhere. It has a most delightful yet delicate odor, which most hair tonics have not.

It will, in one week's time, change harsh, unattractive hair into lustrous and luxuriant hair. The women who use Parisian Sage never fail to add wonderfully to their attractiveness. "I have used and seen used, several hair tonics and so-called renewers, but never had any come to my notice that can ever compare with Parisian Sage. It leaves the hair clean, fluffy and silky, and does not leave one particle of stickiness."—Mrs. Ida Wilcox, hair dresser, Coldwater, Mich.

Buy Parisian Sage at Holthouse Drug Co. or direct by express, all charges prepaid, from Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.
