audience. Every one who can should hear his speech.

Frank Geary, who was laid off from work as brakeman on the G. R. & L. railroad has returned to Fort Wayne to resume his duties. This is an indication that the railroad business is picking up as they are calling their old men back.

Albert E. Tucker, of Akron, Kosciusko county, has just wedded Lulu E.
Tucker, of Atwood, who was the divorcee wife of Tucker's son. The wedding occurred within an hour after the woman had secured her decree from the younger Tucker.
