

ALL
10, 15 and 25c goods now on display in our window.
Your choice
for only 9cents
until Saturday
October 24th.
MOSER'S
China and Notion Store.

WEATHER
Partly cloudy with probably showers tonight or Saturday.

RAILROAD BULLETIN
ERIE.
Into Effect Sunday June 21, 1908.

Eastbound.
No. 8-Daily	5:28 a.m.
No. 12-Daily	2:00 p.m.
No. 22-Daily, ex. Sunday	2:06 p.m.
No. 4-Daily	3:26 p.m.
Westbound.
No. 7-Daily	1:52 a.m.
No. 9-Daily	3:12 a.m.
No. 3-Daily	12:46 p.m.
No. 21-Daily, ex. Sunday	10:10 p.m.
No. 15-Daily	7:30 p.m.

Daily Interurban Schedule

THE FT. WAYNE & SPRINGFIELD RAILWAY CO.

Trains Leave	Trains Leave
Decatur	Fort Wayne
5:50 a.m.	7:00 a.m.
7:00 a.m.	8:30 a.m.
10:00 a.m.	11:30 a.m.
11:30 a.m.	1:00 p.m.
1:00 p.m.	2:30 p.m.
2:30 p.m.	4:00 p.m.
4:00 p.m.	5:30 p.m.
5:30 p.m.	7:00 p.m.
7:00 p.m.	8:30 p.m.
9:30 p.m.	11:00 p.m.

Theater parties taking the 7:00 p.m. car will arrive at Calhoun or Berry streets, Fort Wayne at 8:10 p.m. The last car leaving Fort Wayne at GRAND RAPIDS & INDIANA, South Bound.

No. 6-Daily	12:47 a.m.
No. 12-Daily, ex. Sunday	7:16 a.m.
No. 2-Daily, ex. Sunday	1:11 p.m.
No. 16-Sunday only	8:36 p.m.

North Bound.

No. 5-Daily	1:28 a.m.
No. 7-Daily	7:57 a.m.
No. 3-Daily, ex. Sunday	3:07 p.m.

T. ST. L. & W. R. R.

No. 2-Frankfort to Toledo, Ex. Sunday	12:45 p.m.
No. 1-Toledo to Frankfort, Ex. Sunday	12:22 p.m.
No. 3-Delphos to St. Louis, Ex. Sunday	7:21 a.m.
No. 4-St. Louis to Delphos, Ex. Sunday	7:57 p.m.
No. 5-Toledo to St. Louis, daily	10:17 p.m.
No. 6-St. Louis to Toledo, daily	5:05 a.m.
No. 9-Sunday only, Toledo to Frankfort	10:44 a.m.
No. 10-Sunday only, Frankfort to Toledo	7:07 p.m.

* Do you like a mild cigar? Try *
* the "Evening Star," made in De- * * catur by H. A. Colchin. 5c. and *
* it hits the spots. 237-62 *

THERE'S A STRING TO YOUR MONEY

When You Pay It With a Check

If the value received isn't sufficient for the amount remitted or if for any other legal reason you wish the payment stopped, you can have it so immediately, advising this bank when you remit by check. One of the many virtues of a checking account.

Old Adams County Bank

Walter Wemhoff was transacting business at Berne today.

Geo. Kinzie was at Berne today in the interest of the Citizens' Telephone Co.

Mr. Jesse Helm went to Indianapolis this morning to spend a few days with friends.

Mrs. Mabel Hillinger went to Fort Wayne this morning for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. H. N. Mathewson went to Fort Wayne this morning for a short visit with her son, Charles.

Miss May Gessinger went to Fort Wayne this morning, where she will make her home for the winter.

Miss Elenora Forbing returned this morning from a two weeks' visit with her sister Mrs. Joseph Heffner, at Fort Recovery, Ohio.

Several Halloween parties are being planned for next week. This year it comes on Saturday, but the day will be observed at most places on Friday.

Marshall day in Fort Wayne on Saturday, the 31st, is to be the biggest event of the kind ever held in that great political and business center.

Miss Jennie Woodward went to Traverse City, Mich., this morning for an extended visit. She had just returned from a visit with her parents at Pennville.

The Juvenile Band will play next Sunday at the county infirmary. The boys have been practicing daily and will soon be the best in this part of the state.

Frank Kern and wife, of Decatur, who have been visiting relatives in this city for several days, returned to their home this morning.—Bluffton Banner.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Macke returned to their home at Birmingham, Ala., this morning. They were here attending the funeral of her father, R. B. Allison.

There will be a box supper next Saturday evening at the Brandyberry school house five miles south of Decatur. The public is all invited. Ray Smith, teacher.

Thomas Stoneburner has resigned his position at the Esterbrook barber shop and accepted a position at the Dull barber shop in the Bliss hotel.—Bluffton Banner.

Chris Meyer, the tailor, went to Celina and St. Marys this morning to deliver nine tailor-made suits. Chris is certainly a hustler and is enjoying a fine patronage.

A. W. Fishback, of Celina, Ohio, official engineer for the Fort Wayne & Springfield Railway company, was in the city this morning looking up some business matters.

Heck Hensley and Lyle Ellis have returned from Rome City, where they have been fishing for several days. They report fishing for this time of the year was not very good.

Mr. Frederick Snyder, Mr. C. H. Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stewart have just returned from Odon, Ind., where they have been visiting friends and attending the Snyder reunion.

Mr. S. Melch is making preparations to open a barber shop in the Bremerkamp building, now occupied by the Mission Hall, a partition being put in and each to occupy half the building.

The funeral of Mrs. Jane Metts was held at Ossian this afternoon. A large number of people from this city attended, going up on the noon car. The funeral and burial was both made in Ossian.

Sunday, Oct. 18, Misses Goldia and Ruth Gay, Lillie Teeple and Mrs. J. Rutledge, of this city, spent Sunday in the country at W. W. Stewart's near Wren, Ohio. They report as having a good time and plenty to eat.

The county was billed from one end to the other yesterday for the big celebration next Wednesday. Tom Marshall Day. They made the trip in an automobile and certainly covered a lot of ground, making Monroe, Williams, Preble, Craigville, Vera Cruz, Linn Grove, New Corydon, Geneva, Berne, Pleasant Mills and Willshire.

Unless something comes up between now and next session of the court the grand jury will have very little to do. John W. Terrell is now under arrest on an old indictment and his case will not have to be considered. About the only matter which the jury will have to investigate will be the large amount of chicken stealing which has been going on in the country surrounding the city.—Bluffton Banner.

John S. Parry, president of the state federation of California, has left the Gompers train and is going to spend part of the remainder of his time between now and the election over in Indiana. His idea is to go to several of the cities where the labor organizations are strong and tell them in heart to heart talks how the labor organizations of the country really stand on the different issues of the campaign. Mr. Parry has been a life long republican and with the exception of two local officers in San Francisco always voted the republican ticket.

A. E. Starr, of Richmond, was in the city today on business.

John Hendricks, of Monroe, was here on business this morning.

Hugh Woods made a business trip to Fort Wayne this afternoon.

You have all read at one time or another of the melancholy days. Well, these are them.

Mrs. Huber, of Marion, changed cars here this morning for Berne, to visit with relatives.

C. W. Cunningham returned to Berne this afternoon after transacting business here.

Mrs. M. Hobrock, of Fort Wayne, has arrived for a visit with Mrs. D. Hobrock of this city.

Mrs. B. F. Kern has returned from Bluffton where she made a short visit with Mrs. Lewis King.

Sheriff Eli Meyer took Master Lloyd Harris, of Berne, to the Plainfield reformatory this morning.

Ms. J. J. Summers returned to Cape-town, Ind., this afternoon after a short visit here with relatives.

Don Quinn made a business trip to Richmond this afternoon in the interest of the Decatur Egg Case Co.

Bill Parsons was on another of his drunks this morning, and was going to make another of his famous runs.

The Wallace circus is said to have netted during the season more than $125,000 for its owner, Col. B. E. Wallace, of Peru.

John W. Terrell has been passing a very quiet time in his cell and has had no more attacks similar to the one Sunday.

W. H. Leas, of Waterloo, returned to his home this morning from a short visit in the city with his daughter, Mrs. Earl Peters.

Mrs. Edward Larue returned to Geneva this afternoon. She had been taking care of her sick daughter, Mrs. Everett, north of Wren.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Schaffer left last evening for their home at Dallas, Texas, after an extended visit among old friends in this city and elsewhere.

Leslie Stephenson pleaded guilty at Goshen to the charge of having assaulted Mary Cripe, 13, and was given a prison sentence of from two to twenty-one years.

J. B. Stogdill, of Fort Wayne was in the city last evening. Mr. Stogdill is in the piano and jewelry business at Fort Wayne. He was formerly in the same business at Willshire.

Miss Elenora Forbing, of Decatur, transferred here Thursday enroute to her home from Fort Recovery, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Joe Heffner for the last few days.—Portland Review.

A very pleasant surprise was given on Mrs. McQueen last evening at her home on Eighth street by several of her neighbors in the shape of a masquerade party. The guests came in very unique costumes and caused much merriment finding out who they were. The evening was spent in playing various games and music. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. McQueen will soon move to the country to make her future home.

According to report from Decatur W. J. Bryan, democratic candidate for president, will not be in that city October 31, as was previously arranged. As a result local democrats who had decided to attend the Bryan meeting at Decatur will have to go elsewhere if they wish to hear the Nebraskan this year. It was deemed necessary to change the tour owing to the fact that there were several places to make and the schedule had to be made over so that he could get over the territory.—Bluffton Banner.

Miss Hilda Tudor will entertain the members of the Invincible Club in their regular meeting, Saturday night, at her home west of Portland. The young ladies will be taken to the country home of the hostess on a hay wagon and the regular meeting will be followed by a slumber party. The following club members will be present: Misses Mabel Long, Angie and Vera Wilson, Emma Holloway, Erva Crim, Elizabeth Franks, Naomi Miller, Frances Twombly, Glenna Dolins and Helen Emerson.—Portland Sun.

Hay's Hair Health

Never Fails to Restore Gray Hair to its Natural Color and Beauty.

No matter how long it has been gray or faded. Promotes a luxuriant growth of healthy hair. Stops its falling out, and positively removes dandruff. Keeps hair soft and glossy. Refuse all substitutes. 2½ times as much in $1.00 as 50c. size. Is Not a Dye.

$1 and 50c. bottles, at druggists. Send 2c for free book "The Care of the Hair." Philo Hay Spec. Co., Newark, N. J.

Hay's Hairina Soap cures Pimples, red, rough and chapped hands, and all skin diseases. Keeps skin fine and soft. 25c. druggists. Send 2c for free book "The Care of the Skin."

Holthouse Drug Co.

Miss Alice Hyland, of Lima, Ohio, is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hamrick.

An agreement was made this morning between Andrew Welfy and his nephew, that in case Bryan was elected his nephew would have to roll a peanut around the court house square or vice versa.

Rev. George A. Harter, in former years pastor of the Lutheran church at Avilla, died a few days ago at Youngstown, O., at the age of 60 years. The remains were brought to Avilla for interment.

James P. Haefling, clerk of the Adams circuit court, transferred in this city Thursday morning while enroute to Indianapolis to take charge of the state ballots allotted to that county for use in the November election.—Portland Sun.

L. L. Martz went to Decatur this afternoon to attend the funeral of John Phipps, who was a veteran of the 34th Indiana infantry, which served in the civil war. Mr. Phipps was well known in this city. He died Wednesday morning.—Bluffton Banner.

There will be something doing next Tuesday evening when the big democratic night meeting occurs here. Kern, Clayton, Gore and others of national fame will be on the special interurban car that will arrive at 8:05. The parade is scheduled for seven o'clock.

Ten days more of excitement and turmoil, incident to a presidential election, and then things will assume the old schedule, and we poor mortals will soon forget there has been any question raised about the ruination of business if one man is elected, or the country is going to the dogs if the other is chosen.

Two traveling men from New York city were discussing politics at the Murray this morning. One says "I'm going all the way to New York to vote for Taft and Chanler." The other says: "You haven't any the best of me for I'm going the same distance to vote for Bryan and Hughes." Now how is a shoe string gambler going to figure the dope so he can place his bets correctly?

The troubles of the Mission workers seem to grow with the passing of each day. So rude was a young man by the name of John Smith, who attended the services last night that Daniel Haley, a member, filed an affidavit against him charging him with disturbing religious services and other charges, including profanity. The affidavit is in the hands of Constable Smith and will be served soon. The mission workers are experiencing much trouble lately in managing their audiences, as many people go there to laugh and talk. We are informed, however, that every person who in the least interrupts meetings hereafter will be prosecuted. Mr. Haley will see to it that they are brought to justice.

FRENCH TOWNSHIP ITEMS.

On Tuesday evening, Oct. 21, a party was given in honor of Mr. Samuel Hirschy at the home of I. J. Bowman.

Mr. Earnest Isch has a new machine to unload corn.

Miss Nellie Walter is visiting for a week with Mr. Frank Stogdill and family, of Bluffton.

Mr. Henry Meyer attended the Democratic speech at No. 4 on Tuesday evening, Oct. 21.

Miss Lottie Ford is at home at present.

Mrs. Lizzie Laisure is sewing for Miss Josephine Bowman.

C. H. Walter has his automobile in good repair and made a trip of seventy-five miles on Sunday, Oct. 18.

Mr. George Hirschy got his buggy badly demolished Saturday evening, Oct. 17.

Mr. Samuel Neuenchwander is now employed in husking corn for Mr. I. J. Bowman.

Miss Cora Walter entertained her best gentleman friend, Mr. John Bowers, of Bluffton, on Sunday evening, Oct. 18.

On Monday, Oct. 19, Mr. Ford Isches fence burned. Not much was destroyed. The cause of the fire is not known.

There was an institute at No. 5 on Saturday, Oct. 17.

Mr. William and John Boyce are boarding at Mr. I. J. Bowman's at present.

Miss Emma Smith entertained Miss Grace Walter on Sunday, Oct. 18.

The farmers of French township are busy husking corn.

Mrs. Simon Smith entertained Mrs. Harvey Erick on Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 19 and 20.

Hurrah for Halloween eve, one week from Saturday night, Oct. 31. Have a good time everybody.

Mr. Arthur Kolb, who has been here visiting with Dr. H. E. Keller and family, returned to his home at Wauseon, Ohio, this morning.

Mr. Adam Kidner, of Fairfield county, Baltimore, passed through the city this morning enroute to Fort Wayne and Larwell, to visit relatives.

THE LIVE STOCK EXPOSITION
Will Be Held at Chicago November 28 to December 10.

The organization of the International Live Stock Exposition at Chicago was one of the most important events in the history of the development of the live stock industry. In December, 1907, there were on exhibition at this great show 7,523 of the finest meat and draft animals in the world, contributed by 22 states, one territory and four foreign countries. These animals were entered in competition for more than 2,400 premiums, aggregating over $75,000.00, offered in upward of 600 classes of cattle, horses, sheep and swine, besides packing house and other interesting exhibits, all of which were viewed by fully 400,000 visitors from nearly every state in the Union and foreign countries. The next great annual exhibition will be held November 28 to December 10, 1908, in the International Amphitheatre and about twenty adjoining buildings at the Union Stock Yards, Chicago.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS ATTENTION.

There will be a lecture by Mr. A. B. Chapie, field secretary of the Catholic church extension society at Knights of Columbus hall Monday evening, Oct. 26th, to which all knights and their friends are cordially invited. Admission free. By order of the lecturer. 254-3t

NOTICE!

All persons interested in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery, commonly known as the Reynolds cemetery, are requested to meet at that place next Tuesday, Oct. 27, for the purpose of cleaning and grubbing the new part. By order of the trustee. 254-3t

Democrat Want Ads. Pav.

SEN. ALBERT J. BEVERIDGE

Will speak in the Court Room at Decatur, Ind. on TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27, from 7:30 to 8 a. m.

Senator Beveridge is one of the most brilliant orators in the U. S. Come and hear him.

Studabaker's Fall Sale of Pure Bred
Duroc Hogs

AT DECATUR, INDIANA
Thursday, October 29, 1908

45 HEAD Consisting of 15 tried, Yearling Sows, 9 Spring Boars and 21 Spring Gilts 45

Special attractions:

Free Breeding services will be given with the tried Sows, to eleven of the most prominent boars of the United States. Four Grand Champions and the rest first in class at Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Missouri State Fairs of 1907 and 1908. Such a proposition has never been offered before. Send for Sale Catalogue and plan to be with us on that day or send bids to auctioneers in my care and they will be honorably attended to.

AUCTIONEERS: Fred Reppert, Decatur, Indiana, H. L. Inglehart, Morganfield, Ky., H. B. Carrol, Hartford City, Ind., Ed Bowers, Plymouth, Ind.

Free Dinner at 12:00 Noon

D. E. STUDABAKER, Owner.