Temperance democrats should not be deceived by the false cry that the democrats are going to repeal the county option bill, for there is no possibility that they will have the necessary number of votes in the state senate to accomplish that end. It is a republican trick, conceived by Hanly and exploited by him for the purpose of carrying the legislature for the purpose of boosting him into the United States senate.—Columbia City Post.

Adams county Democrats should take courage. All the political signs point to the election of the Democratic tickets, both national and state. This prophesy will be fulfilled providing every Democrat votes. To this end there should be a general rallying cry, and if there is, Adams county will produce a majority heretofore unequalled. Now is the time to fill our hearts with courage and hope, and go forth determined that no Democrat shall fail to vote. We can well afford to do missionary work for our cause, our party and our candidates. Now is the appointed time. Be up and doing.

The taking of staw votes has become very distasteful to the republican managers. So long as this work was carried on outside the state they could stand it, however bad it might be, but now that test votes of various kinds are being taken right here at home, and all of them showing tremendous changes from the Republican to the Democratic party, they are almost ready to throw up the sponge. All of the talk coming from the republican state committee about big majorities for Taft and Watson is worse than graveyard whistling. The democrats will, according to estimates made by competent observers, carry Indiana by a plurality that will not fall below 25,000 for any man on the ticket.

Mud! That is the stock in trade of the Republican campaign artists and statesmen. Liar! That is their familiar epithet used for argument. Calamity! That is the wail that comes as a last resort to save their political ship from total wreckage. What must the American people think of the attempted argument of the issues as they affect the people today? Candidate Taft himself, talking about the business calamity that would follow the election of Mr. Bryan. The president talking about "my policies" and what "I" have done. Governor Hanly misrepresenting facts and shrieking "liar." Watson preaching temperance and winking at the boys. Isn't this the limit, when a calm, dispassionate discussion of the issues would appeal to the intelligence of the people? Instead, they appeal to passion and prejudice, and attempt to solicit sympathy. They have a bad case.

The demonstration given Mr. Adair in the court house last night was nothing short of an ovation. Long before the time for the speech the court house began filling until the place was filled to the bursting point by the time the war veterans came marching in with Mr. Adair at 7:30 o'clock. By far the largest meeting of the campaign, a much larger crowd than was present at the Shiveley meeting, the local Hawkins' people are wondering this morning what it all means. No candidate for congress in any district, ever had a warmer welcome. The speech of Mr. Adair was more of a heart to heart talk, telling the people just what he had done and what he would try to do were he re-elected. After his open, frank talk, hundreds of men and women came forward to shake hands with him and assure him of their support this fall. Mr. Adair said that all his meetings throughout the district had been on the same order of size and enthusiasm, and he had no fear of being defeated. Mr. Adair made some things very plain regarding the plan of campaign of Mr. Hawkins, as the exigencies of the case demanded, and just what the people wanted to hear him say. The crowd was with him last night, as they will be with him November 3rd.—Bluffton Banner.

THEY GO TO OHIO

Taft's State Worries the Executive and Campaign Manager

Washington, Oct. 24.—As a result of a cabinet meeting every member of the president's official family will go out some time next week to make political speeches in the states where here is doubt as to the outcome of the campaign in favor of Judge Taft. The president earnestly considered the entire situation with six members of his cabinet, and at the end of the meeting it was learned that each of these officials next week will make several campaign speeches. Postmaster-General Meyer will leave here Sunday next and will speak at Paulding, O., October 26; Sandusky, O., October 27; Bellaire, Md., October 29; Trenton, N. J., October 30, and Boston, November 2. The campaign engagements in Virginia of Senator Depew, who was scheduled to speak at Harrisonburg, Lynchburg, Norfolk and Suffolk, beginning October 26, have been canceled and the senator will take the stump in more doubtful states than Virginia. Secretary Root made a special call on the president some time after the cabinet meeting had adjourned. When he left the white house he was asked whether the fact that he was being sent to Ohio to speak was not an admission on the part of the administration that the situation here was in danger for the Republicans. He admitted that the Ohio situation was somewhat "split up."

The Will of Mary Neaderhouser Was Probated this Morning

MRS. BUHLER'S SUIT Receives Five Hundred Dollars—New Case Filed and Submitted

The last will and testament of Mary E Neaderhouser, of Hartford, township was probated today. She arranges for the payment of debts, bequeaths to her step-daughter, Emma Sheldon and Sarah Neaderhouser $100 each, and to May McConnell, daughter of her step-daughter, $50. It is her will that her residence property in Buena Vista shall not be sold so long as any of her children remain unmarried. The rest of her property is to be divided equally among the six children, Cora, Effie, Nellie, Telse, Homer and Ida. Her son Homer is named as executor and is not to give bond or file an inventory in court. The will was written July 6, 1908, and witnessed by Samuel Opliger and John Anderson.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH.

Although the weather was somewhat inclement a goodly number came through the rain to enjoy again the blessings of the sanctuary. There were no special demonstrations and yet a deep religious sentiment was prevalent. A few who have been thinking seriously along religious lines were again present, but from some cause they still hesitate to make a definite decision. The pastor spoke from the words "The Master is come and calleth for Thee." He said that in all ages God has been calling men and women from the things that are low and destructive to the things of higher worth to the things that will bring about the greatest soul development. Christ has been calling me into special work both in the physical and spiritual world. This is His mission to call after the unsaved and when He calls he expects men to follow. It is a sin to reject the call of the Master. There will be services this evening, tomorrow morning and Sunday evening. You are invited to these services.

KIDNAPS HIS OWN BOY.

Parents Are Temporarily Separated but Father Acts, Nevertheless.

Celina, O., Oct. 23.—Following some trouble or misunderstanding between Mr. and Mrs. August Hansel, of Hopewell township, which has resulted in at least a temporary separation, and while Mrs. Hansel was preparing to come to town to take up her abode with her mother, Mrs. Ben Kilinger, Mr. Hansel called their little son, seven years old, to the road in front of the house, where he seized and carried him off. Some distance away his hired man, Charles Searight, was in waiting with a buggy which Mr. Hansel entered with the boy. Mrs. Hansel alleges that misunderstanding about property interests is among the causes of their trouble.

Young Men's Clothes Ederheimer, Stein & Co., Makers

ALL your pet ideas of how your Fall overcoat should look find expression in the new styles we're showing. Most Young Men's clothes are lacking in either smartness, perfect fit or right tailoring. These are correct in all three respects.

Some of you haven't worn one of these long, soldier-like, button-to-the-neck-coats. You've admired them on others. You'll want others to admire them on you. We're showing several styles in rich browns, olives and other medium and dark shades. The Ederheimer-Stein name is guarantee of quality.
