Sparks from the locomotive of the Clover Leaf local are accredited with being the cause of a bad fire on the F. G. Kreiselmeier farm, between Ohio City and Willsboro. The fire started in dry grass and communicated to a barn containing 50 tons of hay, which was destroyed. Farming implements also went up in smoke. Mr.
Kreiselmeier places his loss at $1,250.

To test the federal statute governing the duties of a township trustee as to keeping in repair and passable condition such roads as rural carriers are compelled to travel in delivering mail, D. A. White, a rural mail carrier out of South Bend, has brought action in a local court against trustee Holland of Greene township. White charges the trustee with failing to keep the roads of his township in repair. The case will probably be carried to the highest courts.—Goshen News-Times.

Senator Tyndall, Decatur, was here today visiting friends and incidentally working to the interests of the democratic party. The senator is one of the men who thinks that the policy of Governor Hanly all through his term has been one of insincerity instead of sincerity. He said that Mr. Hanly has always insisted upon an autocratic ruling of the house and senate. Mr.
Tyndall spent the day in the democratic headquarters telling of his experiences in the legislature during the learning his whereabouts. She says that he drew his money from the bank and she has no funds left. He sent his wife to the country and seems to have completely disappeared.

Owing to the fact that many democrats of the city and county were unable to get into the court room the other night and hear the speech of Congressman J. A. M. Adair the county committee is mailing out to nearly every citizen of the county a copy of the speech so that all may have a chance to read what the distinguished congressman from this district had to say.—Bluffton Banner.

Solon L. Peck, who was for many years a conspicuous figure in the gaming fraternity and unique representative of a character more familiar in the olden days of Fort Wayne than in more recent years, died at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at his home, 611 Ewing street. Death was due to paralysis and it came at the end of an extended period of failing health. Mr.
Peck's age was 70 years, 10 months and 12 days.—Ft. Wayne Sentinel.

Tan shoes will be stylish this season. Not in the smooth calfskin, however, unless one cannot afford the ooze or suede. But with costumes of any color, brown footwear will be correct, except where a one tone color scheme is preferred, in which case black shoes will be best with black frocks, even though the latter be not mourning. It cannot be stated too positively that only the plainest kind of shoes are good form for the street.
Those with patent leather ramps and white or tan tops are not correct, unless the upper portion matches the frock. Such footwear is correct for carriage use or in the house, if conditions are such as to make boots necessary.

CHURCH OF CHRIST SERVICES

Were Well Attended Sunday—Great Interest.

All services were well attended, especially the sermon to women at 3 p. m. and the evening service. Bible lesson was on the subject of the Joy of Forgiveness, and a very interesting time was spent in studying this beautiful theme. Evangelist Crabb delivered a splendid sermon on "The Eleventh Commandment" after Sunday school. He delivered another excellent sermon to women in the afternoon and this service was attended by just one hundred women and girls, and was marked by the earnest attention of all present. Rev. Crabb presented many forcible and convincing statements. The theme "How a Woman Met a Great Crisis," was based on the beautiful Bible character "Esther." The life of every woman or girl who heard this excellent talk should be governed by the advice of the speaker, who so earnestly explained woman's duty to home, to the nation and to heaven. The evening service was attended by more people than any other meeting since Rev. Crabb began the revival, and those who heard him on "Love, Courtship and Marriage" were given many serious things to think about, and abundant proof that the subject is one that has the Bible for its source. Rev. Crabb was assisted in each service by his wife, who led the song service and also sang several beautiful solos. The subject for Monday night is "How to Kill a Church." The meetings will continue till Friday night. Every one is cordially invited to attend the services.
Special music at each session. Service at 7:15.

Mrs. Clara Topp, of Geneva, is visiting relatives in the city.

John Peterson made a business trip to Fort Wayne this afternoon.

The last week of the campaign is here and the red fire will blaze from one end of the country to the other.
