The fire escapes have been placed on the West Ward school building and are now ready to be inspected by the state inspector.

Mr. and Mrs. Christina Schwarze went to Fort Wayne yesterday to make their future home. Mrs. Schwarze was formerly Miss Ida Gerke.

Quite a number attended the dance given at the Schurger home last evening. Excellent music was furnished and a good time enjoyed by all.

Misses C. Relling, of Hesse Castle, Anna Bueter, of New Haven, and Emma Woenker, of Fort Wayne, attended the Bremerkamp-Schurger wedding yesterday.

The Berne band arrived early this morning and furnished excellent music for the big Marshall Day meeting. Quite a number of people from there accompanied them.

Judge Allen Zollars, of Fort Wayne, Charles Zollars, wife and baby, of Chicago, and Mrs. Clara Bond and daughter, of Fort Wayne, were entertained at the home of J. D. Hale today.

Mrs. R. R. Ernsberger went to Decatur this morning to make a short visit with relatives. Her mother, Mrs. W. H. Baker, who has been visiting here for a few days, accompanied her home.—Bluffton Banner.

There will be the usual prayer meeting on Thursday evening of this week. Geo. J. Cooper and a number of his workers will be in the services. We invite the public to all of our meetings. Chancey S. Stetson, Supt.

A public sale of the personal property of the late Jacob Mangold will be held Saturday afternoon at the Bremerkamp building on Madison street, when they will offer all the household goods and some other property as announced on the bills.

Squire Walbert went to Craigville today to appear before Squire Abbott as attorney for the plaintiffs in two suits on account. In one Charles F. Wright is suing John Shoemaker for $44 on account and in the other Edward Meisse is suing Frank Johnson for $28 on account.—Bluffton News.

Fred Reppert and a party of live stock men from Illinois were in the city this morning. They were enroute to Warren, where the Stroud & Orbert hog sale is being held today. Reppert is crying the sale. He is at the head of some of the largest hog sales ever held in the history of the country this fall and always secures the best prices for the animals.—Bluffton Banner.

Judge Sturgis this afternoon received a letter from Judge R. K. Erwin, in which he, Judge Erwin, now located in Ft. Wayne, declines to act further as special judge in the case of John W. Terrell. He was the last appointee as special judge in the case but he did not care to continue jurisdiction in the case after he retired from the bench as judge of the Adams circuit court. Judge Sturgis said that he had not yet appointed a new special judge. Terrell continues about the same at the county jail as when first returned from Richmond. He was visited today by his daughter Lucy.—Bluffton News.

Thomas R. Marshall, democratic candidate for governor, is adhering to his announcement that he would accept nothing from any one in his campaign for the governor's chair. Frank Hering, South Bend, who delivered the speech here which made such a hit, had asked to be allowed the honor of financing a special train, which would start from Indianapolis and tour the state with Mr. Marshall and a dozen other speakers. Mr. Marshall refused to allow this, although he thanked Mr. Hering for his offer. He said he had started out with the intention of paying his own expenses and that as he had not accepted any help from any one yet he did not expect to begin now.

R. S. Michaud, of Berne, was a visitor in our city today.

S. E. Hite has returned from a business trip at Fort Wayne.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Evangelical church will meet next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the church in their business session. Business of importance is to be transacted and hope every member will show their interest by being present.

Sam Blythe, the man who writes "Who's Who and Why" for the Saturday Evening Post claims to have seen his first corn in Indiana and was surprised to see that it looked as it did, so he says. This was undoubtedly one of Blythe's jokes, for he probably came off the farm, pulled weeds out of the corn, wore out a couple of husk-picks a season, and made hominy with lye in an old tub just like the rest of the boys who went to the city and made good.—Bluffton News.

Within the last few weeks another industry has been added to Bluffton's manufacturing enterprises. Sam Duffy has been manufacturing and putting on the market a preparation for removing all kinds of dirt from various kinds of fabrics. It is in the form of a pink salve packed in a metal box and is applied with a damp cloth. Its action in cleansing the material is similar to soap but it lacks the injurious elements of the alkali in the soap. Charles Robinson and Mr. Duffy himself are acting as canvassers for the cleanser and are doing a thriving business.—Bluffton News.

Marion is well represented on one Logansport paper, the Tribune. Fred Rinehart, formerly on the Chronicle, is managing editor; Mrs. Rinehart, formerly Van Buren and Warren representative of the Chronicle, is the society editor; Will Scott handles the railroad department; Claude Johnson is the Associated Press telegraph editor; Hallie Chestnut and J. G. Campbell are operating the two linotypes. The Tribune is one of the finest papers in the district and although established only last December and not yet a year old, has made its way to the front so rapidly that its success is assured and it is improving every day.—Marion Chronicle.

postal savings banks, and paid his respects to State Auditor Billheimer, who, while drawing a salary from the state, is going about villifying Marshall. Every period was cheered, and toward the end Mr. Marshall was stopped repeatedly by the cheering, enthusiastic crowd.

The candidate concluded his speech at 2:55 and was several minutes getting through the crowd, who wished to shake hands with him. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall were escorted to the G. R. & I. station where they boarded the 3:07 train enroute to Elkhart where a big night meeting is scheduled for tonight.

A DIVORCE CLEARING HOUSE

Is State of Washington, But New Laws Will Be Demanded.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 27.—When the legislature of Washington is called together next January, its members will be asked to pass a law that only citizens of the United States may apply for divorce in this state. This provision is to prevent people from British Columbia making this state a clearing house for divorcees. There will also be a provision that persons cannot petition for divorce in less than one year after marriage. At the present time many residents of British Columbia and subjects of King Edward come to Washington and rent a room, establishing only nominally a year's residence, and procure decrees. The new law will require all summonses to include the state, city and street address of the defendant, where known and outside the jurisdiction of the court, and will make the giving of a fictitious or wrong address a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine ranging from $100 to $5,000, or imprisonment or both.

PITTSBURG WANTS GANZEL.

Pirate Team in Need of a Good First Baseman.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 27.—The Pittsburg ball club has opened negotiations for John Ganzel, captain-manager of the Cincinnati Reds last year. Garry Hermann has made it known that he will not retain Ganzel either at first base or as manager next year. Pittsburg patrons are strong in condemnation of the owners of the club for not having a first baseman last season. They think the Pirates would have won the pennant if it had a first class man there.

COBB NOT GOING TO JAPAN.

Wife Has Persuaded Him to Remain in Georgia.

Columbus, Ga., Oct. 27.—Ty Cobb has decided to listen to pleas from Mrs. Cobb and spend the winter in Georgia rather than on a baseball tour to Japan with the barnstormers. "Ty will put in the winter hunting, you may say so for me, and I speak for him," said pretty Mrs. Cobb who will take her husband to Augusta to visit her own folks.

Miss Carrie Rahe, of Minster, Ohio, is in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Niblick.

First Presbyterian Church

REV. A. D. SUTHERLAND, MINISTER.

Columbia City, Ind., October 26, 1908.

TO THE PEOPLE OF INDIANA:—

Within the last few days I have received from a large number of persons living in various parts of the state, letters addressed to me as the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Columbia City, making inquiries as to the truth of charges seriously reflecting on the sobriety and general moral character of the Hon. Thomas R. Marshall, Democratic candidate for Governor.

Upon my own initiative and without the suggestion or knowledge of Mr. Marshall, and wholly in the interest of fairness and decency, I take the liberty of addressing the people of this Commonwealth, in answer to these many inquiries.

Mr. Marshall is not only not a drunkard, but on the contrary is a total abstainer; a practical consistent temperance man, yet not a hypocrite nor a fanatic. His influence and support are foremost in every moral and philanthropic movement in this city. No breath of scandal of any kind rests upon him here, but he is loved and admired by all right living, right thinking moral people irrespective of sect or party.

Mrs. Marshall has always accompanied her husband on his business trips since their marriage, and she is but continuing the custom now. Having no children, it is a matter of congeniality for them to travel together; besides she is a great support to him with her sympathy and intelligent interest in this arduous campaign. Language cannot fitly portray my indignation that partisan depravity should not even spare her name.

I can speak with authority concerning his home and church life, for I am his pastor, and he is a faithful parishioner and church officer. His home life is ideal as all who have shared its generous hospitality will bear abundant witness. As a churchman, Mr. Marshall is most conscientious, never missing a service nor shirking a duty when at home. He has been a member of my church for many years; also a trustee, bible class teacher, officer in the Brotherhood and a generous contributor to every line of church work, yet withal liberal minded and generous to other faiths.

Mr. Marshall is an alumnus and trustee of Wabash College, a 33rd degree Mason, an eminent lawyer, a sterling christian gentleman of exemplary conduct and unblemished character.

This letter is not a partisan expression, for I have always been a republican, but is a just tribute to the worth of the man that I know and who is my friend.

Very Sincerely,

ALEXANDER D. SUTHERLAND,

Minister First Presbyterian Church.

How about this winter overcoat matter?

Have you decided on what you're going to have? And on what you're going to pay for it? And on where you're going to buy it? All these questions can be easily answered if you say you're going to have the best your money will buy.

That means a Hart Schaffner & Marx overcoat. A choice of one of the new styles in that make. It means that you buy it here and at the right price too

Very simple and very satisfactory to you.
