

Just Stop and Think

You can save 25 per cent by walking one block.

This is no idle boast look in our window and be convinced.

The largest retail China and notion store in Indiana.

Get our price before purchasing,

MOSER'S
China and Notion Store.

WEATHER

Fair tonight and Tuesday; slightly cooler south portion tonight.

RAILROAD BULLETIN

ERIE.

Into Effect Sunday June 21, 1908.

Eastbound.

No. 8-Daily5:28 a. m.
No. 12-Daily2:00 a. m.
No. 22-Daily, ex. Sunday2:00 p. m.
No. 4-Daily3:26 p. m.

Westbound.

No. 7-Daily1:52 a. m.
No. 9-Daily3:12 a. m.
No. 3-Daily12:46 p. m.
No. 21-Daily, ex. Sunday10:10 p. m.
No. 15-Daily7:30 p. m.

GRAND RAPIDS & INDIANA.

South Bound.

No. 6-Daily12:47 a. m.
No. 12-Daily, ex. Sunday7:16 a. m.
No. 2-Daily, ex. Sunday1:11 p. m.
No. 16-Sunday only8:36 p. m.
No. 5-Daily1:28 a. m.
No. 7-Daily7:57 a. m.
No. 3-Daily, ex. Sunday3:07 p. m.

T. ST. L. & W. R. R.

No. 2-Frankfort to Toledo, ex. Sunday11:27 a. m.
No. 1-Toledo to Frankfort, ex. Sunday11:49 a. m.
No. 3-Delphos to St. Louis, daily7:21 a. m.
No. 4-St. Louis to Delphos, daily8:03 p. m.
No. 5-Toledo to St. Louis, daily10:17 p. m.
No. 6-St. Louis to Toledo, daily5:05 a. m.

Daily Interurban Schedule

THE FT. WAYNE & SPRINGFIELD RAILWAY CO.

Trains Leave	Trains Leave
Decatur	Ft. Wayne
5:50 a. m.	7:00 a. m.
7:00 a. m.	8:30 a. m.
10:00 a. m.	11:30 a. m.
11:30 a. m.	1:00 p. m.
1:00 p. m.	2:30 p. m.
2:30 p. m.	4:00 p. m.
4:00 p. m.	5:30 p. m.
5:30 p. m.	7:00 p. m.
7:00 p. m.	8:30 p. m.
9:30 p. m.	11:00 p. m.

Theater parties taking the 7:00 p. m. car will arrive at Calhoun or Berry streets, Fort Wayne at 8:10 p. m. The last car leaving Fort Wayne at

TOURING CAR FOR SALE.

We know where you can buy a nice big Winton touring car, with lamps, glass front, top, and all in good shape for $350. The first buyer gets it. Come quick. Inquire at this office.

When You Pay It With a Check

If the value received isn't sufficient for the amount remitted or if for any other legal reason you wish the payment stopped, you can have it so immediately, advising this bank when you remit by check. One of the many virtues of a checking account.

Old Adams County Bank

Tom Baltzell was in the city today looking after business affairs.

Rollo Ellis was the guest of friends at Fort Wayne yesterday afternoon.

O. N. Snellen left this morning on his regular business trip to Monroe. Charles Hunt, of Fort Wayne, came to Decatur on his regular business trip.

George Brewster arrived in Decatur this morning to look after business affairs.

Most interesting services were held at the various churches of the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vall leave this week for Cardwell, Mo., to remain indefinitely.

The St. Marys river is very low at present, probably the lowest it has been in years.

R. Schug, of Berne, was a business caller in our city today and has returned to his home.

The new time table which has gone into effect on the Clover Leaf railroad is agreeable to all.

Communion services were observed at the M. E. church yesterday morning and evening.

Fred Mayer, of Kendallville, visited friends in the city over Sunday and has returned to his home.

P. L. Andrews left this morning on a business trip to Portland and Dunkirk. He will return this evening.

John Fuerst returned to Portland this morning to resume work after an over Sunday visit here with his family.

Miss Ruby Artman was the guest of friends at Hoagland over Sunday and returned to the city this morning.

D. V. Steele went to Monroe this morning to do some repairing at the Grain, Hay and Milling company building.

John Glancy went to Winchester this morning on a business mission in the interest of the G. R. & I. railway.

Mrs. W. F. Rost returned to Fort Wayne this morning to resume her school work after remaining over Sunday in Decatur.

People in general are planning for a great time Thanksgiving. Let's try and make homes of the poor happy on this occasion.

Now that the quail law will be in tomorrow, it is supposed that what number has survived the drought will have their troubles.

Fred Hoenzen, of Williams, came to Decatur this morning to continue work at the P. W. Smith saw mill after spending Sunday with his family.

Charles Roe returned to Geneva this morning to resume his work in a broom factory after spending Sunday with friends and relatives in the city.

Dr. C. U. Wade, presiding elder of the Fort Wayne district delivered a powerful sermon at the M. E. church last evening. He was greeted by a large audience.

Calvin Miller returned to Winchester this morning to resume work on the gravel roads he is constructing in Randolph county. He will complete this work within three weeks.

Decatur merchants have large fall and winter supplies of goods. A variety that will suit any taste and quality which is unexcelled. The public is cordially invited to inspect their goods.

Rabbits are plentiful in the vicinity of Decatur this year. We are even told that employees of P. J. Hyland ran over a bunny Saturday when returning from east of town. A new stunt in hunting.

Reports from north of the city are to the effect that wild ducks are plentiful along the St. Marys river and as a consequence several sportsmen have shouldered their guns with the intention of securing their scalps.

A stock company is billed for the Bosse opera house during this week and the show is said to be far above the average. In conformity with the rule, ladies will be admitted free tonight when accompanied by a paid admission.

The Decatur horse sale company will hold their initial sale of this season in about two weeks, although the date has not, as yet, been decided. At this auction valuable horse flesh will be disposed of to the highest bidder. Everybody in need of horses should plan to attend.

This is a busy time for poultry dealers. The Decatur Produce company and the Berling Packing house people are preparing for the Thanksgiving and holiday trade. Thousands of pounds of poultry is bought by these firms each day and as a consequence, they have large forces at work preparing the goods for shipment.

A letter received from Charles Hamel, who is located in California, is to the effect that he is in the best of health and working every day. It will be remembered that some time ago he underwent a serious operation and his life at one time was despaired of. Decatur people will gladly receive these glad tidings. He is a son of C. R. Hamel, of this city.

George L. Maddy was a social visitor at Fort Wayne Sunday evening.

The little Braden child, ill from membranous diptheria, is not expected to live.

George Brock, of Alliance, Ohio, returned from a short visit here with his father, John Brock.

The Grand has a new show for tonight's performance, which is interesting to say the least.

P. W. Smith, of Richmond, was a business caller in Decatur today, looking after banking business.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lower of east of the city had as their guests over Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rinehart.

Mrs. Benedict returned to Fort Wayne this morning after making a two weeks' visit here with her nephew M. A. Ham.

Charles France paid one of his election bets this morning by hauling Mart Andrews around the court house in a wheel barrow.

Richard France of the Pennsylvania detective department is here to attend the funeral services of his grandmother, Mrs. Corbin.

Ideal Indian summer weather is our fortune just now and every one seems to thoroughly appreciate it. Last night was a perfect one for this time of the year.

This is vacation week at the court house, and the officials at the clerk's office are getting ready for the November session which convenes Monday. The grand jury also meets on that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beery are happy over the arrival of an eight pound girl baby, who arrived at their home, 264 north Seventh street at eight o'clock this morning. Every one happy and recovering.

The Elks will soon begin the arrangements for their annual minstrel show which occurs each year on New Year's night. The affair this year promises to outshine anything ever given in this city.

Within the last seven years the onion growing industry has become one of the most important of the activities in the north part of Whitley county and the south part of Noble county. The total crop is hard to estimate, but from indications at present a conservative estimate would place the number of bushels at more than 200,000 for Whitley county alone.

E. A. K. Hackett, formerly a resident of Bluffton, now publisher of the Fort Wayne Sentinel, well known to most of the older residents of Bluffton, will be here Monday evening to deliver an address at the First Presbyterian church. He will come to speak before the recently organized "Presbyterian Brotherhood." He will undoubtedly be greeted by a large audience.—Bluffton Banner.

At the regular meeting of the M. E. Epworth league last evening Don L. Burke, one of Decatur's most promising young men, delivered an address on "Miriam of Migdol" to a large audience. The discourse of forty minutes duration, presented a romance of the life of Christ which would become a man of years and recognition. Mr. Burke has rare ability along this line and a foretoken of his future possibilities.

The Geneva camp of Sons of Veterans will entertain next Wednesday in honor of the number eleven. The date of the event is to be November 11. The number of the camp is 11 and eleven candidates are to be given the secret work of the order. The local camp is making extensive preparations to be in attendance in a body and a large crowd of the members will make the trip in automobiles, which will be secured for the evening. A banquet will be served by the Geneva men after the initiation work is completed.—Bluffton Banner.

A soliciting committee composed of T. J. Sowards, John Dailey, Theo. Hall and others made a preliminary canvass of Toccasin and vicinity Friday for the proposed bank at that point. They succeeded in having subscribed $2,800 towards the project, about one-third of the amount necessary, and the canvass will be resumed next week. The proposition is to raise $10,000, which amount is to compose the capital stock and build and equip the institution. In case the deal goes through and it seems assured, T. J. Sowards will likely remove to Toccasin and manage the new bank.—Bluffton Banner.

Gabe Shoemaker wishes to become a soldier boy and within a short time he will be wearing the uniform and drawing pay from Uncle Sam. Shoemaker went to Fort Wayne yesterday and enlisted in the marine corps in that city. He returned here to tell the news to his friends and Monday he will go to Rhode Island, where he will begin his four years' service. By joining the marines Shoemaker gets a combination of sea and land duty. In this manner he will be enabled to travel over both sea and land, where if he was enlisted as a sailor he would have had to remain on board a ship and if as a soldier he would have had to remain on land.—Bluffton News.

At the Grand tonight, the college play, "The Great Wrong Righted."

Alex LeBrun went to Monroe today, where he has contracted to do painting.

G. W. Eppert, of Fort Wayne, came to the city today on a business trip.

Mrs. Mary Johnson returned to his home north of the city after a short visit in Decatur.

Mrs. W. Betzel and daughter, Mrs. W. Fogel, of Geneva, were visitors in Decatur today. They returned to their home.

Misses Bertha (Vogelweide, Edna Crawford, attended the show at the Majestic last night and returned on the late car.

Giles Suhm, of Willshire, passed through Decatur today enroute to Ft. Wayne, where he will attend the International Business college.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Fuhrman returned to Fort Wayne this morning after attending a surprise party given for the latter's father, Louis Goldner, of Preble.

Mrs. Fred Hoffman, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Runyon, left this morning for Elkhart to attend the funeral of the former's sister, Mrs. C. C. Baumgartner.

Jesse Smith sustained a broken arm this morning while enroute to his work. In some manner he fell from the wagon and the tool box fell upon him, breaking his right arm.

William Foughty disposed of his interest in the dry line to his brother, C. K. Foughty, who has taken possession of the business. William will leave tomorrow morning for Oklahoma.

Howard Burdge is suffering from an injured eye, as a result of a piece of brass coming in contact with that member, while he was working at the furnace factory last week. He is slowly recovering and will be able to resume duties in the near future.

The Christian church ladies will furnish luncheon at the Fred Bell sale on Wednesday. Each lady is requested to bake two pies and leave them at the Bell meat market on Monroe street Tuesday evening or not later than early Wednesday morning.

HERE ARE A FEW SAMPLE PROPERTIES WE ARE NOW OFFERING FOR SALE

We have a large number of others on the market, and may have just what you are wanting. If you are interested in the purchase or sale of business rooms or residence, town or city property or farm lands in Indiana, Texas and New Mexico. Examine our recent large descriptive lists of these properties. If you wish a buyer for your property, see what we may be able to do for you. No charge for advertising property if left on the market for the time listed.

THE SNOW AGENCY DECATUR, IND.

710—Is a three quarter acre tract on the gravel pike just outside of the city limits of Decatur. Has all new buildings in a good location; house a story and a half frame, six room building with nice front porch, good cistern and natural wood finish throughout. Can be bought for $1,025.00.

674—Is a three quarter acre tract of well improved ground just outside the city limits of Decatur on the traction line south. Has good frame, story and a half house, good garden plenty of fruit, and shade, has large cistern, small stable and some other buildings. Good location just beyond the corporation at $1,550.00.

664—Is a 55 acre tract within a half mile of the stoned road and near church and school and about two miles from a good market railroad station, etc. About twenty acres of this farm is black land as is to be found along the Wabash river. The remainder is largely sand and clay loam. The buildings are inexpensive and the land needs fencing. Considering quality of the land, location, etc., it is a good bargain at $2,100.00, if sold within the next 60 days.

675—Is a 110 acre tract on the public road near market and about 1/2 mile to school also near graded school and church. Has ordinary house, large barn, and some other buildings; productive soil, a mixture of clay and sand loam with some black land. If sold soon the farming implements, stock, etc., can be sold with this farm. The tract alone can be sold for $9,300.00.

665—Is a one hundred acre tract of perhaps 40 or 50 acres black land with the remainder a mixture of sand and clay soil. This land lies on the public road in a good location near Decatur. Has inexpensive buildings, a horse and hay barn

Jacob Omor was in the city today looking after business affairs.

Dan Tyndall, one of the Daily Democrat carrier boys, is on the sick list.

P. J. Hyland went to Berne this afternoon to look after a contract for plumbing.

John Carpenter, of Monroe, was a visitor in town today. He returned to his home.

Raymond Bremerkamp went to Farmland today to resume work in the picture business.

John Hendricks, of Monroe, after transacting business in the city, returned to his home this afternoon.

Henry Myers returned to his home at Berne this afternoon from an over Sunday visit with friends in the city.

Mrs. Jesse Essex, of Berne, was a shopper in Decatur this morning and returned to her home this afternoon.

Miss Rosa Kuehn, of Geneva, visited friends in the city this morning and returned to her home this afternoon.

Mrs. G. H. Manama, of Frankfort, passed through the city today enroute to Monroe where she will make a visit.

Quite a number from this city will go to Fort Wayne next week to attend the fall meeting of the Scottish Rite Masons.

A sale of the personal property of the late Robert Peoples, who was run down by colt, has been announced by the heirs, for the nineteenth of this month.

Mrs. Samuel Schindler and her guests, Mrs. F. Klopfenstein and son, Edward, of Washington, Iowa, went to Berne this afternoon to make a visit with friends.

E. H. Nidlinger, a well known farmer of Union township is advertising a sale for the 18th of this month. He has rented his farm and may conclude to go into business after a few months.

We are offering the Taft-Bryan odds that from now on until after the grand jury concludes it will be impossible to find any one who has bet on the election and then only the winners will talk about it.

Several of the Decatur churches will give Christmas entertainments this year.

The Maud Henderson stock company at the Bosse all this week should prove an attraction of merit.

Mrs. C. W. Wert, of Portland, returned to her home this afternoon after making pleasant visit in the city with friends.

A new show is on at the Stoneburner theater on Madison street tonight and those who attend are promised a rare treat. Don't fail to see this performance.

Clinton Ferry Jr., of Tacoma, Wash., who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. W. W. P. McMillen, for some time, went to Fort Wayne this afternoon for a short stay.

Miss Jean Smyth, of Fort Wayne, Mr. Frank Andrew, Mr. Pete Wilhelm and daughter Lettie, Wm. Helm of this city were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Wilhelm on Sunday.

The following letters remain in the Decatur postoffice for the week ending November 9, 1908: Mrs. Marion Oldham, Milo B. Lourenz, Mrs. Francis Gray. Persons calling for the same please say advertised, giving date. M. A. Frisinger, P. M.

Tony Forbing the editor of the Mifflin, Indiana Mail, was the guest of his parents over Sunday.

Mrs. D. M. Reed and baby are in the city visiting with her mother, Mrs. M. Pullenkamp and family.

Dan Tyndall is quite ill with an attack of chickenpox and is therefore detained from school and from his duties as a carrier on the Daily Democrat force.

If you have any society or local news or anything else that you think would be of interest to the readers of the Daily Democrat, don't hesitate to call phone 51. We want the news, all of it, all the time.

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Braden, of Fort Wayne, is quite dangerously ill with diphtheria at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Dorwin, on north Second street. She was reported slightly better today.

Miss Rose Christen is at home from a four weeks' trip to Muskogee, Okla., arriving early Sunday morning. While in the new state Miss Christen was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. France, and her visit was a most delightful one. Mr. and Mrs. France will arrive here next month for a visit with relatives and friends.

DONT FORGET THE

Big Public Sale

At BELL-VIEW Wednesday Nov. 11 10 O'clock Prompt

Horses, Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, Poultry, Farm Machinery, Incubators, Brood Crops Etc.

A. R. Bell and Fred D. Bell.

with principally wire; the soil is largely black land, and properly cultivated will produce good returns of any crops grown upon it. If taken soon, this farm can be bought for $85.00 an acre.

728—Is a well improved five acre tract on the stoned road within one-half mile of Decatur; is well fenced and in good location; has ample buildings for a poultry farm or trucking garden; has a dug well, a drove well and force pump, small stable, new chicken house and park, and a good story and a half six room residence in good condition. This is a good piece of ground and if sold soon can be bought for $1,450.

730—Is a nice square forty acre tract of land on the stoned road near Decatur; is largely black land and well located; has some good young timber, worth perhaps five or six hundred dollars; wire and rail fences, good outlet for drainage; for the next 30 days this land can be bought for $60 an acre.

731—Is a sixty acre tract on the stoned road within a mile and a half of Decatur; is a good average quality of land, of which 25 or 30 acres is a black and yellow sand mixture; has good cottage house with brick cellar about 14 by 16 feet in size; horse and hay barn, cribs, wagon shed, etc., apple orchard, and some other trees; can be bought for $55 an acre.

732—Is a good 81 acre tract on the gravel pike within about three miles of Decatur; is well fenced, has good average buildings, which consist of a comfortable cottage house, summer kitchen, woodhouse, milk house with cement floor, drove well, sheep and hog houses, cribs and wagon shed, cattle and tool house 15 by 60, and a good frame barn on stone 40 by 60, with threshing floor, granary, etc.; large bearing orchard, and about seven acres of nice young timber worth at least seven or eight hundred dollars; price of this land $71 an acre—$5,800.

729—Is a well located eighty acre tract on the stoned road near Decatur; this farm is largely black land, has good drainage and is pretty well tiled, has drove well, some inexpensive buildings, and about ten or twelve acres of valuable timber, plenty of saw timber for all the buildings, etc., that are needed on this farm. This is an excellent piece of land and a good bargain at $60 an acre, but for the next 30 days it may be bought for $4,700.

673—Is a 94 acre tract on the proposed traction line in southeastern Adams county, is well located, has some good improvements, which consist of a comfortable story and a half house, good frame barn 40 by 60 feet in size with cement floors in mow and stables; slate roofed granary, cribs, and sheep and hog stables 20 by 50 feet in size; wind pump, good fencing, and an average quality of land; this farm can be bought for $82 an acre.

727—Is one of the best 80 acre tracts of land in Monroe township; is fully 3/4 black land no open ditches and about 1000 rods of tiling; is on the public road a quarter of a mile from the north and south stoned road; is well fenced and has good buildings; the barn alone is new and cost over $1,000; has a comfortable story and a half residence, drove well, large cement water stock tank, double cribs, good bearing orchard, and about seven acres of woods with plenty of material for buildings or for the timber; for the next sixty days this land can be bought for $100 an acre.

712—Is a 212 acre tract on the traction line near Decatur. On this farm is an extensive gravel pit that yields a handsome income annually. The land is largely black and yellow sand soil, easy to cultivate and brings splendid crops. This land has good outlet for drainage, wire and rail fences, good orchard, and ordinary frame buildings; is on the gravel pike and traction line, station near the residence; this is an ideal location for a grain and stock farm and this proposition cannot be matched in Adams county for $72 an acre.

664—Is a desirable 117 1/2 acre tract on the gravel pike near Decatur. This land has running stock water, throughout the year; is well fenced and tiled, has ten acres of good young timber, a number of good trees for lumber; is a good quality of soil, sand loam, clay and black land, all a productive quality. Its buildings are worth at least $3,000 and consist of a large barn, on stone foundation, a good seven-room dwelling house, on stone foundation, with large good cellar; stock scales, cribs, granary, etc. If sold soon this farm can be bought for $100 an acre.

733—Is a desirable twenty-five acre tract, largely black land, on the stoned road, about three miles north west of Monroe. Is on the free mail route and telephone line. Is in good neighborhood near school. With the exception of a new barn 24 by 40 on tile block foundation, it has ordinary buildings. Has a comfortable story and a half five-room residence, summer kitchen, milk house, double cribs and wagon shed, drove well, etc. Has nice orchard of apple, plum, etc. Can be bought for $2,750.

WE HAVE A LARGE LIST of smaller tracts ranging from one to five acres and some good 40, 80 and 160 acre tracts not given in this list. See our larger list before buying.

Call For a List of City Property