Noah Frauhiger, of Preble, was a business caller in Decatur today and has returned to his home.

Don't overlook the news items on page four. You will find the society column and other news there.

Several brilliant social events are scheduled for next week and Decatur's social set will be unusually busy.

C. S. Niblick left this morning for Indianapolis, to attend the meeting of the Indiana Association of Bankers.

Mr. Wentz, a Fort Wayne banker, was here yesterday attending to business of importance at the First National.

The boy's band has been engaged by W. J. Bosse to play each night this week during the Maud Henderson engagement.

C. A. Dugan left this morning for Indianapolis, where he will attend the meeting of the Indiana Bankers' Association.

The residents of Decatur arose this morning to see the ground clothed with the beautiful. A real evidence of real winter.

Mrs. Ben Smith, of Monroe, and Mrs. H. Peeler, of Mingo Junction, have arrived in the city for a visit with Mrs. Crill.

The M. E. Woman's Home Missionary Society is meeting with great success with the bazaar being conducted in the city offices.

There's a new show on at the J. B. Stoneburner theater this evening and the people should see it. The new film is extra good.

Winter has set in for sure and the boys are wondering what became of their summer wages. Work is not any too plentiful either.

Mrs. Ernest Suttles and son Walter who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Suttles, have left for their future home at Albion, Pa.

Judge J. T. Merrymau went to Winchester this morning to close up the cases of Sheely vs. Good and Macy vs. Wood which he tried last August. He will return this evening.

The ladies who are conducting the ready-to-wear store on corner of Third and Madison streets, are finding ready sale for their goods. Men's women's and children's garments, hats, caps and shoes are for sale. Also boy's underwear.

Elmer Johnson accompanied by J. W. Davis, of Philadelphia, also a horse buyer, arrived this morning from the east and they expect to buy two car loads of Adams county horse flesh, one car to be sold at Pittsburgh, the other at Philadelphia. These gentlemen are seeking the best horses and are paying the highest prices.

Charles Borden, of Geneva, who is near death's door as a consequence of stomach ailment, was brought to Decatur last night from Illinois, and was transferred to the G. R. & I. depot from where he was taken to his home. He has not eaten anything for three weeks and his weight has been reduced from 210 pounds to 100 pounds. He will soon die.

A monster petition to be circulated among the women of America and then submitted to President-elect Taft is the immediate plan of the National Suffrage Association. Announcement of this fact was made yesterday by Rev. Anna Powers, president of the association, who said: "Mr. Taft has often said he was willing the women of America should have the right of franchise if they desired it."

The Craigville and Ossian basketball teams will play off a tie game on the high school grounds this evening. Both of the teams have won a game on their home grounds and will play the deciding game on neutral grounds. Each team will bring a good-sized crowd of rooters and in addition all the enthusiasts from the local school will turn out to witness what promises to be a close contest.—Bluffton Banner.

No trace has been found of F. C. Wentworth, the runaway Clover Leaf operator. He is being traced by the Chicago Surety company, in which he is bonded and they have several men working on the case. It was first thought he would be at the home of his parents in Greentown, or at the home of a brother in Kansas, but he is at neither place. No more losses have been found against the young man in this city.—Bluffton Banner.

Mrs. Lucinda Coon has arrived in Decatur to assist her daughter, Mrs. William Parent in celebrating her twelfth wedding anniversary.

A representative of the Majestic theater, of Fort Wayne, was here today, billing the "Servant in the House" which appears there soon.

Mrs. I. L. Syphers returned this morning from Fort Wayne, where she made a short visit with her daughter who is attending International Business college.

L. E. Watson, who since last March has been at Haynes, North Dakota, working in the interest of the W. H. Brown Land company, returned to the city last night.

The second performance given by the Maud Henderson Stock company was well received by an enthusiastic audience last night. The cast is strong and every act a feature.

John J. Anson, familiarly known as "Squire" Anson, a pioneer resident of Huntington county, is dead at his home in Union township, at the age of 83 years. He located in Indiana in 1848.

Fred Neueschwander, who recently sold his farm near Craigville at public auction, has moved to Bluffton in the Prof. Hammond house on Horton street, and will remain there until spring, when he may move west.

Owing to the fact that the wires were grounded near the greenhouse last evening, all electric lights but six street lamps were out for some time. William Parent in an effort to adjust the defect was severely shocked by touching a live wire.

Editor McKee, of the Portland Daily Sun, and James Moran, the brilliant young attorney, also from Portland, were here last evening looking after business matters. They say affairs at Portland are again becoming tranquil after the strenuous campaign.

Drs. C. S. and D. D. Clark assisted by Dr. Thomas, operated upon the son of Eli Burkett yesterday to remove a portion of a bone from his leg. The boy fell from a tree some time ago and broke his leg, the same not healing as it should. He is in a very serious condition.

A bet has been posted at one of the local stores that John Worth Kern will be chosen as the next senator. With a dozen candidates in the field at this time, the shot looks a little long, but at that it's a rather safe bet and shows that Mr. Kern is a favorite in Indiana.

The remains of John H. Shaver, who fell to his death from the roof of a house in Huntertown, where he was repairing a chimney Saturday, were taken to his former home at Elkhart for burial. Shaver was 66 years old, and during the civil war served as Lieutenant of company C. Ninth Indiana regiment.

Henry Barnhart, of Rochester, who defeated Charles W. Miller for congress in the Thirteenth district, will devote his entire time to the office. He has resigned as a trustee of Longcliff asylum, at Logansport, and will lease his newspaper, the Rochester Sentinel, retiring also, from the telephone business.

The wheelbarrow used by William Roth and Roland Kramer at Elkhart Saturday in paying an election forfeit, was used for a similar purpose in 1872. It then made the trip from Elkhart to Goshen, Edward Faber wheeling "Dug" Beardsley over the road which is now traversed by two railroads and a street car line.

J. Will Kelley, who has been located at Topeka, Kansas, since last July, returned to that place Tuesday morning, after a ten days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Kelley, of east Walnut street. His wife and two sons, who have been guests of her parents in Titusville, Pa., visited since Thursday in Portland, accompanying Mr. Kelley to their future home in Topeka Tuesday.—Portland Sun.

Herb Bremerkamp, popular and general clerk at the Myers-Dalley clothing store, is the most original and unique window dresser in the city. If you keep watching his windows at that store you will soon be convinced. Just now in one of the fronts is a canary and over the cage is the sign "it's a bird," referring to the suits sold by this firm. This is only one. Each week you will find something new and attractive there. Keep your eye on this window, and see if we haven't tipped you right.

About twenty-five members of the Pocahontas lodge perpetrated a clever birthday surprise on Mrs. James Bain last evening and before their departure their victim was well aware that she had lived a half century. The ladies had, collectively purchased a beautiful berry set which was presented to Mrs. Bain as a token of their sincere friendship. Not to be outdone by the hospitality of her unexpected guests, Mrs. Bain served an oyster supper with other delicacies and all in all it was a great time. That she will enjoy more such happy occasions is the wish of all.

For several years he has held the important place of superintendent of the Prairie Oil and Gas Co., and is a young man of marked business capacity. He graduated from Purdue in the mechanical department with the class of 1903.

Suits Worthy of Paris' Artists

LITTLE details distinguish a Paris importation from the usual "shoppy" suit. This year there is the "Directoire" cut, the raised waist line, the sheath skirt effect, the high standing and lay-down collar, the patch pocket, the long sleeves, etc.

The "Bischoff" models we are showing embody all these features. These goods are designed after the best creations of the leading foreign artists. You could go walking in Paris or Vienna and be in the reigning fashion with any one of these suits.

Come in. You can see the snap and smartness of these garments the instant you look in our mirrors. The wear is guaranteed both by us and the makers.

Plainly it is to your interest to make your selections now before the choicest patterns are taken. To give you even a greater inducement to come at once we have marked the most desirable garments far below their regular values.

We illustrate a few of the many we are showing. Look for the trade-mark "B. S. & S." in every garment.

NEW MODELS

are arriving daily. See the new Directoire Backs. Fine Broadcloth coats that were $12, This week

$10.00

Come in all colors, Brown, Blue, Green and Black. Ask to see them while they last.
