THE FUTURE OF DEMOCRACY

While it is true that the Democratic party failed to elect the greatest of all Americans to the office of president, yet there is no reason why the party should be cast down and not see in the result a glorious future. Many substantial gains were made throughout the country and demonstrates that there remains in the party that great vitality that has caused it to withstand all the onslaughts that have been made upon it and ever ready to do battle for the masses. It is a fact that after all is said and done the vitality of a party can be better measured in defeat than in victory. The Democratic party has fully demonstrated that it can breast defeat with a bravery that never marked any other party in the history of the country. The campaign just closed did much to gather the stranded ends of the party and cement them into a fabric that can and will withstand the trials of the future. In 1912 the party will present to the public and the enemy a front so united that all the hosts of evil will not be able to stand against it. The candidate four years hence will not have any part or parcel of the party arrayed against him. It will be a united party indeed that will face the issues of that year. The administration of President Taft will be utterly unable to free itself from the selfish interests that have fastened themselves upon the Republican party. These interests are utterly opposed to the common people and in four years they will have become so arrogant that the common people will fully realize that nothing can be hoped for from the Republicans no matter how earnestly some of the workers may desire a different condition. The opportunity for good work within the coming four years. Unity of purpose will do much to further solidify the party. And the independent voter will be with the party as a unit next time. The forces that will be arrayed against arrogant greed will be invincible. The people will rule in the end, a truth that should make more earnest and brave every Democrat in the whole broad land.—Muncie Press.

Having completed the task of nominating and electing his candidate for president, the New York senatorship will prove easy for the strenuous Roosevelt. He has slated Root, and the matter is settled.

Those Republicans organs in Indiana who have been busy selecting a soft place for Watson in the Taft cabinet have overlooked provision of a place for one J. Frank Hanly. Their extreme rudeness is exasperating.

SECURES FREEDOM

Charles LeMay Breathes
the Air of a Free Man
Again

IMPRISONED LONG
Was a Boarder With Sheriff
Meyer for Eight Months
and One Day

E. S. Kegg, the aged grandfather of Charles LeMay, who for eight months and one week has been a prisoner at the Adams county jail, came to the city this morning and paid to Clerk James P. Haefling $239.40, the amount due to effect LeMay's release. Mr. LeMay, convicted of assault and battery on the person of Miss Mabel Metts of Bluffton, has been a model prisoner. He soon proved himself a trusty to Sheriff Meyer, and on several occasions was permitted to do work in the yard, such as mowing the lawn, dusting carpets, etc. He was very happy when he was released from custody and left on the one o'clock car for Fort Wayne. He is a wood carver of ability and commands a high salary in piano factories whenever he works. He stated to a Democrat representative that it was good to be free after such long imprisonment. His many acquaintances here are glad to hear he is again free.

IN GREAT FORM

Brunswick Team of Bowlers Show Local Team the Game
AND WON EASILY
Garrett, One of the Visitors,
Made an Average of 222

The most wonderful exhibition of bowling ever witnessed in this city was that put up last evening when the Brunswick team from Fort Wayne, champions of northern Indiana, met the Palace team here. The visitors were in rare form and two of their total scores were over the thousand mark. To do this it should be remembered the five man team must average over two hundred, so that it may be seen what the locals were up against. One of the Brunswick men, Garrett, averaged 222 for three games, and one score of 257 and another of 254. Though the locals bowled a fairly good game with an average of nearly 150, they were completely smothered and defeated by over 300 pins. The score by games was as follows:

DECATUR.
Dorwin	154	187
Berling	141	197
Studabaker	129	161
Vaughn	145	165
Peterson	154	170
Totals	723	880
FORT WAYNE.
Hamilton	149	187
Heiman	193	166
Schmelker	180	228
Garrett	154	254
Harkey	116	191
Totals	797	1,026

Grand totals—Decatur, 2,539; Fort Wayne, 2,866. The latter won by 327 pins. Another game will be arranged for the near future when the boys from Decatur expect to make a better showing.

SOCIAL FUNCTIONS

Mrs. Lee Annen, of West
Monroe Street, Agreeably
Surprised Last Night

BY REBEKAH LODGE
A Great Time—Miss Fannie
Cole Entertained a Number of Friends

Twenty members of the Rebekah lodge most agreeably surprised Mrs. Lee Annen last evening who resides on west Monroe street. The surprise was complete, and the following social session equally as enjoyable. The event was well perpetrated and dispatched to the satisfaction of all, including the victim. Those who constituted the party were Mesdames Thomas, Archbold, U. S. Cress, Mel Butler, Samuel Shamp, Mary Ann, Andrew Artman, Charles Helm, M. F. Rice Samuel Doak, L. L. Baumgartner, Emerson Beavers, Joseph Harris and John Bollinger, and the Misses Della Harruff, Nellie Blackburn, Gauze, Fannie Rice, Gretta Beavers, Jessie and Nellie Winnes. All report an elegant time.

Mrs. Fanny Cole entertained a crowd of her lady friends at a euchre last evening, in a manner most delightful. At cards there were six tables and the time spent in this pastime was even more than usually pleasurable. Three prizes, pretty water colors made by the hostess, were given, the successful ladies being Mrs. C. A. Dugan, first, Mrs. C. O. France, second, and Mrs. Roy Archbold third. During the evening punch was served, and at the close of the games a most delicious luncheon was given in two courses, Mrs. Cole being assisted by her mother, Mrs. Florence DeVilbiss.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the M. E. church will close their ready-to-wear bazaar tonight and thus one of the greatest charity movements ever inaugurated in Decatur will be history. The ladies have accomplished much. A market of baked goods, including cookies, cake, bread and potato salad was conducted today and a ready sale was found for same.

The address to be given in Decatur Friday evening, November 20, by Miss Mary B. Cox, of Huntington, promises to be interesting. The subject "The Passion Play" if of intense interest. The affair is to be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church. Do not fail to attend.

The groom has withstood three previous marriage ventures, his last wife dying a year ago. The bride has been married twice, her second husband having been dead nine years. They were married in the cozy corner at light. The controversy over the foreign vote in Lake and St. Joseph counties recalls the fact that Indiana is far behind many other states in its laws regulating the qualifications of voters. In this state the qualifications are fixed by the state constitution, and, of course, no change could be made without an amendment to the constitution.

Hunters' licenses have been issued to Lloyd Magley, L. B. Campbell, Richard A. Briggs, Henry M. Roth, Isaac Beer, Carl Liechty.
