Mr. Ledbetter alleges he is the man whom he caught red-handed one night, and at first had intended not to prosecute. Ormsby had been living previous to that time with his daughter, Mrs. Lee Kahn, on the south side, but disappeared shortly afterward and the officers have been looking for him several weeks. He is in jail, not having furnished bond. He was working on a farm, helping kill hogs.—Bluffton News.

A SUDDEN DEATH

Life of Lemuel Ray Went Out Like a Flash Early this Morning

HAD HEART TROUBLE

It Caused His Sudden Demise While Yet in Bed this Morning

Lemuel Ray, born and raised in Adams county, died suddenly this morning at three o'clock at his home one quarter of a mile from Monroe, his age being 41 years, 2 months and 17 days. For some time the deceased had suffered from organic heart trouble, but his condition was not considered serious. In fact but last Saturday he transacted business in Decatur and yesterday he attended to his chores about the farm as usual, working until late in the evening. This morning at three o'clock, his wife, who slept in an adjoining room from where Mr. Ray lay, heard her husband moaning. She hastened to the bedside but too late to see her companion alive. Life had gone out in an instant and efforts of a physician could be of no avail. The sorrow attending the untimely demise of this husband and father is most poignant. The many acquaintances of the deceased deplore the misfortune of losing a friend and have sympathy for the bereaved widow and three children. Besides these, a sister, Mrs. J. J. Hoffer, who resides at Monroe, survived to join the multitude of sorrowing friends in sharing in the hour of bereavement. The funeral will be held from the home tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

Henry Krick's big sale occurs next Friday.

The fair association held an important meeting here today.

Many Adams county people will take in the excursion to Texas, which leaves Fort Wayne tomorrow. Some will locate there.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elzey entertained at dinner yesterday the following: Mr. and Mrs. M. V. B. Archbold, Fort Wayne, and Charles Hower and Fred Linn of this city. A fine time was had.

The merchants of Decatur all did a splendid business, especially those who advertised in the Daily Democrat.

Mrs. N. J. Reitz, after spending Sunday with her mother, Mrs. C. Eiting, returned to her home at Brant this afternoon.

Suits Worthy of Paris Artists

LITTLE details distinguish a Paris importation from the usual "shoppy" suit. This year there is the "Directoire" cut, the raised waist line, the sheath skirt effect, the high standing and lay-down collar, the patch pocket, the long sleeves, etc.

The "Bischoff" models we are showing embody all these features. These goods are designed after the best creations of the leading foreign artists. You could go walking in Paris or Vienna and be in the reigning fashion with any one of these suits.

Come in. You can see the snap and smartness of these garments the instant you look in our mirrors. The wear is guaranteed both by us and the makers.

Plainly it is to your interest to make your selections now before the choicest patterns are taken. To give you even a greater inducement to come at once we have marked the most desirable garments far below their regular values.

We illustrate a few of the many we are showing. Look for the trade-mark "B. S. & S." in every garment.
