

CLOSING OUT SALE.... ALL 10 CENT GOODS in our window

8c

MOSER'S
China and Notion Store.

We will Have Something big Soon

Watch This Ad

THE GRAND

"Everybody goes to the Grand"

When You Pay It

With a Check

If the value received isn't sufficient for the amount remitted or if for any other legal reason you wish the payment stopped, you can have it so immediately, advising his bank when you remit by check. One of the many virtues of a checking account.

Old Adams County Bank

Candy Candy

We just received 80 pails (over 280 lbs.) of candy fresh from the factory. This lot includes the best grade ever sold in Decatur for even much higher price. Come in and get a pound for only 10 cents and be convinced.

The Racket Store

ARCTICS

Try a pair of the kind that will wear all winter. We have them.

J. H. Voglewede & Son
Phone 399

WEATHER

Partly cloudy tonight and Friday; probably cooler Friday.

Harry Decker, of Geneva, was in the city today looking after business interests.

Miss Rosa Kuntz, of Monroe, was here early in the evening and were has gone to Fort Wayne to look after business.

Mrs. Christen and daughter, Mrs. Guy Johnson, went to Monmouth this morning to spend the day with friends and relatives.

A number of Decatur people witnessed the show "The Servant in the House" at the Majestic theater last night and all declared it was fine.

All is quiet in the police courts, the "nothing doing" sign being much in evidence today. The justices of the peace are resting up for a busy time.

From the appearance of the reserved seat board the Guy company will have a splendid attendance here this evening when they present the "Cry Baby" at the opera house.

Talk about your California weather, this in Adams county is good enough if it will only continue this way for about four or five months and will mix in a shower or two.

Ruth Grosh, aged five years, and the daughter of Joseph Grosh, of Elkhart, sat on a stove hearth to get warm. Her clothes caught fire, but her two sisters extinguished the flames before she was seriously burned.

Judge L. H. Wrigley, of Albion, assumed his duties as judge of the Whitley-Noble circuit court Tuesday. He presided at Columbia City, and the first case heard by the new judge was a damage case incidental to a horse trade.

Chris Meyer, the tailor, is enjoying a dandy patronage since opening his shop here. He receives orders not only from here but from Lima, Celina, St. Marys and other towns in Ohio and from Portland, Geneva and other places in this state.

Hon. Thurman Gottschalk, of Berne, the representative-elect from this county, was here this morning enroute to Markle, where he will look after some business affairs. When not in politics Thurman is engaged in the manufacture and sale of brick.

While standing on a ladder near a drive shaft in a Wabash factory, Alvin Decatur this morning and making 150 revolutions a minute. He was whirled once around, his head grazing the ceiling, but he managed to cling to the shaft until the machinery was stopped.

When Bluffton newspapers printed Bert Hall was caught in machinery and been stolen from the choir practice room of the M. E. church at Bluffton, somebody replaced $5.80 in the room with a note reading: "I saw the piece in the paper and brought the money back." —E. B.

Many Decatur people have spoken for their Thanksgiving turkeys already.

The weather continues to grow warmer and the balmy breeze of today reminds one of spring time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Schnitz, of Fort Wayne, have arrived in the city for a several days' visit with friends and relatives.

The public schools of the county are progressing nicely at present, much to the encouragement of Prof. L. E. Oppler.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. France have returned from Fort Wayne, where they witnessed "The Servant in the House" at the Majestic theater last night.

Miss Edna Hoffman left today for Elkhart, where she will remain for the winter with her sister, Mrs. L. C. Vanderlip. She will take a course of music there.

The out-of-town guests who were in attendance at the celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kennedy have returned to their homes.

Mr. Shonacker, traveling representative for the Coppock Motor Car company, has arrived in the city again. He has many bright prospects for sales of the famous commercial car.

A message was received this morning by Del Locke stating that William Salisbury, the veteran shoe and boot salesman, of Toledo, was seriously ill and not expected to survive the day. He is well known in this city. —Bluffton Banner.

The people of Decatur should bear in mind that a union Thanksgiving service will be held at the Methodist Episcopal church one week from today at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Richard Spiegel will deliver the sermon and the M. E. church choir will render a musical program.

He was a bashful newly-married young man, wanted to surprise his wife with a new shirt waist and accordingly went to a Bluffton dry goods store to make the purchase. He blushingly told the young lady clerk what he wanted and she, wishing to help him all she could, leaned over the counter and with her very best smile asked: "What bust?" To which the young married man answered: "I didn't hear anything, did you?"

Glenn Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, is laid up with a bad gash in the thigh of his leg. He was playing with his mother last night and had a pitcher of frozen milk in his hands. In the scuffle he let the pitcher fall and slipped and fell on top of it.

A piece of the glass cut a big gash in his leg and a doctor had to be called to dress it. —Bluffton News.

Ingomar, the play which has gained fame far and wide, will be shown at the Stoneburner Star theater tonight and the writer can vouch that it is the most interesting that has ever been shown in the city. The views of the beautiful scenery is great to behold. Ingomar wins the hands of his ideal in a manner thrilling and very interesting. Do not fail to see it.

The Hotel Shamrock has been closed part of the week owing to the fact that Landlord Wheat and his wife were out of town, and since Monday and made no arrangements for taking care of the boarders. Several traveling men Tuesday night were wanting admittance for rooms, and one of the storekeepers in town opened up the hotel that they might have a place to sleep. At the present rate the Shamrock Hotel will soon be a dead one in Geneva. —Geneva Herald.

M. F. Aspy and wife from near Pleasant Mills, were here on Wednesday evening of last week, calling on friends and in attendance at the supper given by the D. of R. Lodge, of which they are members. While the out-of-town attendance at the meeting and supper was hardly up to expectations, nevertheless a good social time was had by all, and the finest supper that we ever sat down to was spread in the banquet room. The local degree staff exemplified the Rebekah degree in a very pleasing manner. —Geneva Herald.

George Ade says that when a certain college president in Indiana, a clergyman, was addressing the students in the chapel at the beginning of the college year, he observed that it was "a matter of congratulation to all the friends of the college that the year had opened with the largest freshman class in its history." Then, without any pause, the good man turned to the lesson for the day, the third Psalm, and began to read in a voice of thunder: "Lord, how are they increased that trouble me!" —December Lippincott's.

Ananias Baker, former legislator from Cass and Fulton counties, has been ill at Rochester for seven weeks from tuberculosis. His condition is critical and the only hope lies in fresh air treatment, so he has arranged to live all winter in a tent in the rear yard at his home. His diet will be raw eggs and milk until he will be able to leave his bed. A private nurse will be in charge. The tent will be a large one and will be placed against the house so that in case of accident or storm Mr. Baker can be removed quickly. It will be constructed like those used by hospitals. In it will be placed a stove, a bed and other necessary article.

Jerome B. Hopkins, the Penn township farmer who was confined in the county jail on Wednesday of last week to lay out a fine and costs of $15.65 assessed against him in the court of Thomas J. Cartwright for intoxication, ended his life in his cell in the jail shortly before twelve o'clock Tuesday morning. The instrument used in inflicting the death producing wounds was an old and rusty pocket knife with which he made two ugly gashes in his throat severing his jugular vein and his life's blood oozed out despite the heroic attempts of the physicians who were summoned soon after he had committed the act of self-destruction. —Portland Sun.

Katie Sether has gone to Berne for a visit with friends.

Attorney A. P. Beatty has returned from a business trip to Indianapolis.

Mrs. Noah Stalter returned to Monroe today after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Jonas Tritch.

Mrs. Tom Weller returned to Kendallville today after being the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Reiter.

Mrs. L. C. DeVoss went to Portland this afternoon to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, W. S. Fleming.

Thos. Elizey who resides near Decatur, returned home this morning after a few days' visit with the family of Jacob Wright. Mrs. Elizey is Mrs. Wright's father. —Montpelier Herald.

Jerome Hopkins, 62 years of age, a farmer serving sentence in the Portland jail for intoxication, committed suicide in his cell Tuesday afternoon by slashing his throat with a penknife.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Van Camp, Mrs. S. D. Beavers and Mrs. John Fleming made a trip to Berne this afternoon, in the Van Camp automobile, the visit being a combination of pleasure and business.

Fred Reppert, the well known auctioneer, is at home from a trip through the west, where he was the chief salesman at a number of hog sales. Fred is modern in his ideas and his services are always in demand.

David E. Smith and L. C. Waring were at Fort Wayne last evening attending the Masonic banquet. Among the speakers were Thomas R. Marshall and Richard K. Erwin. Several hundred were present and the event was a very enjoyable one.

D. H. Swaim, who has been confined to his home over six weeks with typhoid fever, made his first venture outside today. He walked from his home to the Arnold elevator for the purpose of getting weighed. He expects to be able to be up town inside of a few days. He was still able to tip the beam at 180 pounds. —Bluffton News.

Ingomar, the play which has gained fame far and wide, will be shown at the Stoneburner Star theater tonight and the writer can vouch that it is the most interesting that has ever been shown in the city. The views of the beautiful scenery is great to behold. Ingomar wins the hands of his ideal in a manner thrilling and very interesting. Do not fail to see it.

The Hotel Shamrock has been closed part of the week owing to the fact that Landlord Wheat and his wife were out of town, and since Monday and made no arrangements for taking care of the boarders. Several traveling men Tuesday night were wanting admittance for rooms, and one of the storekeepers in town opened up the hotel that they might have a place to sleep. At the present rate the Shamrock Hotel will soon be a dead one in Geneva. —Geneva Herald.

M. F. Aspy and wife from near Pleasant Mills, were here on Wednesday evening of last week, calling on friends and in attendance at the supper given by the D. of R. Lodge, of which they are members. While the out-of-town attendance at the meeting and supper was hardly up to expectations, nevertheless a good social time was had by all, and the finest supper that we ever sat down to was spread in the banquet room. The local degree staff exemplified the Rebekah degree in a very pleasing manner. —Geneva Herald.

George Ade says that when a certain college president in Indiana, a clergyman, was addressing the students in the chapel at the beginning of the college year, he observed that it was "a matter of congratulation to all the friends of the college that the year had opened with the largest freshman class in its history." Then, without any pause, the good man turned to the lesson for the day, the third Psalm, and began to read in a voice of thunder: "Lord, how are they increased that trouble me!" —December Lippincott's.

Ananias Baker, former legislator from Cass and Fulton counties, has been ill at Rochester for seven weeks from tuberculosis. His condition is critical and the only hope lies in fresh air treatment, so he has arranged to live all winter in a tent in the rear yard at his home. His diet will be raw eggs and milk until he will be able to leave his bed. A private nurse will be in charge. The tent will be a large one and will be placed against the house so that in case of accident or storm Mr. Baker can be removed quickly. It will be constructed like those used by hospitals. In it will be placed a stove, a bed and other necessary article.

Jerome B. Hopkins, the Penn township farmer who was confined in the county jail on Wednesday of last week to lay out a fine and costs of $15.65 assessed against him in the court of Thomas J. Cartwright for intoxication, ended his life in his cell in the jail shortly before twelve o'clock Tuesday morning. The instrument used in inflicting the death producing wounds was an old and rusty pocket knife with which he made two ugly gashes in his throat severing his jugular vein and his life's blood oozed out despite the heroic attempts of the physicians who were summoned soon after he had committed the act of self-destruction. —Portland Sun.

Katie Sether has gone to Berne for a visit with friends.

Attorney A. P. Beatty has returned from a business trip to Indianapolis.

Mrs. Noah Stalter returned to Monroe today after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Jonas Tritch.

Mrs. Tom Weller returned to Kendallville today after being the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Reiter.

Mrs. L. C. DeVoss went to Portland this afternoon to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, W. S. Fleming.

Thos. Elizey who resides near Decatur, returned home this morning after a few days' visit with the family of Jacob Wright. Mrs. Elizey is Mrs. Wright's father. —Montpelier Herald.

Jerome Hopkins, 62 years of age, a farmer serving sentence in the Portland jail for intoxication, committed suicide in his cell Tuesday afternoon by slashing his throat with a penknife.

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Van Camp, Mrs. S. D. Beavers and Mrs. John Fleming made a trip to Berne this afternoon, in the Van Camp automobile, the visit being a combination of pleasure and business.

Fred Reppert, the well known auctioneer, is at home from a trip through the west, where he was the chief salesman at a number of hog sales.

David E. Smith and L. C. Waring were at Fort Wayne last evening attending the Masonic banquet. Among the speakers were Thomas R. Marshall and Richard K. Erwin. Several hundred were present and the event was a very enjoyable one.

David E. Smith and L. C. Waring were at Fort Wayne last evening attending the Masonic banquet. Among the speakers were Thomas R. Marshall and Richard K. Erwin. Several hundred were present and the event was a very enjoyable one.

Ready For Your Overcoat?

The very thing that will suit you is waiting for you in our splendid collection of models from L. Adler Bros., and Co. of Rochester, N. Y.

We are showing an up-to-date line of

SUITS AND OVERCOATS

THAT WE GUARANTEE TO GIVE SATISFACTION

If you want further proof, we invite you to call and examine our merchandise. We take pride in showing our goods and we are selling for less money than others are asking for the same grade.

Our warm caps, sheep lined coats, wool shirts and duck coats will interest you and will keep you warm and contented.

TEEPEE, BRANDYBERRY AND PETERSON

"Cater to the Man Who Cares"

Squire James H. Smith went to Monmouth this morning to summon witnesses for the grand jury.

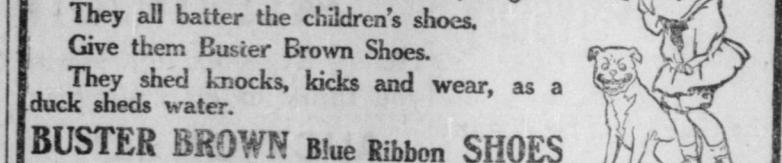

The grand jury continues to grind and was about as busy today as at any time during the week. No announcement has been made of when they will conclude.

Local theater goers have a treat in store for them tonight when Carlton Guy, the well known character actor, will appear at the Bosse in Mercer Bros.' latest comedy drama, "The Cry Baby," which has scored the distinct hit of the season. Mr. Guy is cast to excellent advantage and is surrounded by a strong company of metropolitan players.

Lovers of clean cut comedy drama will welcome the production of "The Cry Baby," which will be seen at the opera house tonight. The play is said to deal with present day life, and to tell a story replete with human interest. The well known character actor, Carlton Guy, is the star of the organization. He is supported by a strong metropolitan cast of players.

Schafer uptodate hardware store are making a special effort to dispose of a car load of graniteware and have the greatest display of these goods ever shown here.

Baseball, Football, Tennis, Marbles, Tag—

They all batter the children's shoes.

Give them Buster Brown Shoes.

They shed knocks, kicks and wear, as a duck sheds water.

BUSTER BROWN Blue Ribbon SHOES

For youngsters $1.50 to $2.50.

THE WINNES SHOE STORE

You'll be well pleased with your own appearance if you see yourself as others will see you in one of our fine suits of the Hart Schaffner & Marx or Clothcraft makes.

There's no question about it; there are no other such clothes as these in the market; the reliability of quality in the all wool fabrics, the perfect tailoring, the correct style and fit make them distinct from all others.

In justice to yourself you ought to see what we have here for you: and we're only too glad to show you.