Titus Ernst was in a bad humor this morning and explained it by the statement that he was sick last night, and when Tite says he is sick he is.

Won't some one please sing "In the Good Old Summer Time" before it is too late. We can't believe that this perfect weather will last all winter.

Dave Gerber has returned from a trip to New York state where he purchased a car load of cattle. He is advertising a sale of genuine Holsteins for next week.

Preparations are being made at Bluffton to drag the river and the stone quarry pools in the search for W. S. Harvey, who mysteriously disappeared some days ago.

W. A. Lower, of the firm of Gallogly & Lower, went to Indianapolis this afternoon, where he will attend to business of importance, both political and along the insurance line. Further than this he refused to be interviewed.

Attorneys for John W. Terrell, are seeking his release from the Bluffton jail under bond. Terrell will eat nothing while in jail unless his daughter Lucy feeds him. The insane asylum authorities discharged him and Sheriff Lipkey is at a loss to know what course to pursue.

Twelve hours prior to the expiration of the furlough which had been granted him in order that he might visit his daughter, Jacob Sult, an inmate of the soldiers' home at Danville, Ill., died Wednesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Dennis, in Union township, Huntington county.

Henry Koeneman is at home from a business trip to Pittsburg, where he appeared as a witness in a case against the Pennsylvania railroad. The matter was heard before the federal court, the affidavit being for the delay of a stock train. The case was not complete when Mr. Koeneman left.

Inability of the attorneys of the Chicago and Erie railroad company to be here for the trial of a case on November 30th has caused a trade to be made in the dates set for trial of two damage suits. The case of Emley vs. the C. & E. was continued to December 21st and the case of Ben Morgan vs. the Clover Leaf for damages first set for Dec. 21st, was set for November 30th.—Bluffton News.

At a special election Wednesday the city of Ligonier gave a majority of 72 against municipal ownership of the electric lighting system, thus reversing the decision of the former election, which it had developed was illegal because sufficient notice had not been given. Public interest was keyed up to a high pitch over the municipal lighting proposition, and outside speakers were brought in to discuss the matter pro and con. Acting upon the verdict of the first election, contractors had already begun work on the system, and it would have been completed in a few months.

Mrs. Henry Meyer and child were here from Decatur this week one day, looking at the town and visiting their husband and father, the tailor above the People's State bank.—Berne Witness.

The big specialty and comedy company at the opera house Monday night should be the best card of the year for that place and a big crowd is expected. This sort of entertainment is popular.

Mrs. Lawrence Opliger and little daughter were here from Decatur Tuesday, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Augspurger. The latter is an aunt of Mrs. Opliger.—Berne Witness.

Local option elections were held Monday in Muskingum, Tuscarawas and Hancock counties, Ohio, and all three went dry. This territory takes in such cities as Zanesville, Denison and Findlay and puts out 208 saloons.

Judge and Mrs. J. T. Merryman went to Winchester yesterday afternoon where they attended the banquet given there last evening in honor of the outgoing and incoming judges of that county. Judge Macy retired from the bench and Mr. Engle assumes the high position. Judge LaFollette, of Portland, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Merryman, his wife wife joining them at Portland. A great time was had.

Losing the temper takes all the sweet, pure feeling out of life. One may get up in the morning with a clean heart, full of song, and start out as happy as a bird, and the moment he is crossed, and gives way to temper the clean feeling vanishes, and a load as heavy as lead is rolled upon the heart. Be the master of your temper and you hold the key to joy and contentment.

Grandpa Hurlwell Smith died of old age and complication of disease at the home of his son, Arthur, a mile south of town at 2:20 Wednesday morning. His age was 71 years, 2 months and 10 days. He came from Oklahoma to live with his son and family here on election day and was ailing when he arrived. He leaves two sons and a daughter in Oklahoma and two sons in Indiana. Before going to Oklahoma he lived in this county two years, but his old home is in Tipton county to which county his remains were taken for burial yesterday.—Berne Witness.

David Gerber will hold a Holstein cow sale at Berne in the near future.

Miss Clara Burr, of Monmouth, was in the city today making a visit with friends.

The lecture given by Miss Mary B. Cox at the Christian church last evening was well appreciated. Selecting the theme "The Passion Play" she ably delineated facts relative to the famous play which solicited the interest of her hearers. Following the address Miss Cox and the members of the Ladies' Aid Society were entertained delightfully at the home of Mrs. John Fleming on First street. Refreshments were served.

All hog shippers in Bluffton were notified by telegram from their wholesaler men at Buffalo not to ship until further notice. A quarantine has been ordered closing the yards, and the entire states of New York and Pennsylvania have been ordered quarantined also by the national board of agriculture. Hoof and mouth diseases have broken out in cattle and even at London authorities are watching the shipments coming from Pennsylvania, which state is afflicted the worst. Two hundred men went to work at Buffalo to thoroughly disinfect every part of the yards.

Fifty miles of roads in Indiana have been paved with brick under the three mile road law this year, although the county attorney of Marion county says the act authorizes only gravel and macadam roads. It is believed the paving of the east Water street pike as far as the I. O. O. F. cemetery will be approved by the commissioners and if the bonds sell the road will be built next spring. As the bonds in other counties have been disposed of it is believed they can be here. Objection by any taxpayer is not likely, as the improvement is one generally admitted to be needed.—Hartford City Times.

Dr. J. C. Fulton, Bluffton, president; R. A. Love, secretary, and Major J. W. Sanderson of the soldiers' home, treasurer, of the Chickamauga Battle Association, met as an executive committee at Major Sanderson's office to plan for the next annual celebration of Chickamauga day at the soldiers' home, September 20, 1909. It was decided to invite Judge D. B. McConnell, of Logansport, to make the annual address and the G. A. R. quartet of Logansport, to furnish special music. Captain Ezra Kendall, of Hartford City, was compelled to resign as vice president of the association on account of ill health and Captain A. O. Sommers, of Kokomo, has been named to fill the vacancy.—Marion Chronicle.

Suits Worthy of Paris Artists

LITTLE details distinguish a Paris importation from the usual "shoppy" suit. This year there is the "Directoire" cut, the raised waist line, the sheath skirt effect, the high standing and lay-down collar, the patch pocket, the long sleeves, etc.

The "Bischof" models we are showing embody all these features. These goods are designed after the best creations of the leading foreign artists. You could go walking in Paris or Vienna and be in the reigning fashion with any one of these suits.

Come in. You can see the snap and smartness of these garments the instant you look in our mirrors. The wear is guaranteed both by us and the makers.

Plainly it is to your interest to make your selections now before the choicest patterns are taken. To give you even a greater inducement to come at once we have marked the most desirable garments far below their regular values.

We illustrate a few of the many we are showing. Look for the trade-mark "B. S. & S." in every garment.
