The statistics on marriage and divorce, issued by the census bureau Friday, show that only three states, Washington, Colorado and Montana, exceed Indiana in the number of divorces granted in proportion to population. The bureau's statistics cover a period of twenty years from 1887 to 1906, inclusive. During that twenty-year period, 60,721 divorces were granted in Indiana. This is at the rate of 142 divorces annually for each 100,000 of population. In 1880 the divorces in the state were at the rate of seventy for each 100,000 of population.

Apparently in a badly demented condition, waiting at the M. B. & E. station and claiming he was trying to find his home, W. S. Harvey, who disappeared from his home in Bluffton two weeks ago as completely as if the earth had swallowed him, was taken in custody Saturday at 1 o'clock by the Marion police. The man was put through a rigid questioning by Chief of Police Bert White, but all of his answers carried the conviction that he was demented.

Walter Wellman has filed a libel suit for $100,000 and rectification in Paris against the Sporting Review La Vie au Grand Air, because of the publication of an article characterizing Wellman's expedition to the North Pole as "an American bluff designed for personal profit and carried out under the cover of impossible scientific conditions." The article of which Mr. Wellman complains was printed last spring and, he states, was inspired by one of the disgruntled members of the expedition.

He believes that it is the God-given right of every man to fish and hunt when he pleases, and it will be one of the aims of his work in the legislature to secure the repeal of the fish and game laws.

There will always be a demand for plays which expose immoral methods, no matter which of the ten commandments is violated. And those plays which treat of family life, will always be preferred, because society rests upon the family and the home. The play of the elemental passions, love and hate and jealousy, will always appeal to man and women.

Mrs. Abe Beery is very sick at the home of her niece, Mrs. George W. Roop, and her condition is alarming. She suffers with what is known as creeping paralysis, and hopes for recovery are very slight. She is seventy-one years old, and this fact adds to the improbability of her recovery. Her husband died about seven months ago, since which time she has lived with her niece.

Suits Worthy of Paris Artists

LITTLE details distinguish a Paris importation from the usual "shoppy" suit. This year there is the "Directoire" cut, the raised waist line, the sheath skirt effect, the high standing and lay-down collar, the patch pocket, the long sleeves, etc.

The "Bischof" models we are showing embody all these features. These goods are designed after the best creations of the leading foreign artists. You could go walking in Paris or Vienna and be in the reigning fashion with any one of these suits.

Come in. You can see the snap and smartness of these garments the instant you look in our mirrors. The wear is guaranteed both by us and the makers.

Plainly it is to your interest to make your selections now before the choicest patterns are taken. To give you even a greater inducement to come at once we have marked the most desirable garments far below their regular values.

We illustrate a few of the many we are showing. Look for the trade-mark "B. S. & S." in every garment.
