A BOOST

FOR KERN

There seems to be a practical unanimity of sentiment in support of the candidacy of John W. Kern for United States senator from Indiana.

Persons interested in the success of Mr. Kern's campaign have collected the editorial utterances of the Democratic press of the state, and more than two-thirds of the counties have either declared for him through the local organizations or newspapers—in many instances in both ways.

In addition to this collection of sentiment it may be said that the Republican press has also been most kindly disposed to Mr. Kern. While it is true that he must be elected, if at all, by the support of his party, it is conspicuously true that no man in the party is more popular with all the people than Mr. Kern. His long service in the party is pointed to as deserving of a reward which is within the power of the party at this time to give.

It is also pointed out, and is certainly true, that no Democrat in Indiana would be so readily accepted in the United States senate as the true representative of Indiana Democracy as would Mr. Kern.

The Democratic party of Indiana has for a long time been out of power, and the things it does now will go a long way in determining whether it shall be continued in power and its lead be increased. The naming of John W. Kern for United States senator would help to establish the confidence of the people, and in his own party he is not a factional candidate.

So far as state appointments are concerned, being free from promises before his election, this newspaper believes Governor Marshall is going to make no mistakes. His expressed determination to name men who are fit first, the second consideration being their standing in the Democratic party, is on the right business lines and on lines that the people will approve regardless of party.

We also believe that the legislature is going to work to establish a good record on a safe and sane basis.

L. Ert Slack, who is popular in the Democratic party and who is the most conspicuous person contesting the claims of John W. Kern to a seat in the United States senate, has a strong following, being also a member of the state senate.

Senator Slack made a splendid and clean fight for the nomination for governor in the convention which named Thomas R. Marshall as its candidate. He has since been conspicuously before the people as a man with whom the leaders must calculate. His loyal following places him in this position. But he is a young man in years, his progress being ahead of his age as a political preferment is usually considered. He cannot be overlooked in the continued success of the party in Indiana.

At the present stage, however, the sentiment of the state, if followed means that Mr. Kern will be sent to the senate as the successor of Senator Hemenway.—Indianapolis Sun.

The two or three eligibles left in the whole country who are not mentioned as possibilities for Taft's cabinet may be boys he tried to lick at school and couldn't.

Here is a sample from the Richmond Item which shows the general tone of the Republican press toward the great cause of prohibition:

"It will be many a day before the real friends of decent honest, anti-machine and representative government will put their shoulders to the wheel to help out the Anti-Saloon league and others, leagues which at the critical time in Indiana politics threw their entire strength into the fight in support of the most pernicious, double-faced and thoroughly disreputable political machine that ever cursed and looted a commonwealth."

It is well not to let our surprise and indignation over the illegitimate operations of Standard Oil blind our eyes to the marvelous business methods of the company. It has not only driven out competition here, but has successfully competed with the long established and perfected systems of the old world. Mere greed and bludgeoning could not have given Standard Oil the complete ascendancy it enjoys today.

Mr. Rockefeller's story of how the legitimate advantages of the company were wrought out is a feature of the history which many American business men may learn from. It is a record of keen business intellect working patiently and persistently. More expense and labor were put into legitimate work than into illegitimate, and competitors were outgeneraled rather by doing better work than by trickery. Stripped of its high finance superstructure, there remains a model business machine in Standard Oil.

THE PUBLIC BENEFITTED

Decatur People Greatly Interested in the Generous Offer of the Smith, Yager & Falk Drug Co.

The people have already demonstrated that they would rather trust a man who is naturally honest, than one who was honest only because he had to be.

The Smith, Yager & Falk Drug Co. have a firmly established reputation for square dealing and sterling honesty. When they told the people that Rexall Remedies are the purest and most dependable remedies that it is possible for modern science to produce, and that they would tell the public exactly what each one of these 300 remedies contained, and that they sold Rexall Remedies on their own personal guarantee that they would give entire satisfaction or the medicine would not cost the user a single cent, they were believed.

Ever since that announcement the store of the Smith, Yager & Falk Drug Co. have been crowded by people buying Rexall Remedies; all of which proves that The Smith, Yager & Falk Drug Co. have the confidence of the people and that honesty is the best policy.

There is no "cure-all" among the Rexall Remedies—there are 300 different and separate medicines; one for each human ailment, each unquestionably the best of its kind.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY

Of Beulah Chapel Are Entertained by Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmerman

A happy wedding was that which occurred at the home of Mr. Samuel Workinger on November 26th, when Miss Mae Workinger became the wife of Mr. Lawrence Johnson. The bride wore a dress of silver satin and the groom the conventional black. Immediately after the ceremony the couple drove to the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Alton Mervis, at Wren, Ohio, where a Thanksgiving supper awaited them. After this feast the bride and groom were treated to a surprise when a crowd of their friends arrived and spent the evening in games, music and refreshments. The affair was a delightful one, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson start on life's journey with the best wishes of their many friends. Those present were: Misses Flossie Roop, Gladys Cully, Mabel Campbell, Norah Thomas, Velma German, Goldie Bell, Fern McClure, Fann Roop, Hazel Cully, Lilly Gates, Ira Shilla, Leahy Pence, Vivian Merris, Mary Huston, Florence Merris, Merl Shilts, Carrie Hoover, Mae Workinger, Ethel Steiner, Velma Bell, Kate Workinger, William Workinger, Orvil Stewart, Lawrence Johnson, John Furry, Floyd Spahr, Roy Bell, Russell Pomeroy, Gale Poling, Earl Nidlinger, Ed Feigert, Floyd Lyons, Frank Pence, Martz Felner, Harry Clifton, Perry Workinger, James Dull, Ray Sheets, Burt Workinger, Alton Merris, Elza McClure.

Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmerman charmingly entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the Beulah chapel church yesterday afternoon at their home south of Peterson. The members of the society responded to special invitation and the social time ensuing was delightful in its slightest definition. An intermingling of social chat and beautiful musical selections followed by a refreshing luncheon made the occasion one of merit. Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman were declared royal entertainers by all who enjoyed the hospitalities of their comfortable home yesterday and another similar event would not be unwelcome by the ladies of the church organization. A mush and milk supper was not the least of the features.

The Democrat will appreciate any items, social or otherwise, telephoned or sent to this office. The columns of this paper are open to its readers and although it is impossible to secure every item each day we will be glad to publish all that come to our notice. It is a herculean task if not impossible for a reporter to find out about every gathering and event in social-dom occurring in a city without the co-operation of the people.

Mrs. D. B. Erwin and Mrs. Lee Vance gave a neighborhood party at Mrs. Erwin's yesterday afternoon which was very successful. The guests brought their sewing and a guessing contest was provided for those who were without work. A luncheon served by the hostess was a very pleasant closing to the afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Bell entertained the Thimble Club yesterday afternoon instead of Wednesday as before reported. Only the regular members were present, but the meeting was a very pleasant one.

The Euchre Club will be entertained at the home of Miss Rosa Christen tonight and a glorious time is anticipated.

At their last night's meeting the Eagles elected officers for the ensuing year, and besides enjoyed a delightful social session. The newly elected officers are: Frank Gass, past worthy pres.; Green Burkhead, worthy pres.; Markey Buffenbarger, W. vice pres.; Pink Ball, W. chaplain; Joseph Knajke, W. secretary; Peter Stein, W. treasurer; Dr. J. M. Miller, Frank McConnell and Frank Keller worthy trustees.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will give a chicken dinner at the church parlors December 17. The public is invited to partake of the festivities.

About one hundred persons gathered at the M. E. parsonage Thanksgiving evening to attend the reception given by Rev. Rice and family. An excellent program was rendered, piano selections were given by the Mises Dove Cully, Mary Dailey, Lulu Buchanan and Mrs. Myrtle Fisher. A mixed quartet composed of Dr. Roller, Bert Cully, Mrs. Dailey and Miss Lulu Buchanan and a ladies quartet composed of Mrs. Bert Cully, Mrs. Daisy Morrison, Mrs. Myrtle Fisher and Mrs. Dailey rendered some fine selections. Mrs. August Brown and Mrs. G. C. Mercer sang a duet and the Misses Pearl Bobilya, Mary and Mildred Dailey, Ruth Shaffner, Dove Cully and Mary Bilderback also sang. Miss Alma Bowen gave a select reading, after which Miss Mary Miller told the fortunes of all who wished to inquire into the future. The hostess served a luncheon after the program. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Nichols, Misses Mary Miller and Bernice Rice of Decatur, Mrs. Artie Anspaugh of Ada, and Miss Myrtle Hoffman of Ohio City.—Willshire Herald.

The Woman's Relief Corps will elect officers for the ensuing year at the G. A. R. hall this evening. All members are requested to be present.
