Dr. Raymond Knoff, of Berne, was a visitor in Decatur over Sunday and has returned to his home.

Mrs. J. Thompson and Mrs. Hiram Mann went to Fort Wayne this morning to make a visit with friends.

Mrs. George Flanders and Mrs. David Flanders have gone to Fort Wayne for a visit with friends and relatives.

The atmospheric conditions indicate an early snow.

Miss Lydia Thomas was in the city today the guest of friends.

R. A. Davis and his bride of a few weeks left this morning on an extended tour through Michigan.

Mrs. David Flanders and Mrs. George Flanders spent the day at Fort Wayne and will return this evening.

J. E. Ernst, of Magley, was a business caller in this city this morning and stopped at this office a few minutes.

J. E. Meser, the photographer, has a very attractive window as usual, including some rare things in the art line.

Mr. and Mrs. John Spangler of east of the city are the parents of a girl baby. This makes an even dozen, six boys and six girls.

P. W. Smith, of Richmond, president of the First National bank of this city made his regular visit here this morning, leaving on the noon car for Fort Wayne.

The members of the Decatur baseball association will meet again this evening at the office of Gallogly & Lower, to take some action regarding a few small debts that are some days past due.

Tim Corbett's place seems to be a popular one for the boys who are gathering a supply of Christmas candy and a number of young ladies will accordingly be made happy at the proper time.

L. G. Ellingham and J. W. Tyndall of this city, Dr. J. W. Vizard of Pleasant Mills and Thurman Gottschalk went to Indianapolis today to attend the meeting of the democratic representatives and senators in session there tomorrow.

Many of the chickens belonging to the farmers throughout the county are dying and it is thought that the cause of this is the overfeed of corn. At no time are the fowls sick, but die during the night. Corn feed during an open winter will affect a chicken in this way and the owners will have to secure other feed for their fowls.

Word from Arizona is to the effect that Charles Moore is still in a serious condition. His recovery is doubtful.

John Frisinger, of Ingersoll, Oklahoma, is the guest of relatives and friends in this locality for a few days.

Just eleven more days until Christmas and every one will have a gala time. The poor will come in for their share of the festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Peters will go to Bluffton tomorrow for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. Erman Mentzer. They will return in a few days.

Mrs. L. E. Sickafus, of Laketon, Indiana, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds and other relatives and friends here for a few days.

David Studabaker who has been sick for several days suffered another relapse during last night and was quite low for several hours. He is better again today.

Robert Blackburn has received a communication from Fort Wayne stating that his sister, Mrs. Ada Abbott, whom he recently accompanied from her home in Kansas to the Lutheran hospital at Fort Wayne, is growing worse each day. The physicians have pronounced her ailment as incurable Bright's disease and she becomes weaker with each passing day.

The following letters remain unclaimed in the Decatur postoffice for the week ending December 12, 1908: N. W. Swank, Frank G. Kintz, Frank A. Kintz (special), Max Broski, Messrs. Ketchum & Mathews, Mrs. Esta Liddy, Dr. C. R. Lowder, John Schneider, Mrs. E. K. Ray, Mr. M. Alley, Mr. John Baller. Persons calling say advertised giving date. M. A. Frisinger, P. M.

Employees of the C. B. & C. railroad are once more made happy by a pay day. The envelopes this time contained full pay for the latter half of the month of October. They are also expecting another pay day this week, at which time they will receive their wages for the first half of the month of November. The short line bids fair to catch up in its pay days, and to soon have a specified date for the payment.—Portland Sun.

Attorney Abe Simmons is in Springfield, Ill., where he is appearing before the supreme court as one of the attorneys in a big law suit over oil property in Illinois. When he appears in court there he will be attired in a handsome new Prince Albert suit which he had made here this week. In the Illinois supreme court the attorneys appear in dress suits and Mr. Simmons will follow the custom. Dress suits in the coal courts would attract much attention.—Bluffton News.

Mr. and Mrs. Ormsby, of Indianapolis are in the city. Mr. Ormsby is the newly appointed representative of the Smith-Premier typewriter in the Fort Wayne district, and is out getting acquainted. He has the new number ten, the best typewriter ever put on the market and is selling them so rapidly the company is back with their orders. He is also selling older models at a greatly reduced price, and is making his headquarters at this office, and will be here about ten days or two weeks.

WILL SERVE A BIG DINNER.

Ladies of Presbyterian Church to Serve Feast Next Thursday.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will serve a big dinner at the church parlors on next Thursday, between the hours of eleven and one o'clock. The price is twenty-five cents and if you miss this opportunity to get a sumptuous dinner for that sum, you will regret it for days to come. The menu as arranged will be as follows:

Roasted Chicken, Cranberry Sauce
Mashed Potatoes, Gravy
Sweet Potatoes Baked Beans
Dressing Celery
Pickles Jelly Bread and Butter
Mince Pie Lemon Pie
Cake Fruit Salda
Coffee Tea
At church parlors, Thursday, Dec. 17, 11 to 1. 25c.

Several loads of logs passed down Second street today. These incidents are far between now, and still it is only a few years since when roads were good there was an almost constant stream of log wagons going through town.

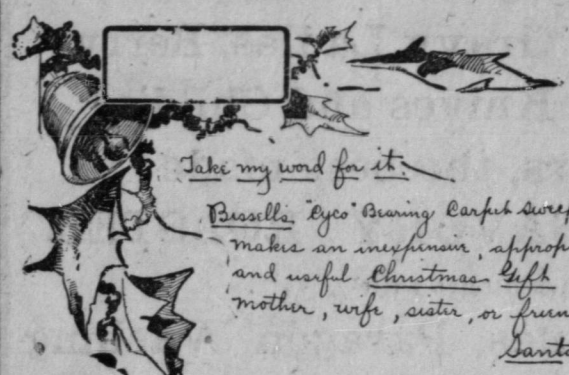

Attorney C. J. Lutz left last evening for Potosi, Missouri, where he expected to take part in a law suit. A telegram came this morning stating that the matter had been adjusted and his services would not be needed at this time, and it is probable that he will return within a day or two.

Chris Beers, east of town, has one of the smartest Scotch collie dogs in the county. The family lives far back off the road but are saved the trouble of going out to their box each day for the mail. The dog sits on the porch until he sees Mail Carrier W. H. Krill approaching from down the road and he then races down the lane to meet him. Rearing his front feet to the buggy bed he patiently waits until the carrier places all of the family mail into his mouth and he then proudly runs back to the house. He has never been known to miss a delivery when entrusted to him.—Bluffton News.

The only way that Patrolman John Robinson could sever his connection with the police force was to resign of his own accord, since it became apparent that the metropolitan police board of this city was willing that John Robinson should go to jail while holding a commission as an officer. Robinson called at police headquarters this morning and handed in the following resignation: "Gentlemen—Please accept my resignation as a member of the police force to take effect at once. (Signed) John Robinson." The resignation was written by Captain Thompson and signed by the late officer and placed on file. It will be submitted to the police board at their meeting one week from tonight.—Marion Leader.
