MARKED FOR DEATH.

"Three years ago I was marked for death. A graveyard cough was tearing my lungs to pieces. Doctors failed to help me, and hope had fled, when my husband got Dr. King's New Discovery," says Mrs. A. C. Williams, of Bac, Ky. "The first dose helped me and improvement kept on until I had gained 58 pounds in weight and my health was fully restored." This medicine holds the world's healing record for coughs and colds and lung and throat diseases. It prevents pneumonia. Sold under guarantee by all dealers. 50¢ and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Mrs. Shrock Delightfully Entertained Historical Club Last Night

A FAMILY DINNER

Will Be Given by Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Beatty Christmas—Other Notes

Attorney and Mrs. A. P. Beatty will delightfully entertain for Christmas dinner a number of their friends and relatives and a good social time will be enjoyed. The guests will be Messrs. and Mesdames E. E. Snow, Louis Mailand and George Kinzle and family.

One of the most enjoyable occasions of the Christmas season occurred last evening at the home of Judge and Mrs. C. J. Lutz, when they served a six o'clock dinner to a few of their friends, in honor of Miss Jeane Lutz, their daughter, who is home from college at Boston. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. F. True and son Brice, Mr. Ted Tavers, of Kirksville, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dugan and daughter Miss Frances. A five course dinner was served in a dainty manner and the occasion was thoroughly enjoyable. The evening was spent in music and games.

The ladies of the Historical Club were royally entertained at the home of Mrs. Schrock last night, the hostess having the paper on the "Origin of Christmas and Its History." The paper was splendid and created enthusiasm among the members. A delightful social hour was enjoyed during which refreshments were served. The club had as their guests Mrs. Hayward, Mrs. Julia Moses and Mrs. Lucy Root.

A family reunion will be held at the home of J. D. Hale next Saturday evening at which time all of his children and grandchildren will gather to enjoy the good time which is in store. Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Gregg, of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Parker, of Napanee, and Messrs. and Mesdames D. E. Smith and John Peterson and their children, beside the Hale family, will constitute the party. A program will be rendered. Mr. Hale's birthday occurs Sunday and it will be celebrated. He will be sixty years of age.

Ed Luttmann was agreeably surprised last night when the teachers of Root township, of which he is trustee, called at his home and presented him with a beautiful oak rocking chair in token of their appreciation of his efficient work. A good time was had before the departure of the guests.

Garnett May Linker, aged two years, eight months and two days, died at four o'clock this morning at the home of her grandfather, Valentine Linker on the Peter Holthouse farm west of town, after an illness with catarrhal fever. The funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock at the Shady cemetery.

Jake Stults, who has been working for Davis & Co., at Fayetteville, Tenn., has arrived home after an absence of several months.
