HE SAID

MANY GOOD THINGS

Mr. Shively Wednesday in his speech accepting his election as senator, said some things that are worth considering. It is true, as he pointed out, that most of the rights the citizen enjoys are conferred by the states and safeguarded and protected by them. All the great primary rights of life, liberty, property and occupation are "made secure by the power of the state." Therefore it is that "the value and importance of the state government to the citizen cannot be over estimated," and so it is that "the high function and manifold and manifest importance of the several states within their respective lawful spheres only add dignity and strength to the union of the states." These are pleasant words to come from a man who is to represent us in the federal senate. It is well that he should understand the restraints imposed on him and the government. For the government can be wisely and safely administered only by those who cherish the true American ideal. But the new senator did not neglect national affairs and on these, too, he spoke with much force and wisdom. Take this for instance: "Every public man chooses for himself either the championship of power or the championship of rights. Selfishness ever lurks in the shadow of power seeking profitable connection. Its strategy is to make a puzzle of power and a mystery of government. Words should not be permitted to confuse. Wealth is a social not a political product; it is wrought out by brawn of muscle, skill of hand and vigil of brain, not by the yeas and nays of congresses. Industrial prosperity is a social, not a political product; it is born of the genius and energy of man applied to the bounties of nature, not of the cunning and craft of men applied to the powers of government. That is the best use of power which least tempts to its abuse. That is worst employment of power which most tempts to its abuse. Happy is the people whose government does not, by its affirmative acts, create the very mischiefs which all true government is designed to prevent. That is the best government under which each man is secure in that which is his own and each is denied that which is not his own."—Indianapolis News.

Hon. Samuel M. Ralston is what his friends always knew him to be—a clean gentleman and a man who can see things in a political way. His recent well-balanced remarks directed to the Democratic members of the legislature, is calculated to help the party at this crucial period.

Mrs. John Niblick Entertained a Small Company Last Evening

THE THIMBLE CLUB

Mrs. Eli Meyer Entertains Euterpean Club—Other Notes of Interest

Mrs. John Niblick entertained a small company of ladies at five o'clock dinner last evening in honor of Mrs. Duke Stoops of Petersburg. The table was beautifully decorated with roses and smilax, an elegant five course dinner being served. Each guest found by her plate a conundrum answered by the name of a great man. Mrs. Tyndall and Mrs. Hooper proved the champions in the guessing. Those present were Mesdames Hensley, John Peterson, Hooper, Morrison, D. D. Heller, Schirmeyer, Flanders, Tyndall, Stoops, Dugan, Ellingham and Miss Studabaker.

Mrs. N. Blackburn entertained today in honor of Mrs. Duke Stoops of Petersburg.

Yesterday Mrs. C. C. Schafer entertained the members of the Thimble Club and several outside guests among them being Mesdames Dugan, Brackett, Hensley, Flanders, Tyndall, Vall, Daniels, Sellemeyer, Ellingham, and Mrs. Ammerman, of Detroit. Fancy work was the order of the afternoon. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Cole and Mrs. Daniels served a dainty luncheon.

The Euterpean Club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Eli Meyer last evening, and a large attendance enjoyed the most interesting program. The musician Ruff was the subject for consideration, and was ably handled by Mrs. J. C. Patterson and Miss Bessie Schrock. Selections from the composer were cleverly rendered by the Mesdames Irene Schirmeyer, Marie Patterson and Edith Smith. After the business session a delightful social hour was enjoyed by all present. Besides the club members the following were present: Mrs. Duke Stoops of Petersburg, Indiana, Miss Bessie Parker of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. Elizabeth Morrison and Miss Eva Acker of this city.

BREAK FROM BEST JAIL

Boy Prisoners in Seemingly Impossible Feat at York.

York, Pa., Jan. 22.—Harry Ziegler, Otto Plath and Augustus Stallman, youths between 16 and 19 years old, awaiting transportation to the Eastern penitentiary upon sentence imposed at the January session of court, broke York county's new jail, one of the finest and most modern prisons in the state. They sawed bars across the windows of their cells in the juvenile ward on the fourth floor, clambered in some mysterious way down over the outer wall and scaled the high jail wall. Wrapped about by a blinding snowstorm they made their escape. The remarkable feat deemed impossible, follows an escape which these same three youths made about two months ago from the city lockup, breaking from their cells there and clambering down into a side alley in broad daylight.

MORE COURT IN LUPTON ESTATE

Court is Asked to Construe Certain Parts of the Will.

Attorneys in the Eliza Lupton will case, in which the court is asked to construe certain parts of the document, were in Portland yesterday making up the issues in the suit. Among them were J. A. Hindman, representing A. G. Lupton, of Hartford City, who is executor of the will and plaintiff in the case. The defendants named are Lenora Horn, A. G. Lupton and A. G. Lupton as trustee for Ella McCoy. A complaint was filed some time ago by Mrs. Horn, a sister of Mr. Lupton, in which she demanded an accounting in the affairs of the Pennville bank, alleging that she had been frozen out by her brother. The case was originally filed at Portland, but was venue to Bluffton for trial, where the defendant won out.

William Schumaker will return to Jeffersonville tomorrow after being the guest of friends and relatives in the city for some time.

A large number of farmers were in the city today to attend the big horse sale.

AMONG THE SOLONS

Further resolutions presented to the present legislature asking for amendments to the state constitution will probably be tabled as the result of a decision of the senate committee on constitutional revision reached at yesterday's session.

Another bill to remove the high school qualifications for teachers, adopted at the last session of the legislature, was offered by Gottschalk of Adams county.

A FINE PROGRAM

Daughters' Day Was Appropriately Observed Last Evening

AT PRESBYTERIAN

The Participants in the Program Acquired Themselves Grandly

Daughters' day was very appropriately observed at the Presbyterian church last evening and the program rendered was one which deeply interested every one present. The event was in charge of the young ladies of Mrs. J. N. Fristoe's class and they acquitted themselves grandly. A fair sized audience heard the clever rendition of the following program: Tableaux and song "The Gleaners"; Devotional—Rev. Richard Spetnagle Vocal solo—Miss Frances Laman Paper—"Syria".....

.....Miss Lucy Mackintosh German song—Miss Jessie Phillips Tableaux—"Choosing Between Christ and Goddess Dian".....

.....Misses Kate Bremerkamp and Grace Coffelt. Instrumental solo—Miss Goldie Biggs Paper—"Mountaineers".....

.....Miss Frances Cole Instrumental duet.....

.....Misses Lulu Atz and Ruth Buhler Mountaineer Letters.....

.....Misses Gladys Meyers and Olive Perkins. Vocal solo—Miss Ruth Patterson Silver offering.

Instrumental solo—Miss Naomi Dugan Original poem—Miss Stella Perkins Tableaux—"Joy Bells."

Social hour with light refreshments served by the Gleaners.

Those who participated in the program did exceedingly well in all who attended are loud in their praise as to the cleverness with which the event was dispatched.

CURES CATARRH.

The Smith, Yager & Falk Drug Co. Will Furnish the Medicine Free in Every Case Where They Fail to Cure Catarrh.

Neglect or pessimism we believe is the greatest enemy the public have to contend with when applied to the loss or recovery of health. Practically every case of consumption might have been cured if hope had been maintained and proper treatment had been resorted to at the first symptom of the disease. Until the advanced stage is reached, consumption is curable. Catarrh is responsible, we believe, for every case of consumption. It is about Catarrh we want to talk to you today, incidentally consumption, since the two are so closely allied.

We have a medicine made from the prescription of one of the most successful catarrh specialists known. This medicine has a record of 98 per cent of cures, and we believe it is positively without an equal. We are so satisfied that we are right, that we will supply the medicine free in every instance where it is used according to directions for a reasonable length of time and fails to cure and give satisfaction in every particular. We want every one in Decatur to try this medicine at our risk. There are no conditions or formality attached to our offer. We put the user under no obligation to us whatever.

The medicine we want you to try is Rexall Mucu-Tone. It is a catarrh remedy that goes direct to the seat of trouble. It is carried by the blood to every part of the system. It seeks out and destroys the germs or parasites which cause Catarrh. It purifies the blood, tones up the mucous cells, soothes and heals the tissues that were ravaged by the catarrhal parasite, and brings about a condition of health and strength that prevents the germs of consumption from ever getting a start. Besides this, Rexall Mucu-Tone is a wonderful appetizer, digestive aid and flesh builder. Its good effects are felt from the very first dose. It is one of the largest and most satisfactory selling medicines that we have ever had anything to do with. We know so much of the great good that it has done that we personally back it up our reputation and money, which fact should be ample guarantee to satisfy anybody.

Rexall Mucu-Tone comes in two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. We urge you to try it. The Smith, Yager & Falk Drug Co., Decatur, Indiana.

THE ERWIN AGENCY

CROUP

THERE IS NOTHING that strikes terror to the hearts of parents more than to be awakened in the night by the ringing cough which accompanies an attack of croup. The child may retire with nothing but a slight cold and a few hours later the family be aroused by the ominous symptoms. Every home where there are small children should be prepared for these sudden attacks, as prompt treatment is necessary. Do not experiment with remedies of doubtful value, but get that has been in use for nearly forty years and never known to fail.

Mr. Homer Krohn, of Lisbon, Iowa, in a letter to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy praises this medicine for what it has done for his children. He says: "It has not only saved them once but many a time. Only two weeks ago my boy had the croup so bad in the night that had it not been for having a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house he would have choked before a doctor could have gotten to the house. It is a medicine that no one should be without at any time." It is pleasant to take and many children like it.

Attacks of croup are most likely to occur during the early winter months, and every family with young children should be prepared for it. Keep a bottle of CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY in your home. It only costs a quarter, large size 50 cents. Your druggist sells it.
