The Bank Book

The Business Man's Best Reference--

Showing as it does by the deposits and monthly balances the condition of his business.

Be up-to-date—open an account now—even if it must necessarily be a small one. It's good business to have a good banker.

OLD Adams Co. Bank

WEATHER.

Rain or snow tonight and Sunday; colder.

Mr. Green went to Willshire on business.

Rev. Richard Spetnagle went to Ft. Wayne today.

Henry Sovine was in town today on business.

John Webber made a business trip to Willshire.

Dave Coffee is in the city greeting his old friends.

C. D. Murray was a business caller at Fort Wayne last evening.

Mrs. J. H. Bremerkamp is suffering from an attack of the grip.

Mrs. Sadie Coffy, of the Steele & Weaver Racket store, is ill with la-grippe.

Miss Nettie Schnepf came in today from Hoagland and is attending school.

Immense crowds attend the services each night at the Methodist church.

P. W. Smith, of Richmond, returned from a business trip to Fort Wayne.

W. D. Hayes returned to his home at Williams, after attending to business affairs in the city.

W. W. Wyrick, of Angola, has been elected prohibition chairman for the Twelfth congressional district.

A few men still manage to make a living along the Wabash river in trapping small fur-bearing animals.

The Lincoln's birthday was well attended at District No. 7 in Root township. Ella Mutchler, teacher.

Mr. Waterman, the banker from Kansas City last evening, gave an interesting temperance address at the court house. A large number of Decatur citizens braved the inclement weather to hear the speaker of note.

F. C. Foreman and family have gone to Oxford, Ohio, in answer to a telegram bringing them the sad news of the death of Mrs. Wodriff, mother of Mrs. Foreman. They left with the Sunday night train.—Berne Witness.

The Red Men's lodge at Leewood, has the distinction of including among its members the smallest Red Man in the world. He is Guy Hill and has just passed his twentieth birthday. Is forty-four inches in height, and weighs forty-eight pounds.

Lon Oxley, who has been in bad shape from a stroke of paralysis, is beseeching friends to aid him in raising money to go to Martinsville for treatment. He is in bad shape and his mind appears to be affected and there has been talk of an inquest that may secure for him treatment at East Haven.—Bluffton News.

Roy Wolford received a letter from Colonel Foreman this morning stating that he was improving slowly from an attack of appendicitis. Mr. Foreman resides at North Baltimore, Ohio, where he moved some time ago after buying a Watkins agency there. He has not been able to work since being there. His Decatur friends hope that he will soon recover.

Luke M. Fleming, son of the late former state treasurer, William Fleming, died Sunday night at Indianapolis, where he had resided in late years. Mr. Fleming had been an invalid for a long time, and while he had not been in Fort Wayne for many years, friends and acquaintances will recall him pleasantly. His wife survives him.—Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette.

A. E. Hunt, the teacher at the Craigville schools who had a little difficulty Friday with one of the students, says that reports of the trouble as they came to Bluffton were exaggerated. He says that there were not a lot of students involved as was indicated, and he says that the Davenport boy who hoveled resistance had to take his punishment. He also said that the boy did not hit him with the ink bottle thrown, although he narrowly missed another pupil.—Bluffton News.

William Smith, who has been seriously sick and who got $100 from his uncle, Charles Smith, several weeks ago to go to Hot Springs, Ark., for his health, is located in Holgate, O. Instead of the young man using the money to go to Hot Springs as he stated he would when it was given to him by his uncle, he went to Ohio where he bought a moving picture show. People who have been in Ohio saw him and claim he is having the time of his life.—Bluffton Banner.

Abram Simmons went to Fort Wayne this morning where the finding of facts in the case of the More-Mansfield Construction company against the M. B. & E. will be continued. The case was started in December before Commissioner Morris, who was appointed by Judge Cook, of Huntington. After two weeks had been passed on the case it was continued until this morning, when again the attorneys are assembled in Fort Wayne to explain their different sides.—Bluffton Banner.

Sanford Carter returned to his home at Pleasant Mills.

C. D. Lewton made a business trip to Bluffton this afternoon.

P. O. Musser, of French township, went to Fort Wayne this afternoon.

William Liechty, of Hartford township, went to Fort Wayne this afternoon.

Henry Deltchrich returned to his home at Shumm, Ohio, on the noon train.

D. A. Liechty, of Berne, went to Fort Wayne, where he will spend the afternoon.

David Minger, of French township, went to Fort Wayne this afternoon on a pleasure trip.

Irvin Brandyberry returned last evening from Indianapolis, where he was on a business mission.

Mrs. Henry Heckman returned to her home north of the city by way of the interurban, after trading in the city.

Homer Andrews returned to his home at Lagrange after visiting in the city with his brother-in-law, George Steele.

George Buhn was at Fort Wayne last evening visiting lady friends and has returned to the city. He was in attendance at the show.

Trains on the Clover Leaf railroad are operating without orders from the dispatcher at present. The telegraph lines are down.

No communication whatever could be had with parties outside of Decatur today, either by telephone or telegraph. The wires were all down.

There is a good show on at the Grand tonight and those who brave the storm to attend will be well paid. The music will be of high class.

Trains on the various railroads are running behind time. A number of Erie trains coming from New York have been six and seven hours late.

Mr. Krimmel, the piano tuner, is in Decatur for a few days. Parties wishing their piano tuned will please leave word at the Murray Hotel, phone 57.

The proceeds of the musicale to be given by the Maud Willis company will help defray the expenses of the senior class at their commencement next June.

Judge J. S. Engle, of Winchester, was here this morning and assumed jurisdiction in the Monroe street macadam case, which was appealed to the circuit court.

The Western Union wire in Decatur is out of commission and no messages have been received or sent from here for the past twenty-four hours. The storm has certainly played havoc with all lines of business.

Miss Bertha Nicodemus, pianist at the Grand theater, recognized as a clever musician, is organizing a class of pupils. She has had much experience in teaching music, and will no doubt meet with much success in her work. She will continue at the Grand, however.

Jeff Bryson received a letter yesterday from his daughter Frances, who is a musical student at DePaul that she and the two other girls from here, Frances Merryman and Pansy Bell had just returned from a banquet of the Alpha-Chi sorority at the Claypool Hotel, at Indianapolis. Miss Lucile Hale has been visiting at Greencastle with the Decatur girls.

T. A. Baker, a former resident of Decatur, but who has recently made his home south of Pleasant Mills, has sold his farm and will move his family to southern Texas, along the gulf shore. Mr. Baker thinks that the climate in that part of the Lone Star state is ideal, and the country very attractive. The land is good, and altogether it is a very pleasant place to live.

A. J. Smith and C. F. True were the victims of rather peculiar circumstances last night. They had been detailed to meet the Erie train and escort Mr. Waterman, the temperance lecturer to the court room. The train pulled in and a man alighted from a coach. The gentlemen asked him if he was Mr. Waterman, and he replied in the affirmative. He was told to get in the bus, which he did, but when Mr. Smith instructed the driver to take them to the court house, the man explained that he had no business there, but was only a traveling man. Imagine the surprise.

W. W. Wyrick, of Angola, has been very successful the past year in growing onions. He planted thirteen acres and raised about eight thousand eight hundred bushels. About 500 bushels were caught by a freeze in the fall and had to be thrown away, leaving about 8,300 bushels of good onions, or an average of nearly 650 bushels to the acre. The cost per acre in raising and harvesting this crop was about $90, or a total of $1,170. He sold 3,300 bushels in the fall for 38 cents, or $1,254, and has on hand now 5,000 bushels which at the present price of 75 cents, would bring $3,750, or a net profit from the thirteen acres of about $2,580.

John H. Ranyun, of Geneva, was in the city today.

C. D. Kunkle returned to his home this afternoon from a business trip to the city.

The Berne Quartet band is the name of a new musical organization at Berne.

Esq. Armantrout, of Geneva, was in the city today, being in attendance at the circuit court.

Miss Anna Martin went to Fort Wayne this afternoon to remain for some time as the guest of friends.

Miss Edith Porter returned last night from Fort Wayne, where she made a pleasant visit with friends.

The Decatur Packing company is doing a good business at present with future prospects most encouraging.

Mr. Waterman, the great temperance lecturer, has left the city after delivering a speech at the court house.

L. A. Graham went to Monroe this afternoon to look after business interests and will return to the city this afternoon.

As we go to press snow is still falling, and it is not improbable that we will have about a foot of snow by tomorrow morning.

Workmen were busy this afternoon removing snow from the Fort Wayne & Springfield interurban track that the cars could operate without inconvenience.

Every member of the Modern Woodmen lodge should be present at tomorrow night's meeting. Important business is to be transacted and initiatory work will be conferred.

The alumni had a meeting at the school building on last Saturday for the election of officers for the ensuing year. G. A. Lehman was chosen chairman; Mrs. E. K. Shalley, vice; Cora Schug, secretary; R. L. Sprunger, treasurer; Mrs. Haacker, third member of the executive committee. At the call of the new chairman, it is hoped that every member will be present as some very important business is to be transacted.—Berne Witness.

WESTERN CANADA

320 Acres Instead of 160 Acres

As further inducement to settlement of the Wheat-raising lands of Western Canada, the Canadian Government has increased the area that may be taken by a homesteader to 320 acres—160 free and 160 to be purchased at only $3.00 per acre.

These lands are in the grain-raising areas, where mixed farming is also carried on with unqualified success. A railway will shortly be built to Hudson Bay, bringing the world's markets a thousand miles nearer these wheat fields, where schools and churches are convenient, climate excellent, railways close to all settlements, and local markets good.

It would take time to assimilate the revelations that a visit to the great empire lying to the North of us unfolded at every turn. The correspondence of a Titulo Editor, who visited Western Canada in August, 1907.

Lands may also be purchased from Railway and Land Companies at low prices and on easy terms. For pamphlets, maps and information as to low Railway Rates, apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Ottawa, Canada, or to the authorized Canadian Government Agent.

It's Easy To Figure

Go back ten years. Take the cost of the shingle, tin or whatever kind of roof you put on your barn, house or other buildings, and add what it has cost for repairing.

How much does it stand you in? You'll find it far more economical to use

RUBEROID ROOFING

Trade Mark Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Saves expense for labor, as you can lay it yourself; needs no painting when applied, and costs less to keep in condition than any other roofing.

Ruberoid contains no tar, rubber or paper, and will not rot, melt, crack or rust. Colorless, acid-proof and fire-resisting. Will add years of life to any building on your farm.
