THEY HAVE TACKLED THE REAL THING

The republican party has the biggest proposition on its hands right now it has had since it first came into existence. The revision of the tariff is a bigger job than licking Spain, sealing the presidency or building the Panama canal. The whole organization is going to be shaken up before the new tariff bill is in shape to get through the senate and house. The democratic party tried its hand at revising the tariff downward and succeeded in revising itself out of power. The trouble with the job is, about every congressman and every senator differs with every other congressman and every other senator as to what articles should be put on the free list, what ones should have the tariff reduced and what ones should have the tariff increased upon them. Take hides for instance: You will find democrats who are in favor of free hides and democrats who want hides protected; you can find republicans who want hides protected and republicans who want hides on the free list: Each man is influenced by his constituency. The man who sells a hide or two a year is against taking the tariff off, and the man who has no hides to sell, but has to buy boots or shoes, wants the tariff removed. The same thing is true to a greater or less extent of every other article included in the entire list of articles which enter into the schedule. Not only are thousands of individuals interested in the framing of the new rates, but manufacturers in all parts of the country are also interested, some of them demanding free raw materials and protection on the finished products, and others demanding a prohibitive tariff on all articles manufactured by them. And the representatives of the people who have to determine these matters have their eyes and ears open all the time trying to figure out what the effect is going to be on their political future, and the political future usually receives more consideration than the justice of the tariff rate to be agreed upon. When the democrats revised the tariff the bill was so out of the way in Cleveland's estimation that he would not give it his approval by signing the bill, but permitted it to become a law without his signature. The bill was not satisfactory and the democratic party went down and out and has been out ever since. Will the republican party pass through a similar experience?—Columbia City Post.

GETTING READY FOR PRIMARY

Bluffton Democrats Talking Some of City Nominations.

The meeting of the democratic city committee will be held tonight in the office of W. H. Eichhorn, city chairman. This meeting was called for a week ago tonight but Mr. Eichhorn had to go to Decatur and was unable to be present at the meeting. The members of the committee did not feel like taking steps until the return of the chairman. Upon the return of Mr. Eichhorn from Decatur yesterday he issued a call for the committee to meet tonight. At the meeting it is probable that the date for the city primary will be set, although this matter may be postponed. As there are really no avowed candidates for any of the offices yet, although two or three have expressed themselves as wishing to run, it is hard for the committee to learn just when the candidates would like to have the primary. It is probable that the primary will be held in the spring to keep from a long campaign. If the date would be set in September there would be a hustle between the candidates wishing nomination between now and then.—Bluffton Banner.

NOTICE TO ICE CONSUMERS—Owing to the scarcity of ice and the necessity of shipping in the supply for Decatur, all ice tickets must be paid for in advance. This change in the method of doing business has been necessitated by the fact that all ice must be paid for in cash upon its receipt in this city. William Mersman, H. L. Conter.

The Old Maids Convention at Methodist Church Tomorrow Night

The Euterpean Club will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. J. W. Tyndall on Monroe street.

The Old Maids' convention will be held tomorrow evening at the Methodist church. It happens quite often that the most enjoyable entertainments given are those of church organizations. The girls of the Epworth League will put forth every effort to make the convention a success. These are happy days for the orphans, which the league provides for and educate. The money earned in this way will be for the league and any one who cares to help the good work along can do so by attending. Go to the convention tomorrow night and see how the old maids will act before you. Old fashioned dresses and bonnets will be the array of the "Old Maids." The entertainment commences at eight o'clock.

The Junior Thimble Club will be entertained Saturday afternoon at the home of Jirene Gregory on Fourth street. The little guests will sew for an hour and play during the rest of the afternoon.

Misses Electa Glancy and Ruth Ernst will entertain this evening the members of the Entre Nous club at the office of the latter's brother. On account of bad weather the meeting was postponed till tonight.

The public is invited to attend the high school literary to be given tomorrow afternoon, March 26. The following is the program:

"The Clang of the Forge," High School Chorus.
Recitation, "How Paderewski Plays the Piano," Homer Raudenbush.
Original story, "A Sleeping Bee," Hulda Bauer.
Scene from "School for Scandal," Anna Ampsuaugh, Carl Smith.
Piano solo, Irene Evans.
Essay, "Causes of Burns' Failures," Effie Patton.
Recitation, "A Warning to School Masters," Bernice Dailey.
Violin solo, Don Burk.
Debate—"Resolved, That the Expenditure Involved in Sending Our Fleet Around the World Was Justifiable," affirmative, Dorothy Walters, Lawrence Archbold; negative, Fred Meyers, Roy Jahn.
Original story, "On the Gridiron," Earl Colter.
Oration, "The Vices and Virtues of Ambition," Don Burk.
"The Lawn Party," Girls chorus.
Recitation, "Mice at Play," Marie Ball.
Scene from "Forsaken Leah," Ruby Parrish, Free Frisinger.
Sketch of Socrates, Harry Huffman.
Journal, Helen Walters.
"Anchored," High school chorus.

The election of officers for the Mt. Tabor Spworth League for the following year was held March 23, 1909, at the parsonage in Bobo. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Alice Cowan; first vice president, Mr. Henry Colter; second vice president, Miss Lucy Bunner; third vice president, Miss Mae Troutner; fourth vice president, Mr. Ben S. Colter; secretary, Miss Ora Gilpin; treasurer, Mr. Ed Koss; organist, Mr. Rufus Brodbeck. The officers will be installed March 28, 1909. A program will be given in the evening, consisting of biographies of the noted characters of the Bible, such as Daniel, Joseph, Abraham and others. Everyone invited to attend.

GET WITHIN.

Piles Can't Be Cured from the Outside.

External treatment won't cure piles. Nor will surgical operations. The cause is inside—bad circulation. To cure piles you must free the circulation of blood in the lower bowel. Dr. Leonhardt's Hem-Roid is the only internal tablet remedy for piles. It removes the cause. $1 at Holthouse Drug Co. Guaranteed to cure any case.

"MONTANA."

One of the most noteworthy productions of the season will be the presentation of Henry D. Carey's great American play, "Montana," at the opera house for one night only, Friday, March 26th. When Mr. Carey wrote "Montana" he knew his subject. He understood the spirit of the west and knew how to stage it. The play is replete with natural people and is redolent of the plains. The great strength and merit of the play lies in the fact of the author's knowledge of the west, its people and its ways. You do not see the usual conventional western blood and thunder melodrama in "Montana," but a clean, pure, natural, convincing story of the plains. No expense has been spared in the production. The scenery and costumes are in keeping with the demands of the play and the cast is one of artistic excellence. A splendid performance of a great play is assured.

CAUSE FOR ALARM.

Loss of Appetite or Distress After Eating a Symptom That Should Not Be Disregarded.

Appetite is just a natural desire for food. Loss of appetite or stomach distress after eating indicate indigestion or dyspepsia. Over-eating is a habit very dangerous to a person's good general health, and insatiable appetite is a sure symptom of diabetes.

It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, heaviest and healthiest persons are moderate eaters.

There is nothing that will create sickness or cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge everyone in Decatur who is suffering from any stomach derangement, indigestion or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that we will refund their money without question or formality, if after reasonable use of this medicine, they are not perfectly satisfied with the results. We recommend them to our customers every day, and have yet to hear of any one who has not been benefited by them. We honestly believe them to be without equal. They are made from the prescription of a physician who devoted all his time to the study and treatment of stomach troubles. They give very prompt relief, neutralize the gastric juices, strengthen the digestive organs, create good digestion and assimilation, naturally regulate the bowels, promote perfect nutrition, and create a permanent cure of all unhealthy symptoms.

We urge you to try a 25c box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, which gives 15 days' treatment. At the end of that time, your money will be returned to you if you are not satisfied. Of course, in chronic cases length of treatment varies. For such cases, we have two larger sizes, which sell for 45c and 85c. The Smith, Yager & Falk Drug Co., Decatur, Ind.
