Four Indiana congressmen were heard upon the floor of congress and all four of them riddled the Payne tariff bill and the whole system of protection fore and aft. The four speakers were Democrats, and it almost borders on the sensational to hear four Indiana Democrats all in one day, and to think, too, that they are real congressmen from the hoosier state. It is a safe bet that they will come nearer representing the people that the echoes that have rattled around there for the last several years.

In consideration of the inclement weather, there was a goodly number of farmers in the city today and consequently the merchants did a good business.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Catherine Norris, will be held tomorrow morning at the Freidheim Reformed church, the cortege leaving the house at ten o'clock sun time.

L. L. Babcock, who recently purchased a furniture store at Frankfort, is negotiating for the sale of same, and in the event that present plans materialize, he will build a new home in Decatur in the near future.

ECZEMA IS NOW CURABLE.

Zemo, a clean liquid for external use, stops itching instantly and permanently cures eczema and every form of itching skin or scalp disease. Smith, Yager & Falk, the druggists, say they have been shown positive proof of many remarkable cures made by Zemo and that they endorse and recommend it and believe Zemo will do all that is claimed for it. IMPORTED ROYAL BELGIAN STALLION SULTAN d'ANS

American No. 2941.

Belgian No. 34448.

The above named stallion was foaled April 7, 1903 for Victor Daumier, of Belgium. Was imported Oct. 2, 1907, by Frisinger & Co., of Decatur, Ind. Sultan is a beautiful red roan, a color that is fashionable the world over. His weight is 2,000 lbs., and has as much quality as can be found in the state. Has good bone and feet. His breeding is of the best the world produces. His grand sire was adjudged the best draft horse in the world at the Paris exposition in 1900.

Will make the season of 1909, beginning April 1, 1909, as follows: Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays will stand at Martin Bleck's barn in Union township, half mile south and half mile east of the Bleck church. Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays at the home of Ernst Conrad Root township.

Terms—$15.00, to insure a colt to stand and suck.

All parties breeding mares and parting with them before they are known to be in foal, forfeits insurance. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but will not be responsible should any occur.

THE SOCIAL NEWS

The Contest of the Y. P. C. U. of U. B. Church to Close Tuesday

THE MITE SOCIETY

Masonic Lodge Will Confer the Third Degree Monday

Miss Rowena Shoaf is entertaining the Busy Bee Club this afternoon. Vivian Burk will be an outside guest.

Miss Glenys Mangold is entertaining the G. L. C. Club with games and music at her home on First street this afternoon.

The contest which has been so interesting to the members of the Y. P. C. U. of the United Brethren church will close Tuesday. Several social events have occurred during the contest. The members are all trying to help their side in collecting the most money. Next Tuesday evening the question will be decided at the church. Rev. Imbler will be in charge and will award prizes to the fortunate side. Howard Wischaupt is captain of the White Ribbon following; Mrs. Phillip Miehs of the Blue side.

On Monday evening there will be third degree work at the Masonic lodge, and it will be one of the times which every member will thoroughly enjoy. They have been having some enjoyable sessions lately, and the order seems to be for a continuance indefinitely. The Decatur lodge has been invited and accepted an invitation to Geneva at an early date, and at that time they will give the work. As Geneva is great on entertaining, the boys here are already looking forward to a gala time.

The Mite Society of the Methodist church was entertained by Mrs. J. T. Merryman at her home on Second street. A large company attended. refreshments were served.

Th Ben Hurs met at their hall at the regular meeting last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schirmeyer entertained at dinner yesterday noon in honor of Mrs. W. H. Wiley, Mrs. John Tyndall and son Dan and Emmet Wiley. Mrs. Wiley will return to her home at Marion after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Schirmeyer and other friends for several days.

The first section of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will hold an apron sale in the church parlor on Thursday afternoon, April 8th. Besides a number of all kinds of aprons they will also have a large number of other useful articles which will be disposed of at the same time. The ladies extend an invitation to the public and ask that a large crowd be present.

Mrs. G. T. Burk entertained the Aid Society of the Christian church yesterday afternoon at her home on First street. The president, Mrs. John Fleming, had charge of the program.

Miss Frances Dugan entertained a company of friends at a dinner party Friday evening. The table looked very pretty with red and green decorations; the centerpiece was green ferns, and ferns here and there over the table looked especially attractive. The shade of the lamp was red, and red and green carnations were the favors. The place cards were Mexican Dodac pictures. The dinner was an elegant one. The guests from out of town were the Misses Elizabeth Porter, Clara Porter, Ruth Beer and Sally Vesey, of Fort Wayne, Lucile Locke and Hermencia Wiecking of Bluffton, and Harriett Morrison of Glendale

GRIM FARM SOLD VERY CHEAP
Eighty-Six Acres Brought Only $5,235.

Dore B. Erwin, as commissioner, sold one of the cheapest farms which has been disposed of here for some time, this afternoon, when at the east door of the court house he auctioned the Grim farm, located a half mile north of Monroe. The farm went to Charles Grim for $5,235, about sixty-three dollars an acre, there being eighty-six acres in the tract. The farm is located along the extension of the traction line, and is a very desirable one. Attorney Griner, of Portland, was a bidder on the farm, but quit because he wanted immediate possession which could not be given.

Western Canada the Pennant Winner "The Last Best West"

The Government of Canada now gives to every Actual Settler 160 Acres of Wheat-Growing Land Free and an additional 160 Acres at only $5 an acre. The 300,000 contented American settlers making their homes in Western Canada give the best evidence of the superiority of that country. They are becoming rich, growing from $5 to $50 bushels wheat to the acre, 60 to 110 bushels oats and 45 to 60 bushels barley, besides having splendid herds of cattle raised on the prairie grass. Dairying is an important industry. The crop of 1908 still keeps Western Canada in the lead. The world will soon look to it as its food-pottery. "The thing which most impressed us was the magnificence of the country that is available for agricultural purposes."—National Editorial Correspondence, 1908. Low Railway Rates, good schools and churches, markets convenient, prices the highest, climate perfect. Lands are for sale by Railway and Land Companies. Descriptive pamphlets and maps sent free. For Railway Rates and other information apply to Superintendent of Immigration, Ottawa, Can., or to the authorized Canadian Government Agent.
