BELIEVES

THAT THE TARIFF IS A TAX

Replying to a letter from E. C. Atkins & Co., of Indianapolis, concerning the Payne tariff bill, Charles A. Korbly, representative in congress from the Indianapolis district, has written a letter of which the following is a part:

"Allow me to say that I am not a protectionist in any sense of the word and that I made my campaign by declaring myself on this question with all the insistence and energy I could use. I note with considerable interest what you say concerning the price of saws and the changes that will be made necessary if the rates in the Payne bill are adopted.

"I am not one of those who believe that wealth flows from legislation or wise administration. I believe that legislation can, and in truth, does, interfere with prosperity, but cannot create prosperity. I believe that the tariff is a tax. I believe that taxation is a burden, but that it is a necessary evil; that it is never a blessing, no matter what its guise, and that the measure of the justice of a tax is the equality of its burden and the needs of the government, economically administered.

"I believe, therefore, that the tariff is excusable as a revenue producer, but not otherwise. To levy a tariff for any other purpose is a violation of the rights of property and the natural rights of man, which rights the government cannot give and cannot take away."

The fight over the tariff bill has now been transferred to the senate. Indiana will likely be conspicuous in the debates, as it is announced that Senator Beveridge is going to be active on the Republican side and it is known that Senator Shively will uphold the Democratic view with great ability and enthusiasm. Senator Shively has mastered the tariff question as few men have. During the last campaign the tariff speeches made by him and John W. Kern were model expositions of the Democratic party's position.

James E. Watson still insists that he is coming back to Indiana to practice law. He has served long, faithfully and well and been a pretty good cookoo to Speaker Cannon. That is all, though. Just a plain cookoo. It will not hurt any in the practice of law, but if James still has the itch to break into the governor's office, his record will be a greater nightmare than local option with the county as the designated unit.

THE SOCIAL WORLD

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lammi-man Entertain at Dinner

SOCIETY IS BUSY

After the Lenten Season—Various Lodge and Social Notes

The last literary of the school year will be held on April twenty-third at the high school building. With debates, orations and a prophecy and journal the program will be an excellent one. And to add to the interest of the exercises, the farewell address to the seniors will be given. There are fourteen in the junior class who will be seniors next year. For all those who have gone that far in school together will be sure to graduate next year. Don Burk is president of the class. They are all workers, and most of them will go to college after graduation from the high school. Not satisfied with this achievement, one of the members of the class intends to travel for scientific research. On accomplishing this he will no doubt have earned much honor in the world.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the German Reformed church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bracht on Monroe street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lammi-man entertained their children and a few friends at an Easter Sunday dinner. The occasion was a very pleasant one for every guest. Those present were the following relatives: Messrs. and Mesdames H. H. Lammi-man and son Dan, H. C. Parkison and son Charles of Ossian, H. O. Perner, Monroe, Roy Runyon and son Kenneth and daughter Miss Nellie, and John, Lewis, Ada and Charles Lammi-man. The other guests were Mrs. Mary A. Sackett, Mrs. A. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Birkhart and daughter June, Harlo and John Mann and Ernest Wells.

At the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. Kohn at Willshire on last Thursday evening, April 8th, occurred the marriage of Miss Della Young to Mr. Marion J. Tinkham. Both are well known in Adams county where they live and are highly respected. They have many friends who wish them a happy and prosperous life.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heckman entertained Mrs. Henry Severn and children of Fort Wayne, at dinner today. They will move to this county soon.

A pleasant social evening was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Heller, bridge whist being the chief attraction. High scores were made by several of the players. Those present being Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Archbold and Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Ellingham. A delicious luncheon was served.

The dance last night at the K. C. hall was very successful, since about forty couples were on the floor. The regular meeting of the lodge will be on next Wednesday, as usual.

The Y. P. A. of the Evangelical church will hold a business meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Lachot on Monroe street. The first part of the evening will be used in discussing business followed by a literary program. It will consist of the following: A duet, Miss Vernia Smith and Gladys Kern; vocal solo, Lillah Lachot; song, High School Quartet; piano solo, Electa Glancey. The remaining part of the evening will be spent in a social way.

The special meeting of the Macca-bees will be held on Friday evening instead of tonight as previously announced. Mrs. Brayman, of Dowagiac, Michigan, will remain in the city and attend the Friday night meeting.

The Aid Society of the Christian church will be entertained by Mrs. Jacob Eady on Tenth street. The society has been making several comforts lately. There will be another pastry sale next Saturday for the benefit of the society.

Work in the Master Mason's degree at the Masonic lodge tonight will attract a number of that membership. By the way, the Masons are having a season of degree work and that means some mighty good social times. The meeting tonight will be one of the most pleasant and enjoyable of them all.

ST. MARYS TP. INSTITUTE

The teachers of St. Marys Tp. met April 10, 1906, at Pleasant Mills, Ind. The nine teachers, superintendent and trustee were present, also a number of visitors. The opening exercises were conducted by Miss Winans, after which the members all responded to roll call with quotations from the Bible. The regular work was taken up and proved to be very interesting. The study of "The School and Its Life" was conducted by Bertha Bunner, B. S. Colter and A. C. Spahr, as teachers and using the institute as a class. The topic, "The Relation Between the Home and School" was thoroughly discussed and each teacher expressed their wishes that each patron of our township would feel it their duty to visit the school at least once, and oftener if they can, during each term of school. By this we feel that the patrons may know better and may also inspire the pupils to better work. The topics, "Social Functions of the School and School Laws" were very nicely discussed, showing how the public schools may be used to uplift the social conditions of any community, if all work together in harmony. An outline for "History Work" was given by W. G. Teeple, and discussed by the entire institute. Most all of the teachers gave their plans of teaching history. "The Theory of the English Government" was assigned to A. W. Gulick, O. E. Brodbeck and John Teeple, which was also used as class recitations, too. In the afternoon the institute was favored with some songs and quotations, which was recited in concert by Miss Winans and her pupils. A vocal solo by Dora Davis and instrumental music by Miss Tula Bender. A vote of thanks was given to the teachers of the Pleasant Mills schools for the sumptuous dinner served at the home of Miss Winans. This being the last session of the year shows the attendance of the very best. No teacher being absent during the eight institutes held. The session closed at 4 o'clock, each member hoping that the coming school year will prove to be more successful than the one so near to a close.

Bertha Bunner, Secy.

VINOL CURES CHRONIC COUGHS, COLDS AND BRONCHITIS After Other Remedies Fail

"I have been troubled with a chronic cold and bronchitis for a long time and have tried many remedies without finding relief. Through the kind suggestion of a friend I tried Vinol, and after taking four bottles, am entirely cured." A. H. Wilde, 733-8th Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

S. McDonald, 147 W. Congress St. Paul, Minn., writes: "I contracted a severe cold last winter and thought I would never get rid of it. I tried Vinol as a last resort, and it has completely cured me."
