The Indiana Democratic Club at Indianapolis wants to increase its membership to fifteen hundred right away. It ought to succeed. This club while it is located at Indianapolis, is a state institution. Outside members have all the privileges that local members have. With fifteen hundred members assured, a fine club house will be built at once. It will be a home for every member—open, ready and hospitable at all times. Considering the advantages, the cost of belonging is trifling. The Republicans have such a club and it has been a tower of strength. According to the plans, the Democratic club will be superior to any other now in existence at the capital. Every Democrat who wants to help the prospect along and enjoy the benefits of it, should send in his application without delay.

It occurs to us that since the secretary of the city board of health has issued his orders for a cleaning up of the dirt and filth, that it is no more than fair for the city council to provide some place for the dumping of this refuse. The city is in dire need of a place of this kind, and while they are perhaps not prepared to purchase ground for such use, yet they might arrange for the rental or lease of such a plot of ground.

great work and have compared them with the works of others as I have read their histories and I unhesitatingly say four greater men never lived in any state in this Union at the same time. When we think of these four political giants, two on each side, leading their great parties in their heated conflicts, we are not surprised that the cry would go up all over the country: 'As Indiana goes so goes the Union!'

THE SCHOOL BOARD

Held Regular Session Last Evening—Routine Business Transacted

SALARIES ALLOWED

Enumeration Reported, Showing Increase of Sixty-Eight Over 1908

The regular session of the Decatur school board was held last evening, and the routine business was disposed of. No action was taken on the selection of the teachers, but this will likely be taken care of during the next month or so. The salaries of the teachers were allowed for the month of April, as were also the pay for the four janitors. This requires a very neat pay roll, the total for the teachers reaching $1,660.84 and the janitors $170 making $1,830.84 this sum being expended each school month. A bill of $37.13 was also allowed to J. D. Hale for coal. Dore B. Erwin, the board president, reported the school enumeration as made by the men selected. It totals 1,321 as compared to 1,253 for last year, a gain of sixty-eight. The treasurer was authorized to borrow the sum of $400 at six per cent. interest until July 20th from the Old Adams County bank to be placed in the special fund, this amount being necessary to complete the year's expense and pay for the improvements made last year.

BASE BALL DOPE

The Northern League Treasurer Says the Forfeit Money is Paid in

WANT EIGHT TEAMS

Effort is Made to Interest Lafayette, Elwood or Logansport

The league meeting at Wabash Thursday evening was one of the most enthusiastic of the season, representatives from all the cities now named in the league were in attendance and all were there with the spirit that goes with the organizing of a first class league. As the most important part of the meeting, the treasurer was instructed to deposit the forfeits and today they are in the Huntington County bank. This assures the Northern Indiana league of at least six city circuit. Another matter that was discussed was the feasibility of having more teams in the league before they opened. This was thought to be a good thing and special committees were appointed to visit Logansport, Hartford City, Elwood and Lafayette and ascertain whether those cities would support a team. Last evening the Lafayette manager tried to get word to the meeting that they would accept an offer to enter the league, but owing to the storm he was baffled. As for Elwood, the fans there are literally "crazy" about the matter and will jump at the chance of coming into the league. Logansport has new interest stirred up and already have an independent team established, supported by the business men. At Hartford City the fans are anxious to get into the swim. The object of sending out the committee is to pick out the best of two of the four cities named and offer them a berth in the league that eight cities instead of six may compose the circuit. The representative from Elwood brought out a proposition for the vote of the others concerning deferring the date of opening until Saturday, May 22, in order to give the Elwood management more time to secure a team. Since that city had been notified on short notice that they were to be in the league, it was thought advisable to change the date as requested.—Huntington News-Democrat.

HIS LIFE CRUSHED OUT

he came to Decatur. Mr. Schroelucke will not only be sadly missed by the bereaved wife and children, but by the traction company as well, to whom he has been so faithful during the years he has been in their employ. The mind shrinks from contemplation of such a dire calamity which has befallen the relatives of this young man, and all in all, it is but another evidence of the uncertainty and brevity of human lives. The widow of the unfortunate man is bearing the unfathomable grief incidental to the awful occurrence well, according to reports from the home this afternoon, but words of consolation fail to appease the sorrow to which she has been subjected.
Surviving to mourn the loss of the departed young man are, beside his immediate family, six sisters as follows: Mesdames Anna Wellman, Mary Kuhlman, Sarah Everson, Lydia Hell, Edith Holtkamp and Miss Bertha Schroelucke. The funeral cortege will leave Monday morning at five o'clock via a special interurban car. The sorrowing friends will leave the car at Moulton, Ohio, at 12:30, from where vehicles will convey them to New Knoxville. The services will be conducted from the German M. E. church of that place by Rev. Buckstahler. A special meeting of the local camp of the Modern Woodmen lodge will be held at which time a committee of six will be appointed to accompany the remains to Ohio, and beside these, W. H. and Edwin Fleider, Johann and the former's wife, Albert Katterheirich and several other interurban officials will be on the car. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schroelucke, parents of the deceased, arrived in the city this noon and assisted in making the arrangements. They will return to their home tomorrow.

KIPLING'S AIRSHIP STORY ANTICIPATED.

Writing from Rome to a friend in America, Rudyard Kipling says that the Wrights are ahead of his story, "With the Night Mail," the date of which is 2,000 A. D. Mr. Kipling, by the way, wrote supplementary matter for this story in the way of Aerial Regulations, Answers to Correspondents, Book Reviews, and Advertisements supposedly taken from a magazine of the same future date. But already the London Times has published twice a full page of actual advertisements of Dirigibles and Flying Machines.

The Brown Divorce Case Was Refiled—Complaint is Similar

THE CLERK'S REPORT

Shows Twenty Marriage Licenses Issued During April—The Transfers

The Arbuckle-Ryan Co. vs. David L. Marshall and Margaret Scherry, notes $2,050, separate answer filed by defendant Scherry, also cross complaint; rule to answer cross complaint.

Attorney D. E. Smith filed a new divorce case entitled Bessie Brawn vs. Elmer Brawn. Cruel and inhuman treatment, are alleged. Brawn's brother in Van Wert county murdered his wife and he delighted in threatening Bessie with a similar fate. He also failed to support his family and otherwise abused them. Mrs. Brawn asks the custody of the year old son, $300 alimony and $5.00 per month. She filed a similar case last fall, but a mistake in publishing the notice made it necessary to dismiss and refile the case.

The clerk's report shows that during the month of April an even twenty marriage licenses were issued.

Emaline McCune, admx. of estate of James McCune, filed an inventory, also a petition to sell personal property, both approved.

George D. Brown, executor of the John Brown Sr. estate, filed an inventory, which was approved.

A sale bill was filed of personal property by James M. Archbold, administrator of the estate of Mary J. Beglin, and was approved.

The Aid Society of the Christian Church Met With Mrs. Fleming

OTHER SOCIAL NEWS

The Entre Nous Girls Will Meet Wednesday With Miss Pearl Purdy

The Aid Society of the Christian church met with Mrs. John Fleming Friday afternoon. After the business session was completed, Mrs. Fleming entertained her guests by serving refreshments and by a rebus in a verse of poetry for them to solve. The verses were written on green card tied with purple ribbon, suggestive of spring. The verse which was composed by Mrs. Fleming was as follows:
Verdant is old mother earth,
In the season of your birth,
Of fair nature's fairest dower
Lovely little woodland flower
Emblem of a modest maid,
Truehearted and half afraid.

Mrs. Jacob Eady was successful and was the first one to solve the rebus. The answer was Violet, the first letter of each line spelling the word.

The Entre Nous girls will meet next Wednesday with Miss Pearl Purdy. A program will be prepared for the meeting.

Little paper baskets of pink and white and green and white, the club colors, filled with violets, were hung on the doors of the Euterpean Club members last night. These baskets looked very pretty and inside the violets was on invitation which read thus:

On Monday eve the third of May
With the music section try to be gay
With fun and frolic and picnic frocks
Join us at Patterson's at seven o'clock,
From there, to Tyndall's will wend
our way,
And enjoy the first picnic of May.
This May Day party promises to be a happy affair. The music section of the club is giving the party.

NOTICE, WOODMEN.

All members of the Woodmen lodge are requested to meet at the hall tonight in special session for the purpose of selecting a committee to accompany the remains of the late Ben Schroelucke to Ohio. It is important that every member be present. The meeting will begin at seven o'clock.
