Decatur stores were never so well stocked, and Decatur merchants were never so well prepared to take care of their trade as they are this spring. It is needless, in fact utterly useless, for Decatur or Adams county buyers to invade other markets for the purchase of anything to eat or wear. Adams county is the best county on the face of the earth, and Decatur is the best town in the universe. The way to preserve it, and the way to make it grow and still further prosper is for every booster to be a booster. The first essential is to patronize Decatur merchants, and as they prosper the city prospers.

Editor Gordon, of the Richmond Item, is wise in some things but not in all things. He is the author of the best written editorials that appear in any of the many Indiana newspapers, and he is a shining star in the profession of journalism. He concluded that he ought to be mayor of Richmond, and sought the nomination of his party for this preferment. The primary election was held Monday and he headed the list of aspirants at the tall end. Editor Gordon should have known better—in fact any ordinary newspaper man would have known better than to have gone against a game of this kind.

THE TENTH ANNUAL

Commencement Exercises of the Geneva High School Last Evening

A GREAT PROGRAM

Banquet Served at the Masonic Hall and a Gala Time Was Had

Geneva, Ind., May 4.—The tenth annual commencement of the Geneva high schools was held last evening at the M. E. church, and long before the time came for the class to make their appearance, the church was crowded to the doors with the friends of the class and of the schools. Prof. D. S. Colter of Purdue university, made the principal address, his subject being "Problem Worth Solving." The address was a masterful piece of oratory and it was appreciated and applauded from the time he began to speak until he closed. The first speaker for the class was Miss Leah Miller, and the address to the class was given by Miss Hazel Barr, and they both acquitted themselves in a pleasing manner. The program at the church was followed by a banquet at the Masonic hall with Miss Grace Snow as toastmistress, and who spoke from the subject "Greetings." The response was made by Miss Leah Miller. Other speakers were Mrs. A. P. Hardison whose subject was "Killing Time," Rev. Graves "Filling Time," Prof. Colter "Who's Who," Miss Hazel Macklin "What's What," Supt. Robert Poer "When Knighthood was in Flower," Mrs. Pfau "The Magic Ring," the program closing with the benediction by Rev. Graves. Every speaker of the evening was splendid, and applause greeted them nearly all the time. The banquet was served by the Pythian Sisters, it being served in four courses and afterwards it was admitted that it was the swiftest function ever given in Geneva. The Geneva schools are unexcelled and this fact was never better known to the friends of the school than it is today. Robert Poer the superintendent, and Mrs. Pfau the principal of the high school, are splendid instructors and under them the schools have made great progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Cramer went to Bluffton on the noon train today.

A PLEASANT PICNIC

OTHER SOCIETY NEWS

Surprise Party Was Held at Home of Jno. Hook in Blue Creek

The music section of the Euterpean Club gave a picnic party last night to the other members and their guests at the home of Mrs. John Tyndall. The jolly crowd of sylvan merry-makers met at the home of Mrs. J. C. Patterson and when all had arrived, escorted by the drum corps they marched to Mrs. Tyndall's residence, where they were entertained delightfully during the evening for they were going to enjoy an hour or two. The verdant woods, leafy boughs of different kinds and a profusion of green vines and plants were very attractive. Here the guests visited the "Lemonade stand" and "lover's retreat" and the peanut and candy stand and then had their fortunes told. In the parlor a stage was erected and there, after a May day program, the May Queen, Miss Marie Patterson, was crowned. The May pole was pink and green and white, the club colors, and the company all joined hands and sang in honor of the May Queen. The program was as follows:

"America".....By the class
"Greeting".....Mrs. Patterson
"Dewdrops".....Mrs. Schirmeyer
Duet.....Marie Patterson, Midge Smith

The ladies of the music section when they went to the dining room to the feast, appeared in white dresses with pink and white hats, and looked very pretty. During the evening games were played and music filled the woods.

GENEVA IS NOW DRY

First Time that Geneva Was Saloonless Since 1863

NEWS OF GENEVA

Many Things of Interest in the Southern Metropolis

Geneva, Indiana, May 4.—Geneva is now a dry one. The last saloon and that was owned and operated by John Pitts, went down and out last night, his license having expired and he is out all ways. Some time ago Wabash township was remonstrated dry, and on top of that, Adams county got the fever and voted the county dry. It is the first time since 1863 that Geneva has suffered the drought of having no place where a person could wet his whistle. In that year Isaac Pink-houser secured a license and sold bad whiskey in the old frame building where Wells Bros. undertaking business is now conducted. Mr. Pink-houser now lives in Marion.

Mrs. George Calkins was operated upon Sunday for the removal of a tumor from her neck. The operation was performed by Dr. Graham, and by skill and knowledge of surgery, the operation was a success, a tumor being removed which was about the size of a hen egg. Mrs. Calkins suffered no ill effect of the operation, and her many friends hope that she will speedily recover, and that the recovery will prove permanent.

A few days ago Miss Olive Wheeler tried an old experiment, but with no new results. She was starting a fire in the furnace, using some oil, and when the match was applied there was something doing in the immediate vicinity of that furnace. Miss Wheeler suffered from badly burned hands and arms, and the presence of her mother on the scene at the right time, saved any further injury.

Clarence Glendenning, an eight years' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Glendenning, and Miss Hattie Martz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Martz, are both suffering from inflammatory rheumatism in an aggravated form. Under the care of Dr. C. R. Price they are showing an improvement and their many friends hope they will fully recover.

There are two weddings scheduled for this week in Geneva, but we are sworn to the secret, and have given the promise that mum's the word. All of them are prominent in Geneva society, and have friends innumerable, who will wish them all the happiness that is going.

It Tastes Good and Creates Strength

Vinol

the famous cod liver and iron medicine, without oil. Vinol is much better than cod liver oil and emulsions, because, while it contains all the medicinal value they do, it disagrees with no one. As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, after sickness, and for stubborn coughs and colds Vinol is unequalled.
