

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

You Will Use it to make Delicious Hot Biscuit—tempting, appetizing, light, wholesome. Makes the best food to work on—the best food to sleep after. No alum; no fear of indigestion.

WEATHER.

Generally fair tonight and Wednesday; slowly rising temperature.

Loose Handling

of your money is the carrying of it on your person or having it in your home where it is subject to all sorts of dangers from fire, burglary, etc.

With a checking account your money is safe—both from theft and the temptation to spend that you undergo by carrying it.

This is just one of the many virtues of a checking account with us.

OLD

Adams Co. Bank

SPECIAL PRICES

For this week will be given on

Carpets, Rugs, Lace Curtains, Linoleums, Window Shades

In fact everything in the line of house cleaning will be thrown out to you at a special inducement. We quote a few prices below.

All 30c Carpet 26c	All 60c Carpet 49c
All 40c Carpet 29c	All 70c Carpet 59c
All 50c Carpet 39c	All 80c Carpet 64c

Window Shades

36in. wide, 7ft. long 22c	45in. wide 7ft. long 75c
48in. wide, 7ft. long 98c	54in. wide 7 ft. long 1.25

We cordially invite your inspection. If you are not acquainted with our carpet and rug department we will be only too glad to quote prices

M. FULLENKAMP

Miss Franke Ridge, of Fort Wayne, returned to her home.

Mrs. W. W. McQueen returned to her home north of the city today.

Jay Elzey went to Fort Wayne this morning to attend to business matters.

Miss Nell Brown, of Willshire, went to Fort Wayne on the one o'clock car.

George Kinzle went to Berne, where he is looking after important business.

Bertha Kinney left today for Portland, where she will visit for a few days.

Mrs. S. E. Hurlless, of Willshire, went to Fort Wayne to spend several days.

Mrs. Grace Meredith, state commander of the Lady Maccabees, is in the city today.

Marguerite Moran went to Portland, where she will spend a few days with friends.

Louis Bentz returned to his home at Fort Wayne after a visit with friends in the city.

Mr. John Elting returned to his home at Minster, after visiting for some time in the city.

Eugene Runyon returned last evening from Linn Grove where he attended to business matters.

Miss Leslie Frisinger of Fort Wayne, returned to her home after a visit with relatives at Wren.

Herbert and Frank Bremerkamp went to Minster, Ohio, where they will visit for a few days with relatives.

J. E. Moser is at Fort Wayne this afternoon attending a called meeting of the Cuban Land & Investment company.

Miss Clara Shultz of Fort Wayne, was called home by a message received this morning to be at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Henry Shultz, who is critically ill at her home.

Smith Brothers, of Rochester, have arrived in the city and will take charge of the blacksmith shop, corner Jefferson and First streets. Their families will take up their abode in this city.

Miss Lulu Beachler is suffering from an accident which occurred a few days ago. In a fall the ligament of her ankle was torn and causes much pain. Lulu is able to go to school.

Charles Merryman, auditor of the Paragould & Memphis railroad, with headquarters at Paragould, is here for a few days' visit with his parents, Judge and Mrs. J. T. Merryman. He is in excellent health and seems to be prospering in the southwest.

Ex-County Auditor W. A. Marsh and family have moved from Kokomo, Ind., and the state capital will be their future home. The report received here is that Mr. Marsh will be employed in Indianapolis with a trust company.

Miss Gladys Bowers went to Fort Wayne this morning on business.

Mrs. George Shefferstein returned to her home at Monmouth this morning.

P. J. Hyland went to Fort Wayne this morning, where he will transact business.

Mrs. O. S. Fortney returned to her home at Pleasant Mills, after shopping in the city.

Mrs. S. E. Eddington went to Fort Wayne this morning to visit with relatives for several days.

Mrs. J. E. Dryden returned to her home at Atlanta, Ohio, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Augsburg, of Berne.

Mrs. John Tison came from Decatur Saturday to visit with her daughter, Mrs. L. P. Long and Mrs. L. D. Wolfcale.—Bluffton News.

Miss Nettie Schannepp, of Hoagland, who has attended school here this year will close her work here this week and on the 18th of the month will go to Valparaiso where she will take a business course.

Miss Annoti Dailey went to Willshire today to attend the commencement exercises. Commencement is on the sixth and the junior reception on the 5th. Several other Decatur people will attend.

Miss Amara Zerkle returned to Fort Wayne.

Mrs. Martha Dutcher was in the city today.

Ed X. Ehinger went to Fort Wayne this morning.

L. C. Hughes went to Bluffton today on business.

Mrs. Caroline David returned from a visit at Bluffton.

Mrs. A. C. Gregory went to Fort Wayne to spend the day.

Julius Haugk went to Fort Wayne this morning on business.

Mrs. Nina Godey, of Fort Wayne, returned home last evening.

Miss Dorothy Ervin went to Fort Wayne today to spend the day.

Edwin Fledderjohann made a business trip to Monroe this afternoon.

Miss Mabel Winans, of Pleasant Mills, is in the city shopping today.

Harry Ward and wife went to Fort Wayne today to spend the afternoon.

P. W. Smith, of Richmond, transacted business in Fort Wayne today.

Mrs. Harvey Daniels, of Pleasant Mills, was shopping in the city today.

Miss Marie Daniels, of Preble, is visiting with her aunt, Miss Margaret Daniels.

Mrs. C. A. Dugan and daughter Naomi went to Fort Wayne this afternoon.

Ell Meyers went to Berne this afternoon where he is transacting important business.

Miss Agnes Radamacher went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day with friends.

George Steele returned last evening from Hillsdale, Michigan, where he transacted business.

M. E. Brackett and wife went to Fort Wayne on the one o'clock car to spend the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walters have returned to Williams, where they visited with friends for several days.

Mrs. Homer Andrews returned to Lagrange after a visit in the city with J. A. Steele and family, west of the city.

Mrs. Henry Hoebel, of Fort Wayne, returned home after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Barney Meyer and her brother, Henry Elting.

The Christian Endeavor of the German Reformed church will meet with Miss Della Sellemeyer this evening. Business of importance will be transacted, and all members are urged to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Morris, of Warsaw, were married May 1, 1843, sixty-five years ago, and they are believed to be the oldest married couple in the middle west. Mr. Morris is 88 and his wife is 84, and both are enjoying good health.

The party from Decatur who attended the funeral of Ben Schroelucke at New Knoxville, Ohio, yesterday, arrived home at eleven o'clock last evening. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in that section, many not being able to get into the church.

Mrs. David Ochsenrider, who was kicked by a horse at her home Saturday morning, recovered consciousness Sunday morning and the attending physician now gives good hopes for her recovery, although her condition is serious at the present time.—Bluffton Banner.

Mrs. Jessie E. Luttman, has been appointed postmistress at Magley, where she and her husband, Mr. Ed Luttman, are conducting a general store, and are prospering. They have succeeded Mr. Robert Case there. The appointment was included in the list sent out from Washington yesterday.

The management of the Wawasee Inn at Wawasee lake has arranged for the establishment at the Inn this summer of a health resort similar to that of William Muldoon on the Hudson river in New York, where wealthy prominent business men, worn out and run down by business worries or dissipation, are taken in hand and after a course of treatment are sent back to work in the best of condition.

But for the fact that neighbors discovered the blaze it is probable that the home of Frank Hedges, one-half mile east of Nottingham, would have burned to the ground Sunday noon. The entire roof was ablaze when neighbors saw the fire and ran to the home to notify the occupants. By quick action Mr. Hedges, assisted by several nearby residents, managed to put out the flames with only the loss of the roof.—Bluffton Banner.

A fellow sees some funny sights as he makes the rounds after news each day. This morning we passed the Page Blackburn drug store and there in front we beheld Pat Parrish handling a window brush, actually working. As this is a gross breach of professionalism among newspaper men we challenged him and he plead guilty and actually dared us to mention the fact in the paper. Pat says he needed the money, and Mr. Blackburn needed the windows washed, so they compromised and there you are. It's awful.

R. K. Allison went to Fort Wayne on business this afternoon.

Miss Mae Radamacher went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

Ed W. France, of Pleasant Mills, went to Fort Wayne this morning on business.

Fred Kinne returned to Fort Wayne. While here he enjoyed a visit with relatives near Geneva.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Archbold entertained a few friends at bridge whist last evening, and, of course, the hours slipped by rapidly.

Mrs. J. E. Heffner and children, of Fort Recovery, returned to their home today after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Forbing.

"South Bend World Famed" is the slogan of South Bend. It was selected from among 1,500 suggestions that were offered in the contest conducted with the assistance of the South Bend papers, by the board of directors of the chamber of commerce.

The funeral services for Mr. Ezra Cowan, of Bobo, were held at 9:30 o'clock this morning from the Methodist church in that place and were attended by a large number of friends. Mr. Cowan lived here nearly his entire life and had a large acquaintance and many warm friends.

Frank Wemhoff has accepted a position as chief bookkeeper at the Decatur Filler factory and began his duties there Monday. He will have full charge of that department and has already entered into the work with a vim that shows he will have his system in good working order.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

Avon Burke has written to his mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke, concerning the mad dog scare at Bloomington. Almost every chapter house of the fraternities have a dog. During the last few weeks one of the dogs went mad, and two young men were bitten. For a time there was great excitement for the doctors were alarmed and at one time there were twenty taking treatment, who were afraid they were getting hydrophobia. The scare has subsided now as nothing serious resulted.

AT COST LESS MONEY

To wear Tailored to order clothes, than it does ready-to-wear clothing, made for nobody in particular.

CLOTHES MADE TO PERSONAL MEASURE

Are superior pattern, excellence of workmanship and individuality of style and out wear "Store Clothes" almost two to one that is when made by

CHRIS MEYERS, The Tailor.

135 South 2nd. St. Decatur, Ind.

19 DAYS MORE

Must Get Out of Business

All Goods must be sold at a Great Sacrifice

1/2 DISCOUNT

On all gallons or quart goods such as the famous Kenwood, Monticello Club, Solo Rye, Gins, Wines and Cordials, all good for medical purposes.

Get your supply now before too late.

"CURLEY"

Mrs. C. N. Lang, Letta Lang and Vera Ehinger left today for Minster, where they will visit with friends for a few days.

Every member of the degree staff of the Rebekah lodge are urgently requested to be present at their regular meeting this evening. The lodge is invited over to Linn Grove on May 14th, and will give part of the degree work, which will be discussed this evening.

Thus far Governor Marshall has accepted only two invitations extended to him to make commencement addresses this year. He will go to Terre Haute to make such an address at St. Marys-of-the-Woods, June 15, and to Winona academy, May 26. He will also speak at Purdue university May 29, on the occasion of the annual Memorial day observance by the institution.

FALLING HAIR is the forerunner of baldness. If you wish to prevent it, start in now to use and see how quickly the new hairs will begin to come in; good strong healthy ones too. The old hairs will stop falling out, and dandruff, the cause of baldness, will disappear. Then you will have a head of hair to be proud of.

Hay's Hair Health

IS NOT A DYE.

$1 AND 50c. BOTTLES, AT DRUGGISTS.

Hay's Hairline Soap cures Eczema, red, rough and chapped hands, and all skin diseases. Keeps skin fine and soft, 25c. druggists. Send 3c. for free books, "The Care of the Skin," "The Care of the Hair."

Philo Hay Spec. Co., Newark, N. J.

HOLTHOUSE DRUG CO.

Sure Drop Two Horse Planter

The Drop is the Edge-drop type

It is the latest and best Planter

The SURE DROP is a light, Strong Durable Hill and Drill drop planter. The manner in which it is built insures Perfect and accurate work.

SOLD AND WARRANTED BY

LAMAN & LEE