

The Daily Democrat

Published Every Evening, Except

Sunday, by

LEW G. ELLINGHAM.

Subscription Rates

Per week, by carrier.....10 cents
Per year, by carrier.....$5.00
Per month, by mail.....25 cents
Per year, by mail.....$2.50
Single copies.....2 cents

Advertising rates made known on application.

Entered at the postoffice at Decatur, Indiana, as second-class mail matter.

J. H. HELLER, Manager.

The election of Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House, Chicago, as president of the national conference of charities and corrections for 1910 is significant. It is the first time in its thirty-six years of existence that the organization has placed a woman at its head, and the election of Miss Addams was unanimous. It is a recognition not only of Miss Addams' own personal service, but of the fact that along these social-economic lines of philanthropic effort woman is a worthy co-worker with man. The general secretary of the conference is Alexander Johnson, of Fort Wayne. No more worthy or more efficient selection could have been made for this position—South Bend Times.

The Citizens' Telephone company wants several operators. Inquire of the manager or chief operator. 138-31

Breakfast Sense.

Overloaded Stomachs Make Poor Workmen.

Health is a state of normal, spiritual, mental and physical function. It has a definite physical symptom, the chemical equilibrium of the blood and organic secretions.

That is the assertion of authority. With the stomach over-loaded with food that sours and is hard to digest the blood is loaded with the sour acids and gases, the head aches, the nerves are shattered, bowels disordered, and ill health reigns supreme.

Can one be pleasant, industrious, capable, and efficient? The remedy is simple—wholesome food, open air, exercise and right thinking. Often the right kind of breakfast means a splendid day's work with head and hand.

A bad breakfast means a day of nasty temper and unsatisfactory results. Start the day right with E-C Corn Flakes or Egg-O-See Wheat Flakes served with good milk or cream. Always ready to serve—crisp and delicious. If you haven't already eaten them—you've missed something good—order today and you'll not regret it.

Remember it is only the famous Egg-O-See process that makes E-C Corn Flakes and Egg-O-See Wheat Flakes so delicious and healthful.

XTRAGOOD

CLOTHES FOR BOYS

hold their shape and their wear through so much more banging about that, tho' in the beginning, they seem to cost no less, in the end they are far cheaper than clothes which seemed cheaper on the price tag.

All XTRAGOOD clothes are cut extra full and made extra strong. The knee-pants are lined all through—built with the "Seat of Wear" which not only makes them fit better, but also give double service.

Holthouse Schulte Company

SCENES AT MUNICH

(Continued from page 1.)

Graf Tearigotti so we decided to see it, if possible. The Graf is a genial sort of chap, and when our cards had been received inside, after much ceremony, we were shown the whole building from attic to wine cellar. It certainly was interesting to us, this old castle of the 13th century, which with a few restorations, is exactly as it was then. The furniture alone would have set an antique collector crazy, and the brasses, old pewter, china and copper fairly made me gasp. Bryce would have been interested in the secret passages and trap doors old weapons, spears, guns, etc., I know. The Graf is a young man and with his wife and little son lives in this place. He owns nearly everything round about mountains and all, and has fitted up the castle with every modern convenience, hiding it under antiquity. Hot and cold water in all the baths, etc., and all the old hanging candlesticks wired with electricity. We felt we were quite fortunate to see this castle.

SOCIETY COLUMN

Mrs. Jesse Sutton Entertained the Ladies' Aid of Presbyterian Church

THE HOLY GRAIL

Misses Faye and Norah Smith to Entertain House Party

The Holy Grail will hold a very eventful meeting tonight. Their members will be entertained by the Queen Esthers in the best of style. Each knight will bring a guest, and a pleasant time will be enjoyed.

A house party that promises many days of pleasure this summer for all the guests will be the one given by the Misses Faye and Norah Smith at their home in the south part of the city. Some of the guests will be from a distance.

A family reunion and Sunday dinner party will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bowmans west of city, and it promises to be very pleasant, as reunions always are. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Baumgartner will be among those who will attend.

The Aid Society of the Presbyterian church enjoyed its meeting at the home of Mrs. Jesse Sutton yesterday afternoon and report a good business meeting as well as social.

The Y. P. A. of the Evangelical church will hold their meeting as usual next Sunday. John Garard will lead. The lesson is from "Pilgrim's Progress," the sixth chapter—The Hill Difficulty. Everybody is welcome at the service.

Mr. and Mrs. U. E. Cramer will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Gus Broadbeck and Troy Cramer, of Ossian, at dinner Sunday.

Miss Bessie Shrock entertained the Thimb Club this afternoon very pleasantly at her home on Rugg street.

AUTO RACES BEGIN

(Continued from page 1.) and drive around the course seventeen times. The experts say it will be finished by 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Troy Cramer will arrive tomorrow night from Ossian.

PORTLAND, MAINE, CHILD

III, Weak and Emaciated, Restored to Health by Vinol

"Our little daughter, six years of age, after a severe attack of the measles, which developed into pneumonia, was left pitifully thin, weak and emaciated. She had no appetite, and her stomach was so weak it could not retain food. She lay in this condition for weeks, and nothing the doctor prescribed did a bit of good, and we were beginning to think she would never recover.

"At this time we commenced to give her Vinol, and the effect was marvelous. The doctor was amazed at her progress, and when we told him we were giving her Vinol, he replied, 'It is a fine remedy, keep it up.' We did so, and she recovered her health and strength months before the doctor thought she could." J. W. Flagg, Portland, Me.

Vinol cures conditions like this because in a natural manner it increases the appetite, tones up the digestive organs, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body.

Smith and Yager, Druggists

We are going to try a sleeping car to Vienna tonight. Vienna they say is the most beautiful city in the whole world, so now that we have decided to move on, I am anxious to get started. Otto has just come in with his daily offering of flowers, this time they are lilies of the valley, and he says it is ice cream time, so I will stop. With love from both of us, CARRIE.

A BOY, SAYS ARTHUR SUTTLES

Mr. Arthur D. Suttles, bookkeeper at the Old Adams County bank, is stepping mighty high these days, and when the fact is mentioned, he smiles and says "A fellow has a right to step high when he owns as fine a looking boy as we do." The son arrived Wednesday, is handsome and healthy and his name is Arthur Daniel Suttles. The entire family is recovering.

DR. FOWLER HERE

Man Who Traveled in Polar Regions Was Here Today

IS VERY INTERESTING

He Told Briefly of the Experiences Incident to Trip

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Decatur visitor, and testified in the famous Taylor-Studabaker case. While here he related briefly of his long trip in the company of Walter Wellman to the extreme northern portion of the world. The gentleman visited Spitzbergen and made headquarters for some time in Norway. While in the north Dr. Fowler witnessed the much talked of midnight sun and many other scenes upon which the eyes of any individual would love to feast. He states that the trip, though attended by adventures at several times, was a delightful one, and one which was a source of much information relative to the customs and traits of people in the north. It is indeed interesting to hear the doctor delineate the many experiences which befall the party, and his memory of the different incidents is remarkable. Dr. Fowler has traveled very extensively during his life and has acquired much valuable information in regard to the country as a whole.

145-2t

Dr. W. N. Fowler, of Bluffton, and decidedly well known over the country by virtue of his extensive expedition to the polar regions was this morning a Dec