J. H. HELLER, Manager.

The last legislature, on the recommendation of Superintendent Whittaker and Governor Hanly's visiting committee, appropriated $20,000 for a new dining hall at the Jeffersonville reformatory. Dr. Peyton, the new superintendent, says that a new dining hall is not needed. This $20,000 therefore will be saved and is one result of the change of management at the institution. Money is also being saved at the reformatory in other matters without lessening the efficiency of the institution.

From the tone of recent issues of the Cromer-Hawkins press of this district, the national inference is that this twice defeated remnant of the party has held some sort of a convalesce somewhere and still exhibits symptoms of life. At this early date they are endeavoring to cast insinuations at Congressman Adair and later on they may be expected to again attempt to gain control of the district organization and name the candidate to be nominated next year. It seems hard for them to yield to public will.
—Portland Sun.

Republican papers manifest considerable animosity toward Governor Marshall for the reason that he has been investigating the management of public institutions in the state and has found irregularities existing in some of them. These sheets think that the "irregularities" should be overlooked and that it is altogether wrong to force men out of positions with suspicions hanging over them. That is too bad. These very sympathetic papers may console themselves by remembering that a number of republican office holders in the state have not been forced out and no suspicions are entertained about them. No republican official whose record will bear investigation will have any reason to complain of anything Governor Marshall may do. The man who is doing his duty is perfectly safe.—Columbia City Post.

FILLER BUILDING

Will Be Ready for Occupancy Within Ninety Days

A BIG CONCERN

Masons Will Begin Work of Laying Blocks Soon

A large force of workmen are busily engaged in the construction of the new Decatur Filler company building which will be erected just west of the G. R. & I. railroad between Madison and Jefferson streets and it is thought by the promoters that the building will be ready for occupancy within ninety days. The concrete foundation of the mammoth structure will be finished within a day or two and then J. D. Bollinger will, with his men begin laying the cement blocks for the building proper. The concern is to have every appliance which will add to the convenience of the firm and it will be a credit to the city when completed. It will be 100 feet by 230 feet in dimensions, with the various departments partitioned from each other in a way that will prevent confusion. The offices will be located in the southeast corner of the structure. The Decatur Filler company, whose affairs are being successfully conducted by Messrs. Vail and Ehinger, is one of the most promising institutions in our city. They will employ one hundred men when operating at full force, and this is a great factor in the business interests of the town.

THE PICTURE SHOW HARVEST ON

This is great weather for the air-dome and picture men. These evenings are just right and every place in town is doing a lively business. It's a great way to pass an hour or two and its a study how this entertainment has boomed since inaugurated only two or three years ago. There are many people right here in Decatur who never miss an evening going to the show, and there are many others who go two to four times a week. One learns many interesting things from these pictures and there is nothing immoral in the way they are conducted here.

The fact will no doubt be appreciated that on tonight at Maple Grove park there will be a dance in the pavillion there. This announcement is intended for those who would enjoy the tripping of the light fantastic.

THAT GREAT FAIR

Arrangements Going Forward for the Great Northern Indiana Fair

PROSPECTS ARE GOOD

Looking Over Some Good Speed—A Great Exhibit

The management of the Great Northern Indiana Fair Association are busy these days contracting with privileges, looking after entries, getting a line on fast speed, and otherwise doing those things that will make the Great Northern the best ever happened in Adams county. T. H. Baltzell the president, and E. B. Adams secretary, are certainly doing their part to make the fair the greatest success ever. And from indications now to be seen they will not be disappointed and neither will the thousands of visitors to the beautiful grounds at Steele's park on the dates of the fair. D. W. Beery and E. B. Adams will go to Muncie and Montpelier on Thursday to land on some good and swift speed who will battle for honors and a good fat purse. They have their eyes on a string of speedsters that will make the best of them go some, and by the latter part of next month everything will be in fine fettle for the best exhibition ever given here. In all this the people of Adams county should feel a just pride. We should all help the association and make it a success, and this means especially every inhabitant of this city.

CHAIN RESTORED

A Truthful Fish Story is Source of Much Amusement

MR. J. L. KOCHER

Pulled Off a Great Feat as a Fisherman Recently

A fish story, but not a fishie one, emanating from most reliable sources has during the past few days caused no little comment on the streets of our city. To catch a two and one-half pound carp, place it on a chain, liberate it and catch it again with chain still firmly fastened is a feat not often accomplished and one which will fade into insignificance all fish stories which have recently been told in Decatur, but this is just what J. L. Kocher, of the Decatur Lumber company did. About two years ago Mr. Kocher and George Massonee sought recreation on the banks of the St. Marys, where they engaged in teasing the finny tribe. Kocher tiring of the tedious task without results, decided to suspend the pastime. He left the chain which had been especially made by Peter Mougey for the holding of fish after captured in the care of Massonee who afterward gave it to his son. The son went fishing and caught a carp. It was a big fellow and he placed it on the chain, securing the chain in the bank. In some manner the carp escaped with the chain. Last week Mr. Kocher went to the river and had scarcely anchored his boat when the cork of his tackle disappeared from view. He drew in the line and to his great astonishment he lifted into the boat that same carp with the chain still attached. If there are any who have any better than this to tell and be truthful about it, let's hear from them.

Ed Buckmaster went to Cleveland today on business.

Dr. Homer Sowers returned from the picnic after eating his dinner at the park, and reports a splendid time.

THE DEPOSITS ARE SWELLING

The news from the Tocsin bank just opened a week ago, is the kind that makes the owners of stock in that institution feel good. The first day ended with deposits of five thousand dollars, and each day since have increased over five hundred dollars. Tocsin is a good business point and the people there are tickled over the establishment of a bank, and judging from the business they are doing, its institution came just in the nick of time.

COURT HOUSE NEWS

Bonds for Three Macadam Roads Have Arrived at Auditors Office

LOW RECORD MARK

On Marriage Licenses This Month—County Officers Are Figuring

The bonds for the Sherman Glendinning, August Walters and the Lohsiger macadam roads, the latter on the Adams-Wells county line, have arrived and the board of commissioners have been called for tomorrow for the purpose of affixing their signatures to the documents.

The county officers are getting their figures in shape for the annual estimates which have to be made next month, and which are for the expense budget for next year. The labor of making these estimates is not a small matter, and will cause the officers to be careful in their calculations.

The collection of delinquent taxes at the treasurer's office is not very rushing at the present time, but many promises are being made for after harvest. Treasurer Lachot will push these collections at that time.

Of all the marriage license records in old Adams county, this month looks as though it would establish a new record.

A BUSY AFTERNOON

One Hundred Fort Wayne Ladies Being Entertained Here

A PLEASANT TIME

Guests of the Ladies' Aid Society of the German Reformed Church

Thirty-two Fort Wayne ladies are taking Decatur by storm this afternoon and evening. They are members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the St. John's and the Salem Reformed churches of Fort Wayne and they are here as the guests of the Ladies' Aid Society of the German Reformed church of this city. They came by special car on the Fort Wayne & Springfield and were at once escorted to the home of Mrs. C. Vogt, where the afternoon and the evening are being spent in a purely social way, and where the Decatur ladies are making their guests feel the true spirit of Decatur hospitality. With the hosts perhaps one hundred and fifty ladies are assembled together, and that in itself means one of the best times going. Refreshments were served at the Vogt home and this feature was not overlooked in the making of a happy time for the visitors. The Decatur ladies have many times been visitors at Fort Wayne, and the event today is but a return of the many courtesies received. It is a safe bet that the Fort Wayne ladies will return with many pleasant memories of this afternoon and evening spent with the ladies of the German Reformed Aid Society, and of Decatur in general.
