PARENTS ARE HOME

William Parent, Family and Mrs. Coon Return from Colorado

LAST EVENING

They Had a Great Time—
Visited with H. A. Hartman and Family

After a three weeks' sojourn in scenic Colorado, William Parent, family, and Mrs. Lucinda Coons returned last night to old Decatur. The party left here three weeks ago and after making a short visit in Denver proceeded to Boulder, where they were the guests of H. A. Hartman and family. They witnessed many of the historical spots in Colorado while gone, and on July eighteenth, while Decatur people withered before the intense heat, they played snow ball on a mountain near Boulder, which has an elevation of twelve thousand feet. To reach the height of the mountain they were compelled to travel twenty-four miles by rail. Last Friday the Hartmans and Parents prepared to go to a picnic near Mt. Sanitas and were well on their way when a cloudburst drove them to shelter. It was indeed fortunate that they had not started a half hour sooner, as three people were drowned at the very place they had planned to visit. Mr. Parent states they had the time of their life and he reports the Hartmans doing well in Boulder. Prof. Hartman is at present teaching in a summer school at a handsome salary.

SOCIETY COLUMN

will meet at the church between the hours of two-thirty and three o'clock.

The social to be given by the Young Peoples' Alliance of the Evangelical church this evening promises to be a very delightful affair. Besides ice cream, home made cake, candy and popcorn will be served. Should the weather be inclement it will be postponed until tomorrow evening. The society are arranging to royally entertain those who come.

Mrs. Florence DeVilbiss will be the hostess at a dinner party this evening, her guests being the following ladies: Mesdames J. C. Patterson, W. H. Nachtrieb, Catherine Niblick, Margaret Daniels and A. R. Bell.

Mrs. John Glancey gave a family dinner party today for her brother, Peter Meyer. The gathering was in the nature of a farewell to Mr. Meyer who leaves for his home in Colorado City in a few days. His father, Abraham Meyer, and brothers, John D. and Eli Meyer, and wives, were present.

The members of the Epworth League have planned a picnic which will occur some day next week at Steele's park. Just what day will be decided tomorrow. They will invite all their friends, and the picnic promises to be a happy event.

Miss Marie Allison pleasantly entertained several friends at a gathering at her home last night in honor of the Misses Veda and Madge Ward, who will soon leave the city. With music the evening passed quickly. Cards were in order and proved interesting, and the few social hours spent altogether were very enjoyable. In a few days the guests of honor will go to Petoskey for the summer. The party last night was in the nature of a farewell. Those who attended were the Misses Veda and Madge Ward, Frances Dugan, Vane Weaver, Glen Falk and Francis Gast.

NOTICE.

All unpaid water rentals and the different street and sewer assessments are now due and payable at the city treasurer's office. The penalty for delinquents is severe. Please call and avoid unnecessary expense.

Everything in the line of collars, bags, belts, etc., can be found at The Racket Store. 170-6t

LEAVES THE CITY

Decatur people are loath to lose the companionship of this estimable family, and their best wishes will accompany them to their new place of abode.

Prof. E. E. Rice, the newly appointed superintendent of our schools, was in the city this morning in search of a house in which to move his household goods. Mr. Rice now resides at Mulberry, Indiana, but has his goods packed ready to move to Decatur as soon as a suitable residence can be secured. Prof. Rice will be warmly welcomed to our city.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their help and flowers given us during the death of our loving sister and daughter, Mrs. Mary Durr. Mrs. Sam Chronister.

Band and Orchestra—Welcome Address by Abner S. Elzey

Ossian, Ind., July 29.—The announcement that the 160th Indiana volunteers would hold its annual reunion in Ossian this year, started the people to making elaborate preparations for the event. The K. of P. cornet band, with its thirty well trained musicians, has been engaged for the occasion. An orchestra has also been procured. Mr. Chris Meyers, Decatur, Ind.

Dear sir:—The suit received O. K. I am more than pleased with the fit and that you are up-to-date. I always had the best tailors in Lima to make my clothes and paid much more for them than you asked me. I paid you $42.00 for my suit but if I could not get another one that fits me as well as the one you make for me I positively would not take $50.00 for it. I am more than pleased.

Yours Very Truly
