GREAT AMERICAN WONDER

THE ONLY

Five Legged Horse

That was ever born that lived at

THE STAR AIRDOME

The most curious feature is that it is a natural hind leg, two and one-half feet long, and is located on top of the head, coming out between the ears. The leg is well formed, with hock joint, fetlock and hoof, the same as any other leg. The horse is 9 years old, broke both single and double, and will work in any kind of harness, heavy or light, and weighs 1,100 pounds.

300 feet of illustrated films, and 2 illustrated songs at the Airdome tonight.

First film—A Priest of the Wilderness—Father Jogue's Mission to the Iroquois. Second film—The Wartime Sweetheart. Third Film—Scenes of the Battlefield of Gettysburg. Two illustrated songs.
