

Your newspaper account for the month of August is now due at City News Stand.

City News Company,
Will Hammell, Mgr.
PHONE 39

WEATHER FORECAST

Fair northern showers south portion tonight or Wednesday.

FREE EXHIBITION

At the Corner of
Monroe & 2nd St.
TONIGHT
First Show at 7 o'clock, 2nd.
Show at 8 o'clock.
Everybody is Invited.

Dr. Fred Patterson
DENTIST
Successor to Dr. C. E. Neprune
Office above Auth's Jewelry Store.
Telephone No. 472.
Office hours: 8-12 a. m., 1-5 p. m.

WHY WASTE?
your earnings through thoughtless and more or less indiscriminate spending when by opening a checking account with us you can put a stop to the leaks and really save—not by stinting but by a little care.
The saving feature of a checking account is but one of a hundred others.

OLD Adams Co. Bank

The Little Palace

LIVERY STABLES AND FEED BARN

East Jefferson, St., Decatur, Indiana.

New Rigs and Everything Up-to-date.

Satisfaction guaranteed if you deal here. When you need a rig of any kind, we would be glad to hear from you and promise you courteous treatment and good service.

Clement J. Keller, Prop.

Frank Parents went to Defiance, O., today.

John Moran made a business trip to Fort Wayne.

Miss Marie Allison went to Fort Wayne this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Rice are spending the day in Fort Wayne.

Miss Rose Gates went to Fort Wayne last evening to visit friends.

Mrs. Ada Richards went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

W. L. Guilfoyle, of South Bend, is in the city today looking after business.

William Judy, of Geneva, went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

Mrs. C. J. Lutz went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend several days with friends.

Henry Koenemann went to Williams where he will look after the cattle market during the day.

Harmon Bosse returned to Fort Wayne this morning, after a few days visit in the city with his parents.

Mrs. R. B. Allison went to Oden, Mich., where she will spend some time at her cottage at that place.

Peter Englesmith of Marion, changed cars here this morning and took in the excursion to Traverse City, Mich.

Bernard Brake returned to his work at Ossian after attending the funeral of his father which was held yesterday.

Miss Margaret Moran is spending a few days with friends at Geneva. She was accompanied by little Helen Moran, a daughter of Mr. John Moran.

The dance given last evening at Maple Grove park was attended by a goodly number of young people and all seemed to amuse themselves very much.

Mrs. Bernard Feldhouse and Nicholas, returned to their home at Cincinnati today, after being in attendance at the funeral of Mr. Harmon Brake.

Mrs. Chas. Brown returned to Indianapolis this morning after attending the funeral of her father, Mr. Harmon Brake, which was held yesterday.

Several people from here took advantage of the excursion to Michigan this morning and will spend a few days or weeks in that flourishing country.

Albert C. Hirschey went back to Huntington today after attending the Hirschey family reunion at Berne. Mr. Hirschey is an employee in a wholesale paper house and printing office at that place.

Rev. Vernon went to Evansville this morning, where he will make a few days' visit with his parents and will then go to Smith Mills, Ky., where he will conduct a revival meeting for two weeks.

There will be a called meeting of the Y. P. C. E. at the U. B. church tomorrow evening to complete plans for the trip around the world to be given next Tuesday evening at the new parsonage.

Frank and Wm. Gillig of south of the city took in the excursion to Potoskey, Mich., this morning and if things are satisfactory will try and invest in some of the timber business. They will be gone at least two weeks.

Mrs. D. M. Hensley will return home this afternoon from Rome City after spending the summer there. She will be accompanied home by Mr. Hensley, who went there to arrange things in shape for the coming winter.

Postmaster Frisinger reports the following unclaimed letters at the post-office: Miss Laurie Bammerger, George C. Curtis, D. E. Denise, Will Johnson, C. J. Hartley Co., Edward J. Miller, Miss Francis Murphy, Paul Rayran, Mrs. Carl Palmer, Robert N. Steele and S. F. Welker.

Mr. D. M. Niblick has returned from New York, where he spent a week buying his fall and winter stock of cloaks, suits and other merchandise for the Niblick & Co. store. He informs us that he bought heavily and that his store will soon have some of the best and prettiest styles ever seen in this city.

Dr. C. V. Connell left this morning for Chicago, where he will spend the balance of the week attending the sessions of the American Medical Society of Veterinarians. Dr. Connell has given close application to his profession for several years, and this recreation and vacation will be used to brush up his already wide knowledge of his profession.

The Jennings Oil company holdings in Illinois have been bought by the Ohio Oil company for between $3,000,000 and $4,000,000. The deal includes 11,000 acres of leases, about 250 producing wells with a daily production of 8,000 barrels of oil and eighteen steel tanks. This is the deal that was feared by independent and smaller producers as they think in controlling this large production it will enable the Standard to close down the field until such time as it needs the oil.

Velma Shroll has returned from a visit at Fort Wayne.

True Fristoe went to Fort Wayne this morning on business.

Shafer Peterson is transacting business in Fort Wayne today.

Misses Rose and Emma Schlickman are spending the day in Fort Wayne.

A. N. Steele went to Monroe, where he has been working for the past few days.

Chas. Colter is attending to business at Greenville today for the Smith & Bell Lumber Co.

John Schug returned on his regular trip south this morning and will be gone for several days.

Anna and Al Volmer returned from Toledo last night where they have been visiting for the past week.

Dr. Sowers made his regular weekly trip to Bryant and Portland this morning and will return home this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Macklin were at Geneva over Sunday guests of Mr. Macklin's mother and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ella Smith of Marion, passed through the city this morning on her way to Traverse City, Mich., where she will make a few weeks' visit.

What is now the city of Logansport had its first postoffice on January 9, 1828, with Hugh B. McKean as postmaster, and the place was known as Elmer River. In August of the same year the name was changed to Logansport.

Edward Kennel, a young farmer northeast of Kendallville, was in the Baltimore and Ohio railroad wreck near Newcastle, Pa., in which four persons were killed and thirty more injured. Mr. Kennel escaped with a few slight bruises.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

Arch Gordon, who was arrested several months ago with his paramour, Stella Mettler, in a barn on the Adams estate, pleaded guilty in the court of Mayor Hamilton this morning, paying a fine of ten dollars and costs. At the time of the arrest he advised Stella to plead guilty to the charge against her but stated that he would fight the charge. After this he went away, but later returned and this morning concluded to get the old charge wiped off from the docket.—Bluffton Banner.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the office of the secretary of state for the Indiana Northwestern Traction company, organized to build, equip and operate an interurban railway from Hammond to Lafayette. The incorporators are William Brucker, Curtis D. Meeker and Jacob L. Timmons, all of Monticello; George Goff, Rensselaer, and George A. Haskell, of Chicago. The concern is capitalized at $50,000. No declaration of the proposed route of the line was filed with the petition for a charter. The central offices of the concern will be at Monticello.

Howard Fox of Markle, put powder in a stove to clean out a chimney flue, and in the explosion Fox received a bad bruise on the forehead where a section of the stove struck him, as well as the loss of part of his hair and most of his eye-brows.

NEW FALL SUITS
FALL OVERCOATS
AND RAIN COATS
Now Ready for You
HOLTHOUSE, SCHULTE AND CO.
Good Clothes Sellers for Men and Boys

Rev. J. A. Beaton, of the Christian church at Warsaw, has announced his resignation.

The Marion fair made some money and will be able to pay off a portion of its indebtedness.

E. E. Hammel, who was attending to business affairs in the city yesterday, returned to his home at Geneva last evening.

Gertrude, the 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Austin, near Mishawaka, has been missing for several days and it is feared she has been stolen by a band of gypsies encamped near the place.

A. P. Moste, city councilman at Garrett, against whom five or six "blind tiger" indictments had been standing for months charging him with illegal sale of liquor, entered a plea of guilty to three of the charges in court at Auburn and paid fines and costs aggregating $239.75. Two remaining charges against him were dismissed. Moste was a brewery agent at Garrett when the city went "dry."

Crystal Theatre

The Newest Shows,
The Best Films,
Courteous Treatment.

TONIGHT
Entire Change of Program Each Evening

Orchestra every Night

IT'S 5 CENTS
W. P. BIGGS, PROP.

DIVIDENDS OF SATISFACTION

To be a bank customer means that you receive the benefit of the bank's experience and facilities.

To be a customer of The First National Bank means to you that you have at your command the experience and judgment of our officers, the careful personal attention of our officers to your business needs and every advantage that a bank can give you.

To invest in our bank service, to become a customer, means that you get dividends of satisfaction at the very start and all the time.

We want you to accept our service.

FIRST National Bank
DECATUR, INDIANA

Wouldn't It Be Nice

To receive the highest prices for your produce. If so stop in at

LEHMAN & SPRUNGER
MONROE, INDIANA

FATIMA TURKISH CIGARETTES

20
for 15c

Best in the Long Run

Fatima Cigarettes afford continual enjoyment to many thousand cigarette smokers, year