Song and piano recital at the library hall on Thursday evening, September 23rd, by Miss Moses and Mr. Tucker. Many lovers of good music in Decatur are looking forward to this event with anticipations of a most delightful evening. Admission twenty-five cents.

Fred Lesh will leave tonight in company with G. T. Markley for a trip to Missouri and Arkansas. Mr. Lesh has sold his 80 acre farm in Union township to W. J. Morley, of Illinois for $8,000. He goes west to prospect and may decide to buy western land.—Bluffton News.

A sentry while on duty was bitten by a valuable retriever, and drove his bayonet into the dog. Its owner sued him in the county court for its value, and the evidence given showed that the soldier had not been badly bitten after all. "Why did you not knock the dog with the butt end of your rifle?" asked the judge. The court roared with laughter when the sentry replied, "Why didn't he bite me with his tail?"

Dr. George Knorr, one of the inspectors at the Decatur packing house, until recently, will leave here with his family Tuesday morning, for Albert Lea, Minn., where they will make their future home. Mr. Knorr has been assigned to work there similar to that here, being placed in an old established packing house. Doc is anticipating some great fishing during his idle hours, as there are three good lakes near the town.

Judge and Mrs. E. C. Vaughn and Mrs. William Patten arrived home today from Oden, Mich., where they have been spending several weeks. While they were spending their outing the past few days they were visited with quite a snow storm, and decided that it was time to come south again. There are, but few of the Bluffton colony at Oden left and within a short time the residents will again be back in this city to spend the winter.—Bluffton Banner.

The voting machine company which is trying to sell machines to Wells county, was in Bluffton again today to see officials here. The county council this week refused an appropriation of $13,000 for the purchase of machines so that it looks like a waste of time for the agent to be here. He is still seeking to have the machines given a trial here at the coming city election, but city officials do not incline to have the machines used, even though the company offers free use of machines.—Bluffton News.

Bischof Developments of Merovingian Modes

Styles instantly adopted by fashionable dressers

THE new medieval styles mean the long waistline both in coat and skirt and the return to curves, but to curves so long, slender and graceful they are a delight.

Besides the interest their novelty gives these Moyen Age or Merovingian styles, they have a charm, a beauty which will carry them over several seasons. They admit of infinite variety.

Descriptions can't give you the effect of these garments. To get the best idea of the styles for Fall, come in and see our exhibit now.

They are the prettiest models shown this fall. Made in quaint Renaissance shades, violet, raisin, catwba, etc., their simplicity relieved by reproductions of rare old trimmings, they are fairly irresistible.

You can easily find something individual, original and wholly becoming.

We are showing particularly good models in broadcloth serges, homespun, etc.

Ask for our Bischof Style Book. It gives you the latest style news and shows types of all the different styles that will be worn this season. Mailed on request.
