

NEW STOCK OF Moore's Modern Methods of Loose Leaf Record Keeping

ALL KINDS OF BOOKKEEPING ALL KINDS OF BUSINESS

Merchants, Professional men, Factories, Agencies, Bankers, Mechanics, etc. Let us show you the system with its different forms.

HOLTHOUSE DRUG CO.

WEATHER FORECAST

Fair tonight with light frost in north and central portion; Friday fair.

Davis Daily is attending the Holstein cattle sale at Berne this afternoon.

Mrs. F. M. Addington went to Portland today and will spend Sunday with her parents.

D. M. Hensley, of this city, went to Rome City this afternoon, where he will enjoy a few days of fishing.

There is an excellent bunch of new magazines at the city newstand. Get one for over Sunday. New ones have just arrived today. Stop in and look them over.

The Little Johnny Jones company arrived last evening and they will be seen at the Bosse this evening by a large crowd. They actually carry sixty people.

Mrs. J. C. Patterson and Marie went to Winchester today and will spend Sunday with her parents, S. O. Irvin. They will also attend a social gathering there on Monday evening, a club which Mrs. Patterson attended when a girl.

Dr. Fred Patterson
DENTIST
Successor to Dr. C. E. Neptune
Office above Auth's Jewelry Store.
Telephone No. 472.
Office hours: 8-12 a. m., 1-5 p. m.

THE ONE SURE WAY

to make your money grow—open a savings account.

Not only will it increase steadily at 3 per cent. without any effort on your part but it will be the best practical protection against future adversity and panic.

OLD
Adams Co. Bank

GIRLS WANTED

We need Girls or Women to do sewing at the factory.
Please call at once if you want work.

WARING GLOVE COMPANY

M. J. Tyndall went to Van Wert this morning on business.

Abe Boch went to Berne to transact business during the day.

Sam Doak went to Piqua, Ohio, for a few days' visit with friends.

Miss Lucy Stimmel, of Van Buren, returned to her home this noon.

Christ Meyers will go to Lima, tomorrow, to spend the day with friends.

L. Nafer, of Willshire, made a business trip to Fort Wayne this morning.

J. D. Berry went to Berne in the interest of the Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette.

Mrs. L. G. Ellingham and daughter Winnifred, went to Fort Wayne this morning.

Miss Emil Baumgartner went to Berne this morning to spend the day with friends.

They are moving their household goods to Decatur and will make this their future home.

John Powell, son of Rev. and Mrs. Sherman Powell, returned this morning to Michigan.

David Bodle, went to Mexico, Ind., today to visit his children, who are in the orphans home.

Fred Hoffman returned home today from Lynn, Ind., where he is engaged in doing some work.

T. C. German, of Glenmore, O., passed through the city today enroute to Fort Wayne.

D. O. Steele, of west Monroe street, returned today from Auburn to spend Sunday with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reitz went to Fort Wayne this morning and will spend the day with friends.

Miss Rose Sether went to South Bend this morning and will spend a few days with relatives.

P. G. Williams went to Geneva this morning and will have charge of the Mose studio during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, of Geneva, were in the city for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Merry.

Mrs. M. V. B. Archbold, of Fort Wayne, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Edge yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Goshorn, of Ossian, will visit with Mrs. Goshorn's aunt, Mrs. C. J. Weaver over Sunday.

Guy Boone, of Marion, is the guest of his brother, Vane Weaver. He will leave in a day or two for Phoenix, Arizona to make his future home.

Miss Margaret Moran, Cecilia and Bertha Kinney and Margaret Clark will go to New Corydon tomorrow and spend the day with friends in the country.

Mrs. C. W. Wert, of Portland, who has been visiting in the city with her sister, Mrs. Lydia Bollman, for several days past, returned to her home this morning.

Have you heard George M. Cohan's latest march, entitled "Popularity"? It has the real Cohan swing and will be popular with lovers of terpsichorean art this winter.

James DeWitt is moving from the south part of town to Decatur. Mrs. DeWitt left at noon and Mr. DeWitt will follow this evening. He is a plumber by trade.—Bluffton Banner.

Anti-saloon forces in DeKalb county have determined to petition for a local option election in that county the latter part of November and the committee in charge has begun active work to that end.

Joseph R. Swartz has bought the rights for Adams county for the Perfection churn, said to be one of the best on the market. It is being used by a number of people in the county and they are all pleased with it.

Rev. F. H. Verner, of the Christian church returned this morning from his vacation. Preaching services will be held as usual every Sunday at the church. Everybody is cordially invited to attend tomorrow's services.

S. J. Durbin of Pleasant Mills, is going to hold a sale in a few weeks and dispose of his farm possessions in preparation to moving to North Dakota. His brother John will also move there and they both will make that place their future home.

Huntington County Coroner R. Q. Taviner is suffering with a bad infection that has started in one of his fingers. The pain has affected the entire arm and it is with great difficulty that he uses it. He is of the opinion that the infection was started as the result of a scratch. He has placed himself under the care of a surgeon. Mr. Taviner formerly lived at Liberty Center.—Bluffton News.

Ed C. Miller has sold his farm of one hundred acres four miles south of Bluffton to James L. Turner, of Champaign, Ill., for $13,000. This is one of the fine farm homes in the county, and is indebted for L. T. Strowe, a son-in-law of the purchaser, who will remove here and take possession March 1. Mr. Miller has not yet decided upon his future, but it is to be hoped that he will continue as a resident of Wells county.—Bluffton News.

Miss Winnifred Johnson is spending the day in Fort Wayne.

John Walford returned this morning to his home at Monmouth.

Kadel Meibers went to Rome City today for a six weeks' outing trip.

Mrs. Wesly Huffman went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

Harmon Bosse is still very sick and his condition is very slow in improving.

A. R. Bell went to Portland today on business for the Smith and Bell Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Steele went to Fort Wayne today to stay over Sunday with friends.

Mart Lord, of Monmouth, was in the city today shopping and returned home on the afternoon car.

George Tricker from east of the city is looking after business at Berne and will return home this afternoon.

Appropriate services will be held tomorrow at the different churches and the public are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Presdorf, of Woodburn, Ind., arrived in the city from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Henneford for a few days.

Fred Reppert returned home this morning after an absence of several weeks, during which time he has been holding some very good sales.

Mrs. Jacob C. Miller and son Richard left today for Huntington, where they will visit for a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Will Nix and other friends.

Miss Bessie Boyers went to Jacksonville, Ill., this morning, where she will enter a girls' college for the coming year. She was accompanied as far as Fort Wayne by her parents.

This is ideal autumn weather, just crisp enough to put sprightliness and elasticity in your step. But it won't be long until the coal man will be getting his due.

The last service in the old Christian church at Angola will be held Sunday, and the building will then be razed to make way for the new church to be erected.

St. Bernard's Catholic church at Wabash will establish a parochial school in the basement of the church building, which will be used until a building can be erected.

Caught in the act of snatching a purse from a little girl by Mrs. Warren Terwilliger, of Nappanee, a pickpocket was nabbed by the officers of the Bremen fair grounds and landed in the Plymouth jail.

Willard Z. Smith, postmaster at Churubusco, was fined $1 and costs for assault and battery upon James B. Burwell, aged 16, son of a Lutheran Place Memorial church at Washington, D. C. The young man has recently been stationed at Lancaster, Ohio.

F. C. Dailey has received a letter from Frank Cotton, who is serving time in the Huntington county jail, charged with passing a bad check, in which he wanted to know all about his old friends in Bluffton and about the street fair which was held here last week. Mr. Dailey was the attorney for Cotton.—Bluffton Banner.

Anti-saloon forces in DeKalb county have determined to petition for a local option election in that county the latter part of November and the committee in charge has begun active work to that end.

Joseph R. Swartz has bought the rights for Adams county for the Perfection churn, said to be one of the best on the market. It is being used by a number of people in the county and they are all pleased with it.

Rev. F. H. Verner, of the Christian church returned this morning from his vacation. Preaching services will be held as usual every Sunday at the church. Everybody is cordially invited to attend tomorrow's services.

S. J. Durbin of Pleasant Mills, is going to hold a sale in a few weeks and dispose of his farm possessions in preparation to moving to North Dakota. His brother John will also move there and they both will make that place their future home.

Huntington County Coroner R. Q. Taviner is suffering with a bad infection that has started in one of his fingers. The pain has affected the entire arm and it is with great difficulty that he uses it. He is of the opinion that the infection was started as the result of a scratch. He has placed himself under the care of a surgeon. Mr. Taviner formerly lived at Liberty Center.—Bluffton News.

Ed C. Miller has sold his farm of one hundred acres four miles south of Bluffton to James L. Turner, of Champaign, Ill., for $13,000. This is one of the fine farm homes in the county, and is indebted for L. T. Strowe, a son-in-law of the purchaser, who will remove here and take possession March 1. Mr. Miller has not yet decided upon his future, but it is to be hoped that he will continue as a resident of Wells county.—Bluffton News.

John Walford returned this morning to his home at Monmouth.

Kadel Meibers went to Rome City today for a six weeks' outing trip.

Mrs. Wesly Huffman went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

Harmon Bosse is still very sick and his condition is very slow in improving.

A. R. Bell went to Portland today on business for the Smith and Bell Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Steele went to Fort Wayne today to stay over Sunday with friends.

Mart Lord, of Monmouth, was in the city today shopping and returned home on the afternoon car.

George Tricker from east of the city is looking after business at Berne and will return home this afternoon.

Appropriate services will be held tomorrow at the different churches and the public are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Presdorf, of Woodburn, Ind., arrived in the city from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Henneford for a few days.

Fred Reppert returned home this morning after an absence of several weeks, during which time he has been holding some very good sales.

Mrs. Jacob C. Miller and son Richard left today for Huntington, where they will visit for a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Will Nix and other friends.

Miss Bessie Boyers went to Jacksonville, Ill., this morning, where she will enter a girls' college for the coming year. She was accompanied as far as Fort Wayne by her parents.

This is ideal autumn weather, just crisp enough to put sprightliness and elasticity in your step. But it won't be long until the coal man will be getting his due.

The last service in the old Christian church at Angola will be held Sunday, and the building will then be razed to make way for the new church to be erected.

Caught in the act of snatching a purse from a little girl by Mrs. Warren Terwilliger, of Nappanee, a pickpocket was nabbed by the officers of the Bremen fair grounds and landed in the Plymouth jail.

Willard Z. Smith, postmaster at Churubusco, was fined $1 and costs for assault and battery upon James B. Burwell, aged 16, son of a Lutheran Place Memorial church at Washington, D. C. The young man has recently been stationed at Lancaster, Ohio.

Anti-saloon forces in DeKalb county have determined to petition for a local option election in that county the latter part of November and the committee in charge has begun active work to that end.

Joseph R. Swartz has bought the rights for Adams county for the Perfection churn, said to be one of the best on the market. It is being used by a number of people in the county and they are all pleased with it.

Rev. F. H. Verner, of the Christian church returned this morning from his vacation. Preaching services will be held as usual every Sunday at the church. Everybody is cordially invited to attend tomorrow's services.

S. J. Durbin of Pleasant Mills, is going to hold a sale in a few weeks and dispose of his farm possessions in preparation to moving to North Dakota. His brother John will also move there and they both will make that place their future home.

Huntington County Coroner R. Q. Taviner is suffering with a bad infection that has started in one of his fingers. The pain has affected the entire arm and it is with great difficulty that he uses it. He is of the opinion that the infection was started as the result of a scratch. He has placed himself under the care of a surgeon. Mr. Taviner formerly lived at Liberty Center.—Bluffton News.

Ed C. Miller has sold his farm of one hundred acres four miles south of Bluffton to James L. Turner, of Champaign, Ill., for $13,000. This is one of the fine farm homes in the county, and is indebted for L. T. Strowe, a son-in-law of the purchaser, who will remove here and take possession March 1. Mr. Miller has not yet decided upon his future, but it is to be hoped that he will continue as a resident of Wells county.—Bluffton News.

John Walford returned this morning to his home at Monmouth.

Kadel Meibers went to Rome City today for a six weeks' outing trip.

Mrs. Wesly Huffman went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

Harmon Bosse is still very sick and his condition is very slow in improving.

A. R. Bell went to Portland today on business for the Smith and Bell Lumber Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Steele went to Fort Wayne today to stay over Sunday with friends.

Mart Lord, of Monmouth, was in the city today shopping and returned home on the afternoon car.

George Tricker from east of the city is looking after business at Berne and will return home this afternoon.

Appropriate services will be held tomorrow at the different churches and the public are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Presdorf, of Woodburn, Ind., arrived in the city from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. George Henneford for a few days.

Fred Reppert returned home this morning after an absence of several weeks, during which time he has been holding some very good sales.

Mrs. Jacob C. Miller and son Richard left today for Huntington, where they will visit for a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Will Nix and other friends.

Miss Bessie Boyers went to Jacksonville, Ill., this morning, where she will enter a girls' college for the coming year. She was accompanied as far as Fort Wayne by her parents.

This is ideal autumn weather, just crisp enough to put sprightliness and elasticity in your step. But it won't be long until the coal man will be getting his due.

The last service in the old Christian church at Angola will be held Sunday, and the building will then be razed to make way for the new church to be erected.

Caught in the act of snatching a purse from a little girl by Mrs. Warren Terwilliger, of Nappanee, a pickpocket was nabbed by the officers of the Bremen fair grounds and landed in the Plymouth jail.

Willard Z. Smith, postmaster at Churubusco, was fined $1 and costs