

TOLEDO CARNIVAL 5¢ CIGAR

DELIGHTFULLY GOOD

Now on sale at the following dealers

Holthouse Drug Co., Page Blackburn, Smith & Yager,
C. Radamacher, Jacob Martin, T. C. Corbett.

WEATHER FORECAST

Fair tonight and Tuesday.

Miss Esther Baker spent Sunday in Fort Wayne.

Marvin Myrant went to Winches-ter today on business.

Miss Frances Ward spent Sunday at Craigville visiting friends.

Frank Burns and Scott Ellis went to Geneva on business this morning.

Omer Butler went to Berne to re-sume his school duties for the coming week.

Percy Williams, the photographer, returned yesterday morning from Geneva.

Mrs. Ben Baxter returned Saturday evening from a visit with friends at Bluffton.

Cal Miller went to Geneva this morning to transact business during the day.

Dan Beery is attending to busi-ness at Berne and will return on the evening train.

Dr. Fred Patterson

DENTIST

Successor to Dr. C. E. Neptune

Office above Auth's Jewelry Store.

Telephone No. 472.

Office hours: 8-12 a. m., 1-5 p. m.

THE ONE SURE WAY to make your money grow—open a savings account.

Not only will it increase steadily at 3 per cent. without any effort on your part but it will be the best practical protection against future ad-versity and panic.

OLD
Adams Co. Bank

GIRLS WANTED

We need Girls or Women

to do sewing at the factory.

Please call at once if you want work.

WARING GLOVE COMPANY

Ed Bailey left on his regular trip today.

C. Kintz went to Monmouth on busi-ness today.

Henry Good made a business trip to Hoagland today.

Don Quinn returned home last evening from a trip to Fort Wayne.

Kit Cowan, of Bobo, made a busi-ness trip to Fort Wayne today.

Miss Ida Mayer of Huntertown, re-turned to her home this afternoon.

Martin Gordon of Fort Wayne, spent Sunday with Decatur friends.

Miss Dora Hower went to Shummon, O., today for a short visit with her aunt.

Mrs. Andy Kline, of east of the city, who has been quite sick, is much better.

Miss Ruth Ballmeyer, of near Monroe, spent Sunday with friends at Fort Wayne.

Miss Mae Radamacher is recover-ing from illness, and will soon be able to be up.

C. C. Ernst was a visitor at Lima, Ohio, yesterday, combining pleasure and business.

Mrs. Ellis Ford, of Muncie, will arrive in the city this evening for a visit with friends.

Louis Daem, of Bluffton, returned to his home today after transacting business in the city.

Miss Bertha Voglewed is spending the day with Fort Wayne friends.

Miss Ruth Miller is spending the day at Fort Wayne with friends.

Mrs. Jackson, of Ossian, spent Sun-day with her sister, Mrs. Noah Loch.

Harry Starr, of Bluffton, spent Sun-day the guest of Miss Florence Sprung-er.

Mrs. Sadie Cowly and Mrs. L. B. Brokaw are spending the day in Fort Wayne.

Christ Meyers returned home from Lima, where he spent yesterday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ehinger are the happy parents of a girl baby who arrived Saturday evening.

P. W. Smith, of Richmond, trans-acted business in the city and has returned to Fort Wayne.

Tomorrow is election day in this city and the candidates are busy lining up for the last effort.

John Weber, who has been at Fort Wayne for the past few days, re-turned to the city yesterday.

Mrs. C. M. Sutton, of near Will-shire, went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

Harmon Colchin and Otto Wemhoff spent Sunday at Fort Wayne and re-turned home last evening.

Mr. W. J. Smith, of Ossian, was in the city today attending to business and returned to his home this afternoon.

The Lose & Thomas cigar store is undergoing a painting process which makes it much more neat and up to date.

Rev. D. O. Wise went to Fort Wayne to attend the convention which is to be held this evening and to-morrow.

Misses Ida and Edwina VanCamp spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. VanCamp. Mr. VanCamp is in the hospital.

Miss Marguerite Walters went to Berne today after spending Sunday with her parents. She is teaching school near that place.

Margaret Clark and Bertha and Ce-cilia Kinney and Margaret Moran re-turned from New Corydon, where they spent Sunday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Presdorf re-turned to their home at Redkey after a short stay in the city with Mr. and Mrs. George Henneford.

Mrs. E. B. Kern, Miss Anna Winnes and Mrs. Fred Schaefer went to Fort Wayne this afternoon and will be in attendance at the convention this evening.

The Decatur Shamrocks defeated the Decatur high school yesterday by the score of 13 to 4 in a very unevenly matched game. Another game will be played in the near future.

Miss Helen Walters had a copy this morning of Decatur's first newspaper, "The Citizen." It was published at the time of the war, and as regular paper was too dear to buy at that time it was published on wallpaper.

After the war the paper was printed on ordinary paper, as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brackett and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dugan enjoyed a delightful automobile trip to Rome City, Waterloo and Auburn yesterday arriving home late last evening.

Mr. John Shanks who has been vis-iting with his father-in-law, Mr. H. S. Porter, for the past two weeks, returned to Minneapolis this morning where he will look after some busi-ness affairs.

Mrs. Brobst, of Cattawissa, Pa., has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Harriet Brandyberry for several weeks. They will soon go to Chicago to visit the daughter of Mrs. Brandyberry, Mrs. Lucy Frye.

Ben Garard spent Sunday in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gerke went to Fort Wayne today.

George Meyers made a business trip to Bluffton today.

Miss Leah Houser went to Will-shire to visit friends.

Mrs. Eliza Dilling went to St. Marys, O., today to visit friends.

Mrs. Caroline Rost is at Fort Wayne today, where she teaches.

Freeman Everett made a business trip to Bluffton this morning.

Rev. D. O. Wise is attending a con-vention in Fort Wayne today.

Leo Sprunger who is attending col-lege at Fort Wayne, was in town over Sunday.

Miss Anna Winnes and Mrs. Fred Schaefer went to Fort Wayne this afternoon.

Eltie Hawk from east of the city, went to Fort Wayne for a visit with her sister.

Frank Schultz returned home from Fort Wayne, after a short stay there with friends.

Leo Yager left this morning on the train south to resume his work on his regular trip.

O. P. Schug returned home from Berne after spending Sunday there with his parents.

Mack McKenna, of Wren, was in the city yesterday and returned to his home last evening.

John Bollinger and force of men left this morning for Berne for an-other week of mason work.

E. H. Kilbourne went to Fort Wayne this morning to resume his regular line of business.

John Glancey is doing some rail-road work at Portland and will return home this afternoon.

Miss Vera Purdy returned to her home this morning after a visit with L. H. Purdy and family.

Von Murray and Tracy Nelson and Dick Peterson attended the show at the Majestic last evening.

The typhoid patients south of the city are still in serious conditions, but on their way to recovery.

Within the last week three deaths occurred in St. Marys church, and twenty-three so far this year.

Miss Blanche Bergerman returned to Germantown, O., after a visit with her sister, Mrs. William Foreman.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Daniels, of Rivarre, was in the city yesterday and spent Sunday with her parents.

Miss Ella Menefee, of Dunkirk, who has been visiting relatives here and at Berne, returned home today.

L. M. Andrews, of Poneto, who was in the city visiting relatives, re-turned to his home this afternoon.

P. A. Haskell transacted business in the city this morning and has re-turned to his home at Van Wert.

Miss Adaline Gerber who has been visiting relatives at Rivarre, returned to her home at Fort Wayne today.

C. M. Clark, of near Wren, re-turned to his home this morning, af-ter attending to business in the city.

The city band will meet this evening at their hall and every member is earnestly requested to be present.

Mrs. B. J. Terveer and Mrs. R. J. Holthouse went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day with friends.

Mrs. Percy Williams will entertain the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church at her home Friday af-ternoon.

Misses Ada and Bertha Barnett of Ohio City, formerly of this city, who have been visiting here, returned home today.

A girl baby was born Sunday morning to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Schafer and the household is accord-ing very happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carroll en-tertained Mr. and Mrs. Milt Stowe, of Napoleon, O., at dinner yesterday and during the day.

If you don't receive your paper ev-ery evening on time, notify this of-fice and we will trace up the cause and pay better attention to the fu-ture.

Mr. Elisha Reynolds and sons, Gert, Joel and Lew, went to Monroe this morning, where they will commence work on a big cement sidewalk con-tract which they landed.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brackett and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dugan enjoyed a delightful automobile trip to Rome City, Waterloo and Auburn yesterday arriving home late last evening.

Mr. John Shanks who has been vis-iting with his father-in-law, Mr. H. S. Porter, for the past two weeks, returned to Minneapolis this morning where he will look after some busi-ness affairs.

We want you to accept our service.

Ed Bailey left on his regular trip today.

Henry Good made a business trip to Hoagland today.

Don Quinn returned home last evening from a trip to Fort Wayne.

Kit Cowan, of Bobo, made a busi-ness trip to Fort Wayne today.

Miss Ida Mayer of Huntertown, re-turned to her home this afternoon.

Martin Gordon of Fort Wayne, spent Sunday with Decatur friends.

Miss Dora Hower went to Shummon, O., today for a short visit with her aunt.

Mrs. Andy Kline, of east of the city, who has been quite sick, is much better.

Miss Ruth Ballmeyer, of near Monroe, spent Sunday with friends at Fort Wayne.

Miss Mae Radamacher is recover-ing from illness, and will soon be able to be up.

C. C. Ernst was a visitor at Lima, Ohio, yesterday, combining pleasure and business.

Miss Bertha Voglewed is spending the day with Fort Wayne friends.

Miss Ruth Miller is spending the day at Fort Wayne with friends.

Mrs. Jackson, of Ossian, spent Sun-day with her sister, Mrs. Noah Loch.

Harry Starr, of Bluffton, spent Sun-day the guest of Miss Florence Sprung-er.

Mrs. Sadie Cowly and Mrs. L. B. Brokaw are spending the day in Fort Wayne.

Christ Meyers returned home from Lima, where he spent yesterday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ehinger are the happy parents of a girl baby who arrived Saturday evening.

P. W. Smith, of Richmond, trans-acted business in the city and has returned to Fort Wayne.

Tomorrow is election day in this city and the candidates are busy lining up for the last effort.

John Weber, who has been at Fort Wayne for the past few days, re-turned to the city yesterday.

Mrs. C. M. Sutton, of near Will-shire, went to Fort Wayne this morning to spend the day.

Harmon Colchin and Otto Wemhoff spent Sunday at Fort Wayne and re-turned home last evening.

Mr. W. J. Smith, of Ossian, was in the city today attending to business and returned to his home this afternoon.

The Lose & Thomas cigar store is undergoing a painting process which makes it much more neat and up to date.

Rev. D. O. Wise went to Fort Wayne to attend the convention which is to be held this evening and to-morrow.

Misses Ida and Edwina VanCamp spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. VanCamp. Mr. VanCamp is in the hospital.

Miss Marguerite Walters went to Berne today after spending Sunday with her parents. She is teaching school near that place.

Margaret Clark and Bertha and Ce-cilia Kinney and Margaret Moran re-turned from New Corydon, where they spent Sunday with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Presdorf re-turned to their home at Redkey after a short stay in the city with Mr. and Mrs. George Henneford.

Mrs. E. B. Kern, Miss Anna Winnes and Mrs. Fred Schaefer went to Fort Wayne this afternoon and will be in attendance at the convention this evening.

The Decatur Shamrocks defeated the Decatur high school yesterday by the score of 13 to 4 in a very unevenly matched game. Another game will be played in the near future.

Miss Helen Walters had a copy this morning of Decatur's first newspaper, "The Citizen." It was published at the time of the war, and as regular paper was too dear to buy at that time it was published on wallpaper.

After the war the paper was printed on ordinary paper, as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brackett and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dugan enjoyed a delightful automobile trip to Rome City, Waterloo and Auburn yesterday arriving home late last evening.

Mr