A GOOD

BUSINESS COUNCIL

Isn't Mr. Herry Krick right when he says that if he employed five men to work for him, and they would take his business which was running behind, stand good for coal and other supplies, put his business on a paying basis, begin the payment of its debt, would he discharge them after four years of such faithful service. On the other hand would any other business man do other than retain them—even at an advance in salary—to continue the good work. That is the situation with the municipal affairs of Decatur. The present council have managed the affairs at from five to ten thousand dollars saved together with the money derived with the increase in the rate of taxation has been applied upon the debt of the city. As a result, the city indebtedness is thirty-five thousand dollars less than it was four years ago, and the interest charge for that amount has been saved to the people. The next four years will see this debt reduced as much more and at the same time the rate of taxation will be reduced.

poses. There is the reform, and there is the additional reason for every Democrat to "stick one" into P. L. and his hypocritical reform.

Sim has had another busy day. He is sticking close to the platform and is not mixing issues so that it hurts. Sim's long suit is "slip one in for me." He is giving no special emphasis to his record. P. L. has doubtless been talking to him.

The duty of every Democrat is plain. When you know that you are being worked in the game of reform by a four flush reformer, just call his hand by voting the straight Democratic ticket. In other words refuse to be worked.

This reform business is a great stunt, but like everything else it wears out when used for an unworthy purpose. For instance when it is incessantly used as a cloak to help a political party for political purposes the people thus worked will finally revolt. P. L. has simply overdone a very soft thing.

P. L. glibly talks about records. However, he has failed to mention the record of two of his own candidates, "Slip-one-in-for-me" Sim and Ves Peterson who also ran. They have a record, you know. They both, under the special tutorship of P. L. have reformed the city once before. They were among the statesmen in "those good old days" when floating orders, court judgments, brick street crossing orders, sewer orders, were the rage. They were helping guide the destinies of the city when the city debt was growing larger. They were there when the tax levy was mortgaged at the rate of eight per cent. Good reformers, you understand, because P. L. says they were. It is something great to have a record.

The Republican candidates in this campaign are all working hard and running on their platform. Of course, some of them are running on their record too, but they all stand squarely on their platform, "stick one in for me."

The Review has not yet told its readers that it erred in its statement purporting to give the Portland city tax levy when it said the rate is $1.50 when, as a matter of record, the rate is $2.55.—Portland Sun.

Is this the same Portland that P. L. kindly chalked up a tax rate of fifty-one cents, and really now is Decatur's rate three or four times that of her neighbor, Portland? By the way, Portland owns no "junk pile" in the way of municipal waterworks and electric lighting plant. Another interesting chapter is that Portland has been governed by P. L.'s brand of politics ever since the year one, and her city debt today is more than the debt of Decatur.

A JACK-O'-LANTERN SOCIAL

On October 30, Saturday night, a dainty supper will be in sight

For the Mt. Pleasant Epworth League

Will give a Jack-o'-Lantern social.

Come one and all,

Come great and small,

To this Jack-o'-Lantern social.

The home of S. P. Sheets will be

The very place for you to see

That the Mt. Pleasant Epworth League

Can show you a plenty of fun indeed,

There will be bushels of fun

For old and young

At this Jack-o'-Lantern social.

Spooks in the attic and cider in the cellar

Plenty amusements for every feller

And Mt. Pleasant is the place to go

To get a good square meal you know

Boys bring your dimes and come

For forfeiting dimes will be the fun

At this Jack-o'-Lantern social.

Girls there will be a games for you to play

So bring a dime and come this way

There are ghosts in the attic for you

Curio's all over the house 'tis true

So come young and old

Yes come bashful or bold

For the League needs the gold at this

Jack-o'-Lantern social.

SOCIETY COLUMN

A Large Number of Young People Attended a Box Social Last Night

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Dr. and Mrs. P. B. Thomas Entertained for Miss Pearl Baumgartner

A woman went into a newspaper office and wished to advertise for her husband, who had disappeared. When told that they charged two dollars an inch she went out, saying it would break her up at that rate as her husband was over six feet long.

A large company of young folks from the city attended last evening the box social and good time at the Radabush school house south of the city, taught by John Walters and the customary well filled boxes were sold. Miss Dale Payne was voted the most popular lady and Dale Harper of Willshire, was also voted a prize. Miss Velma Daniels will give the next social at her school in Preble township on October 29th.

Miss Lola Baker and brothers, Alva, Ed, Frank and Harve, entertained a company of young people at their home west of the city last evening. The social time was very pleasant with dancing, and at a late hour refreshments were served. Mr. Will Kuebler and Mr. Fred Schuriger added to the evening's enjoyment by their excellent music.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Walters and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Baumgartner and family were guests at a pleasant dinner party which Dr. and Mrs. P. B. Thomas gave in honor of Miss Pearl Baumgartner last evening at their home on Third street. Miss Baumgartner was sixteen years old yesterday.

The Presbyterian Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. S. D. Beavers Tuesday afternoon. Every member is requested to be present.

WHW SALVES FAIL TO CURE ECZEMA

They Clog the Pores—Only a Liquid Can Reach the Inner Skin.

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the only standard liquid eczema cure, oil of wintergreen as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription. After ten years of cure after cure, the world's leading skin specialists have accepted this as the true eczema cure.

We ourselves do not hesitate to recommend D. D. D. Prescription at $1.00 a bottle, but for the benefit of those who have never tried the prescription, we arranged with the D. D. Laboratories of Chicago for a special trial bottle at 25 cents on a special offer now. This first bottle ought to convince every sufferer, and, at any rate, it will surely take away the itch at once. THORNS AND ORANGE BLOSSOMS

The dramatization of the famous novel, "Thorns and Orange Blossoms," has lost none of its interest in stage form. The characters are well represented, and in point of scene and effects the stage pictures leave nothing to be wished for. In "Thorns and Orange Blossoms" patrons of the theater will long remember the production. There is an abundance of heart interest in the plot, and there is a marked absence of lurid melodramatic features. It is well staged, and well acted by a special Rowland & Clifford company, with Miss LeMoine in the leading part. "Thorns and Orange Blossoms" comes to the Bosse one night, Tuesday, Oct. 26.

CURING CATARRH

Accept Our Advice and Try this Remedy at Our Risk.

Catarrh is a disease of the mucous membrane. The mucous membrane is, one may say, the interior lining of the body. Catarrh therefore may exist in any part of the system.

When the catarrhal poison attacks the mucous membrane, inflammation and congestion are produced and nature fails to throw off the accumulated poisons. The organ which has been afflicted ceases to perform its proper function as nature intended it should. The result is, complication upon complication, which may lead to other even more serious afflictions.

We honestly believe Rexall Mucu-Tone will do wonders toward overcoming catarrh. It is made from the prescription of an eminent physician who made a long study of catarrh, and his great success with this remedy was an enviable one.

We want you if you are a sufferer from catarrh in any form, to give Rexall Mucu-Tone a thorough trial. Use it with regularity and persistency for a reasonable time, then if you are not satisfied, come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every cent you paid us. This is certainly the fairest offer that any one could make and should attest our sincerity of purpose. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at our store—The Rexall Store. The Smith & Yager Drug Co.
