Mr. Home Buyer:

Have you been wishing to buy a snug little home on a good street and in a fine neighborhood, a mighty pleasant place to live, with property in good repair, say at an investment of a thousand or twelve hundred dollars? And to be able to buy so that in paying for it you will not be burdened? We have got just such a place. As an investment alone it is very attractive.

Respectfully

Miss Flora Fledderjohann gave a Holloween party last evening in their large barn. Autumn leaves were festooned from the top of the barn, and pumpkin faces and corn fodder arranged in an attractive way completed the decorations. In the loft Clarence Fledderjohann and Joe McConnell told fortunes. They were dressed as old witches. The guests enjoyed a game of progressive peanuts and played Holloween jokes. Late in the evening refreshments were served.

What resulted in but a bad scare for little Emerson, son of Cashier Jesse Rupp, might easily have resulted in serious injury or instant death for the boy Saturday. He was run over by Fred Braun in his heavy touring car. It seems Emerson did not notice the car and ran directly in front of it. Fortunately Mr. Braun was driving very slowly and brought his machine quickly to a standstill so that Emerson was not struck forcibly and no serious injury resulted.—Berne Witness.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Krieg, returned home this noon on the 11:30 car from Fort Wayne, after a week's visit with friends and relatives at Elkhart, Rome City and other places. Mr. Krieg is a young farmer with many friends, while Mrs. Krieg is also widely known and highly respected. At present they will reside in Kirkland township.

According to reports from Craigville, a resident of the little village, will make application for a liquor license at the December session of the commissioners and if successful will start a saloon in the little city. The Lancaster township remonstrance expires the 6th of this month and the people of the little city are in a turmoil over the repeated stories that they will soon have a full equipped saloon in their midst. At first nothing was thought of the repeated statements made by the resident there but in the last few days a different light has been taken of the matter and it is being discussed in every quarter.—Bluffton Banner.

Harry Moltz made a business trip to Fort Wayne today.

Dan Beery made a business trip to Fort Wayne this morning.

Election day was rather gloomy and the hour is nearly at hand when some of the candidates will feel more or less that way. The returns will be received at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Linn and children, Jack and Mercie, of Gardner, Montana, are in the city for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Linn. Mr. Linn was born and raised in Adams county, and while here followed the printer's trade. He has been absent from here for about twenty years.

Charles Rittenhouse, formerly of this city and now living at Wichita, Kansas, is here for a few days' visit with his old pal, T. M. Reid, and is enjoying himself calling on old friends. He is busy just now installing irrigation plants in the southwest and has all the dope that goes with this great and new business.

Joe Knapke closed his saloon last evening at eleven o'clock and is now out of business. His license expired today, but this being election day, prevents him from one day in business. Friday night of this week marks the end of the saloon business in Decatur for the present at least, when Joe Tonner will close the Nickel Plate saloon. From that time on we are to be absolutely and completely dry, according to all the dope.

Miss Flora Fledderjohann gave a Holloween party last evening in their large barn. Autumn leaves were festooned from the top of the barn, and pumpkin faces and corn fodder arranged in an attractive way completed the decorations. It also shows that you are not using Black Silk Stove Polish.

Black Silk Stove Polish does not rub off. Does not dust off.

It anneals to the iron—becomes a part of the stove.

UB your stove with your handkerchief.

If the handkerchief becomes black it shows that the polish rubs off.

It is in a class all by itself.

Ask your dealer for a can of Black Silk Stove Polish and give it a good trial. Try it on your cook stove, your parlor stove or your gas range.

If you don't find it the best polish you ever used your dealer is authorized to refund your money.

Made in liquid or paste, one quality.
