MR. CULBERTSON THE VICTOR

Won Out Over Democrat for Mayor of Auburn.

Auburn, Ind., Nov. 24.—Hugh R. Culbertson, republican, was elected mayor of Auburn yesterday, by just twenty-two votes over J. E. Ensley, the democratic candidate, with whom he tied at the regular municipal election November 2, making this special election necessary. The first two wards of the city reported between 7 and 7:15 last evening and losses for Culbertson were shown in both. As Ensley had carried the Third ward at the regular election by seventy-nine votes and had gained in the two other wards, the democrat's election seemed assured until the Third ward returns were made at 7:45. In this ward Culbertson had cut down his opponent's majority of twenty-two, and the republican's lead in the First and Second wards were sufficient to carry him through to election. The vote was one of the heaviest ever cast in a municipal election here. On November 2 both candidates received 488 votes, a total of 976, but yesterday a total of 1,062 ballots were cast. The friends of both aspirants were out all day hard at work and every possible vote was secured.

JAMES GRANDSTAFF DEAD

James Grandstaff, a brother of L. N. Grandstaff, of Monmouth, was stricken with apoplexy early yesterday morning and died a few hours later. The deceased was fifty-four years of age and was known here, he having formerly lived at Van Wert, where he served for a time as pastor of the Friends church. The greater part of his life was spent there. Relatives from this county will attend the funeral services.

ANOTHER EXPLOSION OCCURRED

A gasoline explosion which resulted in a blaze was discovered just in time this noon by passersby at the home of Henry Buffenbarger on the corner of Eighth and Nuttman avenue. The stove had been leaking at some unnoticed place and when Mrs. Buffenbarger struck a match an explosion resulted burning her about the face and head. The stove was broken up somewhat and fire flew in all directions. In a short time a part of the kitchen wall and the door was a mass of flames and had it not been for Fred Schuriger and George Scheler who were near the place running over and putting it out, it might have proved a serious blaze. The loss will amount to several dollars and no insurance was carried. The property belonged to Mr. John Brock.

LIBRARY CLOSED THANKSGIVING

The Decatur Library will be closed all day tomorrow, on account of the Thanksgiving holiday.

ONE MILLION DOLLARS FOR A GOOD STOMACH

This Offer Should be a Warning to Every Man and Woman.

The newspapers and medical journals have had much to say relative to a famous millionaire's offer of a million dollars for a new stomach.

This great multi-millionaire was too busy to worry about the condition of his stomach. He allowed his dyspepsia to run from bad to worse until in the end it became incurable. His misfortune should serve as a warning to others. Every one who suffers with dyspepsia for a few years will give everything he owns for a new stomach.

Dyspepsia is caused by an abnormal state of the gastric juices. There is one element missing—Pepsin. The absence of this destroys the function of the gastric fluids. They lose their power to digest food.

We are now able to supply the

AGED THOUGH HAPPY

David Sickafus and Bride Visit in the City.

For the first time since his marriage some time ago, David Sickafus, aged eighty years, and well known here, visited here with his blushing bride, of seventy-seven years. Mr. and Mrs. Sickafus, who reside at Dora, were enroute to Abolt, where they will spend Thanksgiving day with his son, Joe Sickafus, and while here were the guests of A. J. Reynolds and family. Mr. and Mrs. Sickafus were the oldest couple to wed in Wabash county, and though they cannot claim to be in the heyday of life, in the matter of years, they enjoyed their honeymoon as much as any young ones. This was the bride's first marriage.
