IS IN NOBLE COUNTY

Boys Will Live in a Shack—The Work Will Require About Six Months.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Butler have returned from Albion, Ind., where they have been for a week. Mr. Butler looking after a big contract which the firm has near there. The contract for a ditch five miles and a half long was secured some time ago by Butler, Son & Peterson, and they are now starting the work which will require about six months' time. Last week a large shack was erected along the route of the ditch where the boys will have their headquarters during the winter and where they will live in regular frontier style. Dallas Butler and Tom Peterson will be in charge of the job and will be assisted by about ten men who will do the work as rapidly as could be expected on such a contract. A cook is now being secured who will feed the boys when they come in tired and hungry. This firm has handled some big jobs in the past year, having put in many miles of cement walk at Fort Wayne. They do ditch work in winter to round up the year's work.

A ROOMING HOUSE

Yager Brothers are Rebuilding the Indiana House—Will be Modern.

THE WORK HAS BEGUN

Building to be Enlarged and all Conveniences Will be Installed.

The old Indiana House which has been a land mark in Decatur for a third of a century, is to be rebuilt into a modern and comfortable structure, suitable for a boarding and rooming house. The building was purchased recently by John and Herman Yager, the sale being necessary to close up the estate of Mrs. Mary Beglin, who conducted the hotel for so many years. This morning contractors Mann & Christen began the reconstruction of the building. They are tearing away the south part of the building and will erect an addition about the size of the old house, making it two stories and giving double the room heretofore in the house. A cellar will be constructed, a modern heating plant installed, plumbing and other conveniences added, and when completed it will be thoroughly modern boarding and rooming place. Just who will occupy the new place has not been announced, but it seems likely that Decatur will have a good downtown place of this kind and for which there seems to be a considerable demand.
