Talk about prices, a Pennsylvania hen has just won a $12,000 prize! A great to-do is being made because somebody stole an egg which she laid in her coop at the show, and no wonder. Her eggs must rate at about $100 each. Is it surprising that common eggs are high?—Muncie Star.

SENT HORSE CAR

Interurban Employees Personally Conduct a Car Load of Horses

TO FINDLAY, OHIO

All Way by Traction—Meet With Plenty of Snow on the Way.

Charles Meibers, Ed Beery and Oliver Schug of the interurban force personally conducted a car load of horses by interurban to Findlay, Ohio, Saturday, the horses going from the Decatur Horse Sale company to F. J. Adams of Findlay to be shipped by him to a horse sale company at Pittsburgh. The load was taken on a Fort Wayne & Springfield freight car and consisted of ten as fine horses as ever breathed. The entire round trip of about 265 miles was made by interurban, going from here to Fort Wayne, from Fort Wayne to Lima, by the Ohio Electric company and from Lima to Findlay by the Western Ohio. The car left here at 10 o'clock in the morning and reached Findlay about 3:30 and returned to Decatur by 11 o'clock that night, making a very good record. The boys stated that from Lima to Findlay about fifteen inches of snow covered the ground, and at some places it had drifted to three feet in depth. Two of the regular interurban cars between Lima and Findlay stuck in the snow and the Decatur freight car pulled them into the city.

TAKES ON SIDE LINE.

George Steele of the firm of Steele & Weaver has taken on a side line, which he will work in addition to conducting the racket store here. This is acting as jobber or middleman for number of firms, by which method he will be able to obtain his goods at a very low rate and will thus be able to sell it much cheaper in his store, giving his customers a great advantage. Mr. Steele, having a large acquaintance among the owners of racket stores over northern Indiana, in which his territory will lie, will no doubt make a success of the undertaking. The line includes combs, barrettes, enamel ware and other things, and securing it directly from the factory, saving the middleman's profits, he will thus be able to sell articles at his store for ten cents that he would need to sell otherwise for twenty-five cents. Mr. Steele has been endeavoring for the past two years to secure this advantage, and was only recently successful.

DEATH'S SUMMONS

Came Saturday Night for
Mrs. Mary A. Goldner,
Wife of Lewis Goldner.

LIVED IN KIRKLAND

Was Prominent Woman of Adams County—Sixty-Two Years of Age.

Mary A. Goldner, wife of Lewis Goldner, one of the most prominent residents of Kirkland township, passed away Saturday night at 10 o'clock, thus closing a life of much beauty and usefulness and one that will be sadly missed among the large host of relatives and friends, in the home and the community in general. Mrs. Goldner had been sick for some time, her ailment being chronic catarrhal gastritis and for several days had been lying at the point of death. She was born in Medina county, Ohio, May 26, 1847, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Broadwood, and at her death had reached the age of sixty-two years, seven months and twenty-seven days. She was married January 28, 1866, to Lewis Goldner, with whom the years passed happily. The husband, with nine children, survive. The children are: W. J. Goldner, E. A. Goldner, Preble; Elias E., Alfred F., Dallas, B. E., at home; Mrs. George Haugk, Decatur; Mrs. Cora Horstman and Mrs. Catharine P. Fuhrman, Fort Wayne; Mrs. Emelie S. Shady, Magdaline. One daughter, Susie E., preceded her in death. She also leaves eleven grandchildren and two brothers, and an innumerable host of friends to mourn an inconsolable loss.

Funeral services for Mrs. Goldner will be conducted Wednesday afternoon from the home at 1 o'clock, and later at the Preble Lutheran church, with burial in the church cemetery.

Chamberlain's cough remedy is not a common, every-day cough mixture. It is a meritorious remedy for all the troublesome and dangerous complications resulting from cold in the head, throat, chest or lungs. Sold by all dealers.

THE SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. Charles Pennington
Given Birthday Surprise Party Sunday Night.

DINNER PARTY GIVEN
By Mr. and Mrs. Moltz—
Pythian Sisters' Social a Pleasant One.

It is the law of good economy to make the best of everything.—Ruskin.

One of the delightful dinner parties of the season was that given Saturday evening at 6 o'clock by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moltz, the event commemorating Mr. Moltz' retirement from the firm of Kuebler & Moltz, with which he has long been associated. Plates were laid for ten, the guests being Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kuebler, Mrs. Sutherland, Misses Edna Crawford, Letta Lang, Louise Hobrock, Eleanor Forbing, Jessie McLain, those of the Boston Store with whom Mr. and Mrs. Moltz have been associated in a most pleasant way for many years, in the friendship that grows with years and with mutual interest and aims. While many of the clerks have been associated with the firm a long time, Miss Jessie McLain, cashier and bookkeeper, can bear the honors, having been with them for eighteen years.

While Mrs. Charles Pennington, whose thirty-second birthday anniversary falls today, was anticipating the attack of a surprise party she thought it would come on the anniversary day and intended to fortify accordingly against any sudden onslaught of her friends on that day. They made a change, however, in the usual surprise party tactics and marshalling their forces last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Parent, made their way cautiously and quietly to the Pennington home, where they took the good lady of the house wholly unaware. She submitted gracefully and acknowledged her defeat and the victory of the surprisers. A very good time was spent, music and games playing a prominent part. Unlike foragers of war, the company took with them a quantity of good things to eat, from which a very appetizing lunch was served. Mrs. Pennington was given a very handsome ornamental coiffure comb as a birthday gift, Mrs. Frank Gass making the presentation speech. Mrs. Pennington was asked to respond, but being so overcome with pleasure and surprise, made the brief but to-the-point speech that she was much pleased to get the comb, "as now she could wear one like other people," which of course gave the donor great satisfaction in thus enabling her to appear a long-felt want. That Mrs. Pennington may enjoy many such happy events was the wish of all the party, which included Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Gass, Tom Durkens, Will Parent, Peter Moulton, John Keller, John Schafer, Frank Frank, Will Pennington, Henry Gassett, Mr. Will Lientle and Miss Theresa Miller.

Thirty-four were in attendance at the social given Saturday afternoon at the Pythian Sisters at the home of Mrs. Charles Elzey on West Monroe street. The company found a pleasant task in the hemming of the table linens for the new Pythian home and in embroidering the Pythian Sisters' initials in the corners. When this was finished there came an interesting little designing or drawing contest. Each guest was given paper and pencil and told to draw thereon her plan of an ideal house. The first honors in this were shared by Mrs. Fred Patterson and Mrs. O. L. Vance, the turn of a straw declaring for Mrs. Vance, who was awarded a beautiful handpainted plate. Booby honors, lying between Mrs. I. Kalver and Mrs. Neva Hower, were bestowed upon Mrs. Kalver in the shape of a little "brownie." The hostess, who was assisted by the Misses Ruby Parrish, Nellie Nichols and Ruth Ernst, served a very tempting lunch from the following menu: Peanut sandwiches, veal loaf, pickles, baked apples with whipped cream, cranberry sauce, coffee, brick ice cream in the lodge colors—red, blue, white and yellow—cake, dates and fudge. The social was the most delightful one ever given by the lodge and aside from the pleasant social features, was a profitable one, as the proceeds, amounting to nearly four dollars, will be applied on the purchase of the new lodge table linen.

Misses Rose and Matilda Berning, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Berning, who, with their parents will move to their new home north of the city

A "FRIEND-MAKING" SALE

One thing we like about a Clearance Sale like ours: if we don't make a lot of profit, selling clothes at less than they're worth, we certainly do make a lot of friends. Every time we get a man into one of our

Suits and Overcoats, we know we have made him a solid friend of our store and of our merchandise and we know that friends are worth a good deal more to a business than a few dollars of immediate profit.

We want to clean up our surplus stock of winter goods; we'd rather give you the benefit of our extremely low prices now than to carry these goods through until next fall. We're willing to allow you something on the price—a good generous slice of it to pay you for doing the carrying over.

We're selling H. S. & M., fine suits and overcoats in this sale; if you are familiar with what that name stands for, we needn't say more except to quote prices. If you're not familiar by experience now's a good time for you to learn the value of good clothes.

soon, were given a farewell party Sunday evening by a number of their friends, including Flora Droege, Martha Heckman, Marie Boese, Esther Koenemann, Lelia Peoples. The girls enjoyed a general good time.

Miss Rose Colchin entertained a company of friends over Sunday, the guests being the Misses Margaret Colchin, Hattie and Georgia Peckham of Fort Wayne.

The pedro party to be given at the K. of C. hall on next Tuesday evening promises to be one of much interest and no doubt a large crowd will be in attendance.

Mrs. John Moran very pleasantly entertained at 12 o'clock dinner Sunday in honor of number of her friends and a very social time was enjoyed by all in attendance. Guests from out of the city were Miss Nona Uiman of Moline, Ill., and Charles Miller of Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Centers of Fort Wayne were entertained Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mose Henry of North Second street. Mr. Centers is foreman of the Pittsburgh round house at Fort Wayne.

Mrs. C. A. Dugan will be a guest at a party to be given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Carrie Ehinger on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Frances Dugan, who is a student at Vassar, writes friends here of an interesting event of this week that will come as a most delightful break in her school studies and give her a rare privilege of visiting the places of interest and learning of the ways of student life at Cornell University. This comes as an invitation to attend the week-end house party given by the Phi Delta fraternity of Cornell, and Miss Frances will leave Poughkeepsie Wednesday, remaining until Monday. These week-end house parties are given but once a year by the Phi Deltas—the last week in January. Each man is allowed to invite a lady and the frat house is fitted up in a fitting way and turned over to the ladies during their stay there. The program of entertainment is an elaborate one, there being dances, glee club concerts and other festivities, making the event one looked forward to from year to year with great eagerness by the fraternity members, and most happy and honored is the lady to whom is extended an invitation to attend.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. S. D. Beavers Thursday afternoon.

H. P. Moses of Fort Wayne spent Sunday the guest of his mother, Mrs. Julia Moses, and his sister, Miss Annette Moses.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Zollars were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Peterson over Sunday.
