J. H. HELLER, Manager.

The republican state committee has been reorganized by electing E. M. Lee, a Beveridge man, chairman, and John F. Hayes, Mr. Beveridge's private secretary, as secretary. Announcement is made by those in authority that the campaign is to be "a Beveridge campaign." In view of this statement it might be well to inquire of Mr. Beveridge as to where he stands on the ship subsidy grab and the central bank hold-up. It might be a good thing also to have him state precisely how much of the tariff graft he favors and how much he opposes. How large a private tax does he think the trusts and monopolies should be allowed to levy on the people? Where the tariff now put one dollar in the treasury for public purposes it puts five in the pockets of favored individuals for private purposes. As Mr. Beveridge has said that he thinks five is too much, would he be satisfied with four or three? He should make it clear where he stands with respect to these amounts. In the meantime the people of Indiana should get ready to send a man to the senate who is opposed to and will vote against the entire private tax, a thing that Beveridge will not do.

BUYS NEW HOME

Audtor H. S. Michaud Becomes Owner of C. E. Suttles Property.

ON MERCER AVENUE

Will Take Possession March 10th—A Beautiful and Comfortable Home.

The finishing touches were put upon the deed this morning that makes Auditor H. S. Michaud the owner of the beautiful home of C. E. Suttles on Mercer avenue, one of the most desirable of the modern residences in the city. Mr. Michaud and family will take possession of their home about March 10th, at which time the lease for their present home on Winchester street will expire. Mr. Suttles makes the sale by reason of the fact that he has recently opened a racket store at Celina, Ohio, and has moved his household goods to that city, where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Suttles was in the city this morning, making the final pen strokes to the deed and arranging and closing up other matters relating to his business here.

THE SOCIAL NOTES

Happy Birthday Celebration by Little Miss Mary Burke Yesterday.

A DINNER PARTY

By Mrs. R. K. Allison Was Pleasant Affair—Presbyterian Ladies Meet.

HOME.
I want to go home
To the dull old town
With the shaded streets
And the open square
And the hill
And the flats
And the house I love
And the paths I know—
I want to go home.
If I can't go back
To the happy days,
Yet I can live
Where their shadows lie
Under the trees
And over the grass—
I want to be there
Where the joy was once,
Oh, I want to go home,
I want to go home.
—Paul Kester, in McClure's.

Mrs. Miranda Buckmaster of Jefferson township is a guest this week at the C. J. Lutz home.

Mrs. Reuben Baxter of Monmouth was entertained yesterday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Andrew Crable, also enjoying the visit with her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Potts, who makes her home with her daughter. Mrs. Potts is one of the pioneer residents of the county, being seventy-seven years old.

Mrs. Charles Harkless and daughter, Vernia, of Root township, entertained Mrs. C. C. Wilder and daughters, Annice, Jessie, Dorris and Edwina, at dinner.

A dinner party given yesterday by Mrs. John Thomas was a pleasant way of celebrating her birthday anniversary, the guests being a number of her friends who much enjoyed the occasion and heartily wished her the choicest blessings of many years to come.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church will hold their annual Mite Box opening Friday evening, February 18th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Krick on Mercer avenue.

The ladies of the Aid society of the Hoagland M. E. church were very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. John Roubush at her home, 921 North Second street. The day was spent in having "a jolly good time," and at high noon a sumptuous dinner was served. Among those present were: Mesdames John McIntosh, J. L. Robinson, Elias Hartzell, M. S. Venice, Paul Smitley, J. F. Stephenson, all of Hoagland, and Mesdames O. P. Schug, D. A. Hunsicker, L. C. Hughes, A. M. Henry, A. Close of Decatur.

All members of the C. B. L. of I. are requested to be at the hall this evening after the church services.

Mrs. George Starr and daughter, Lizzie, of Grand Lodge, Mich., were guests of honor at a dinner given Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. George Kintz at their home southeast of the city, this being a pleasant family affair. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Haeffling, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith and family, Mrs. George Haeffling, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kintz, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Steigmeyer.

From fifty to sixty were in attendance at the regular bi-weekly social given Thursday afternoon by the February session of the Presbyterian Ladies' society at the home of Mrs. C. J. Lutz south of the city, carriages conveying the ladies to and from the city. The regular collection amounted to the goodly sum of five dollars, to which was added the sum of twelve dollars resulting from the amounts earned by each member by special work. A vocal solo given by Mrs. Dr. Neptune was a very delightful one after which came a talk by the Rev. Spetnagel regarding the plans for the conducting of a ten days' series of meetings, beginning February 20th, in which various ministers of the Presbytery will take part. During the afternoon refreshments were served in the dining room—punch, ice cream and cake, the decorations and refreshments bearing out the season colors of red and green, while a profusion of red hearts festooned about the rooms, suggested the approach of the valentine season and added quite a festive air to the social.

In celebration of the great Lincoln's birthday anniversary, which comes next Saturday, February 12th, the G. A. R. and W. R. C. will give a supper in the G. A. R. hall in the evening, to which all old soldiers are invited. The evening will close with a program appropriate to the day, and the affair will no doubt be heartily enjoyed by all.

A delightful dinner party was that given Thursday noon by Mrs. R. K. Allison, the guests being Mesdames Jane Crabbs, Frank Dibble, D. W. Beery, C. D. Lewton, J. T. Merryman, Dr. Thomas, P. G. Hooper, W. H. Nachtrieb and Florence Devilbiss. A bowl of glowing carnations, with canelabra formed the centerpiece of the table, perfect in its appointments, where a delicious dinner was served at 12 o'clock. As the ladies were asked to bring their needlework with them, the little coterie spent the afternoon over their sewing, the busy hum of voices in chatting furnishing a cheerful accompaniment.

Five little girl friends, one for each year of her short life, were guests at a birthday party given Thursday for Mary Burke by her mother, Mrs. G. T. Burke on First street. There were peanut hunts and all other such games so dear to the heart of childhood after which came a pretty and most wonderful part of the afternoon, a luncheon served on the table in the dining room, in the center of which gleamed five bright and shining little candles, representatives of each year of the little life that has caused so much brightness and sunshine in the home. The delicious luncheon was served in two courses by Miss Mary's sister, Vivian, assisted by Miss Naomi Meyer. Guests were Helen Meyer, Marcia Helm, Kathleen Peck, Victoria Mills and Margaret William.

Invitations were issued this morning by Mrs. John Heller and Mrs. L. G. Ellingham for a valentine party to be given at the Ellingham home next Monday afternoon.

The girls of the "Foxy Five" club will be entertained this evening by Miss Veda Hensley.

THE GRIP SUFFERERS

Miss Frank Radamacker Recovers From Badly Scalded Arm—Other Notes.

The latest word from the Lutheran hospital, Fort Wayne, is to the effect that Mrs. Jane Butler shows a continued improvement and every hour finds her chances for recovery growing stronger.

Miss Vernia Harkless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harkless, who has been suffering three weeks from the grip and a healing in the head, was able to be out yesterday for the first time since her illness.

Miss Florence Sprunger is numbered among the many grip sufferers.

Miss Frank Radamacker was able to be out yesterday for the first since her week's illness with the grip. About a week ago she was badly scalded by having hot water overturned on her arm, and this with the grip, made her illness one of double annoyance.

Mrs. D. P. Reynolds, who was brought home Wednesday afternoon from the St. Joseph hospital, Fort Wayne, where she underwent an operation for liver trouble, stood the trip well, and is getting along remarkably well, being able to sit up the greater part of the time, and to stand, though not able to walk much yet.

Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gass, is quite sick with the grip.

WILL HOLD COURT TOMORROW.

Owing to the death of a member of the family of one of the jurors in the case which Judge Merryman has been trying at Fort Wayne, the court there has adjourned until next Monday and Judge Merryman will hold court here tomorrow, if there is anything to be brought up by the attorneys.
