THE OUTLOOK IN INDIANA.

In speaking of the Indiana outlook Governor Marshall declares that he can not see anything but victory for the democrats. The democratic party is right on the national issues, which will have an incidental effect in the campaign, but state matters will be primarily involved in the November election. In a speech at Fort Wayne the governor said that he had promised the people of Indiana that he would give them constitutional government for four years, "and, God helping me, I'll do it," he added. In an interview at a different place he declared with equal positiveness: "If anything wrong has crept into my administration, I don't know it. If there has I will find it out, and I don't intend to do so others have done if there is anything wrong. I would criticize wrong in my own administration the same as I would in any other." And the people know that he will do as he says. There is every reason why the democrats should win in Indiana, and none why they should lose.

A well arranged and excellently carried out surprise party was that given as a farewell for Mrs. Peter Stein by the members of the St. Vincent de Paul society Tuesday evening. The company, numbering about thirty-six, assembled at the home of Mrs. John Herman in the evening. In some way Mrs. Stein was induced to come to the Herman home, where she was indeed royally welcomed. The surprise was complete in all ways. Progressive pedro was enjoyed and prizes were won, first, Mrs. C. O. Meibers; second, Mrs. J. H. Bremerkamp; third, Mrs. W. A. Kuebler. Several of the winners then presented the prizes as gifts to the guest of honor. During the social, ice cream and cake were served, and the society presented Mrs. Stein with a handsome fine linen tablecloth. The Setins are preparing to move to Lima, Ohio, and expect to leave next week, much to the regret of all who have known them during their many years' residence here.

Thirty-five were in attendance at the regular monthly session of the Evangelical Young People's Alliance at the home of Mrs. E. B. Kern last evening, this session proving to be the most interesting of the year. A building fund organization was effected last evening, and the money in this will be used for the building of a new church at some undetermined future time. The young people were divided into two contesting sides, with Mesdames Eugene Runyon and E. B. Kern leaders, and their endeavor will be to secure a mile of pennies as soon as possible. Foot slips, with pockets for sixteen pennies were given each member, who will try to secure his quota of the "mile." The contest will close August 1st, and there is much pleasant rivalry over the outcome. S. C. Cramer was elected secretary and treasurer of this organization. The class has been reading and studying Sheldon's "In His Steps" and this was continued last evening.

A most pleasant time was spent by twenty-four of the members of the Salem Evangelical Y. P. A. at the home of William Worden east of this city last evening. After the business period a social time was enjoyed, with a vocal duet by Misses Blanch and Ruth Worden, and a recitation by Louie Worden and other pleasant features, including the serving of refreshments. At the close of the meeting the company arranged a serenade for Mr. and Mrs. Dorwin Drake, a newly married couple, who yesterday moved to their new home in that vicinity. The serenade was characteristic of the old-fashioned "belling" and Mr. and Mrs. Drake were glad to stop the "music" by giving the bellers a treat. Mrs. Drake was formerly Miss Cora Springer, and both are well known young people of that community. The next Y. P. A. meeting will be at the Oliver Walters home on May 10th.

The closing session of the Historical club for the season was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Dr. Beavers. Mrs. Robert Blackburn had the paper of the evening, which was a very instructive one as well as interesting, on Burbank's wonderful achievements with plants. Mrs. Ed Moses was received as a new member and the election resulted in the re-election of the following officers for the next year: President, Mrs. Jane Crabbs; vice president, Mrs. Nannie Miller; recording secretary, Mrs. Helen Blossom; assistant recording secretary, Mrs. Jesse C. Sutton; treasurer, Mrs. M. Burns; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Nettie Schrock. A committee has been appointed to arrange for the course of study for next season.

One of the largest weddings of the season will take place Thursday of next week, April 21st, when Miss Lulu, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kuklehan, of Root township will become the bride of Henry Fuelling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fuelling, also of that township. The ceremony will take place at 2 o'clock at the Fuelling Lutheran church, after which a wedding supper will be served at the home of the bride's parents. About two hundred guests have been invited. The parties are very prominent young people of that vicinity.

John Woy left on the 10 o'clock car for Monmouth, where he was a guest at dinner given today by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fonner in honor of his birthday anniversary. Mr. Woy is just eighty-one years of age today, but he looks like a young man and feels like a boy. He is one of the city's most highly respected men and has lived many years in the county, coming to this city from his farm in Root township many years ago.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church has arranged to give a chicken pot-pie dinner Friday, April 15th, in the Niblick building, just south of the Democrat office, to which the public is invited. Dinner, 25 cents. The following menu will be served, beginning at 11 o'clock.

Chicken Pot-Pie
Mashed Potatoes Baked Beans
Potato Salad Pickles
Bread Butter Jelly
Pie Coffee

One of the most splendid balls of the post-lenten season was that given at the K. of C. hall last evening and attended by about forty couples. Music was provided by the Decatur orchestra of six pieces, including as players Hamrick, Geary, King, Miller, Moser and Patterson.

Members of the Phi Delta Kappa are making arrangements for their second dance to be given at their hall on next Wednesday evening, one week from tonight. They are becoming quite popular in social affairs and prove themselves to be royal entertainers.

The members of the aid society of the Reformed church are meeting this afternoon with Mrs. Henry Schlickman on Seventh street.

Mrs. Oliver Jackson was the guest of honor at a dinner given at her home in celebration of her fiftieth birthday anniversary. Guests were Phil Macklin and family, Bruce Christen and family, Mrs. Paul Baumgartner and daughter, Ruth, Mrs. John Thompson and Will Jackson.

FOR RENT—A six room cottage on South Third street. Inquire of John H. Schug. 8716

OPENING MAY 10

Maple Grove Park May be Ready For Opening on That Date.

MANY AMUSEMENTS

Features Want to Come
Here—Getting the Ball
Diamond Ready.

With the coming of the warm days the minds of the public revert to the leafy, shady parks and before many weeks they will be in full possession of the public. Frank McConnell of the Maple Grove Park association, went to Maple Grove park this afternoon to look after the condition of the base ball diamond and other things which may demand attention. It is thought that the park will have its opening for the season by May 10th. For some time Mr. McConnell has been receiving letters from various shows and entertainment feature companies regarding the outlook of their establishment here for the season, and it is probable that a number of them will locate here. Then there will be the old standby—the merry-go-round, the dancing pavilion, the shooting galleries, and such, which have become permanent fixtures of this most desirable pleasure ground, so largely patronized by the public for miles around.

PLEASANT VALLEY NEWS.
