ANOTHER ATTEMPT

TO DECEIVE THE PUBLIC

The campaign contribution publicity bill passed by congress is mere humbuggery—a transparent bluff—an insolent attempt to deceive the public. It provides for publication "after" election. The democrats insisted that the publication should be "before" elections, when publicity would mean something. On this subject the Indianapolis News says:

"The action taken yesterday will no doubt afford great relief and encouragement to the republican congressional campaign committee, which has steadily opposed pre-election publicity. The members of this committee appeared to think that such publicity would ruin their chances for obtaining money. From this one might almost infer that they expect to get funds from those who are ashamed to make contributions, or from such suspicious sources that public knowledge of their origin would discredit their candidates. Why they should think that they would suffer so much more than the democrats they do not explain. Incidentally, the failure to provide for pre-election publicity is another thing that the republican spell-binders will be called on to defend on the stump. It will not be easy to convince the voters that it is none of their business who is paying a candidate's campaign expenses until it is too late for them to do anything about it. For some reason, impossible to understand, the republicans this year seem determined to load themselves with all the embarrassments possible."

How can the government control the trusts when the trusts control the government?—Senator Owen of Oklahoma.

When President Taft went into office he said that government expenses should be reduced. But they have not been reduced. On the contrary, the session of congress just closed managed to get away with more money than any of its predecessors—many millions of dollars more.

The total appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, was $1,044,000,000, whereas the appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, are about $1,058,000,000. Such expenditures are absolutely unjustifiable. When the president came into office he declared for economy with a flourish of trumpets. The newspapers were full of what he was going to do in that regard to relieve the taxpayers of the land. But all such talk turned out to be a thundering in the index.

SOCIETY DOINGS

Queen Esthers Study City and Deaconess Work—Picnic Yesterday.

WEDDING ON MONDAY

Tony Miller Weds Miss Bertha Lattick of New Haven at Fort Wayne.

Hushed the people's swelling murmur, List the boy's strong, joyous cry! "Ring!" he shouts, "Ring, Grandpa, RING, O, RING FOR LIBERTY!" And straightforward at the signal, The old bellman lifts his hand, And sends the good news, making Iron music through the land.

How they shouted! What rejoicing! How the old bell shook the air, Till the clang of freedom ruffled The calm, gliding Delaware! How the bonfires and the torches Illumed the night's repose, And from the flames, like Phoenix, Fair Liberty arose!

Mrs. B. W. Sholty will leave Sunday morning for Roanoke, where she will visit with relatives over the Fourth. She will incidentally attend the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of Kil-so-quah, the Indian woman, who has been a life-long resident of that place. Kil-so-quah's birthday occurred May 28th, but the celebration was deferred until the Fourth. Governor Marshall and other distinguished statesmen will be present and take part in the program of speaking. (Kil-so-quah's husband, known as "Old White Loon," has been dead a number of years, but Mrs. Sholty well remembers him, as it was the custom in those days for drivers to water at the pump and trough at the Indian home. Mrs. Sholty has been a member of several parties that stopped at that place. Kil-so-quah has a son, Anthony Rivarre, who is about sixty years of age.

The wedding of Tony Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller, well known to Adams county people, residing east of this city, will take place next Monday morning at 7 o'clock at the St. Mary's Catholic church at Fort Wayne, Father Oechting officiating. The bride is Miss Bertha Lattick, one of New Haven's fair young girls, and the attendants of the couple will be the groom's sister, Miss Kate Miller, and brother, Ed Miller, of near this city. The groom has been employed at Ft. Wayne for some time, but has secured employment here, and will make their home in this city, having leased the Newton Anderson property on North Fifth street. The best wishes of all are extended to them.

The Queen Esther circle held its regular monthly meeting yesterday in Shady Maple Grove park, closing with a picnic supper, which was a very pleasant diversion from the usual one. Mrs. John Niblick led the social part, giving an interesting talk on city deaconess work, the Queen Esther band being an auxiliary of the Home Missionary society. The Marcy home, Chicago; Glen home, Cincinnati, and the Hull street settlement and medical missions were among the institutions touched upon, which are so active in carrying on the good work of home missions.

The young ladies of the Christian church will give an ice cream social this evening on the church lawn, to which the public is cordially invited to attend. Cake and home-made candies will also be sold and everybody is asked to come and spend the evening.

Miss Nellie Schrock went to Fort Wayne today, where she will be entertained over Sunday by Mrs. Robert Harding.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rice and two children of Massillon, Ohio, arrived this afternoon for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rice and family of North Second street. Tomorrow morning Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rice and children of Marion will come for a visit, making a happy reunion of the Rice family.

Mrs. Louis Rice, Mrs. George C. Steele, Mrs. C. J. Weaver, Mrs. Sadie Cowley and daughter, Maud, Mrs. E. H. Shoemaker and daughter Gretel, and Mrs. John Stewart united in making ice cream at the Stewart home Friday evening, enjoying a festival. Of course the men folks were included in the festival.

A SUDDEN ILLNESS

Terminates in Death of Mrs. Fred Holmes, Niece of Mrs. J. D. Hale.

LIVED IN BRYANT

Husband Is Cashier of Bryant National Bank—Funeral Tomorrow.

Mrs. J. D. Hale is in receipt of a message bringing the news of the death of the wife of her nephew, Fred Holmes, cashier of the bank at Bryant. Mrs. Holmes became suddenly ill yesterday and her death occurring late yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Holmes was in the prime of life, being less than thirty years of age. Before her marriage she lived in Winchester, where she is well known. Prior to going to Bryant, where they have been several years, they lived seven years in Chicago. Besides her husband she is survived by one little daughter, Ida Jane, aged three years. The announcement was received with much sorrow here and many from this city will be in attendance at the funeral, which will be held tomorrow afternoon.

ARRANGE HOME

Rev. J. M. Dawson and Son, Paul, Accompany Household Goods Here.

FROM INDIANAPOLIS

Are Settled in Home on Madison Street—Family Will Come Next Week.

Rev. J. M. Dawson of Indianapolis, the new pastor of the Christian church, with his son, Paul, accompanied the household goods to this city, superintending the arrangement in their new home in the Haugk property on Madison street, formerly owned by Samuel Beavers. The remaining members of Rev. Dawson's family will arrive next week. The family includes Rev. and Mrs. Dawson, two daughters and three sons, and they will be given a cordial welcome by all. Rev. Dawson will preach his regular sermons tomorrow morning and evening and henceforth services will be held every Sunday. The many who have heard him during his several appearances in the city are well pleased with him, and are agreed that his work in this city will be one of great power and good. Everybody is cordially invited to attend the services.

FINISHES COURSE

Ed. Meyers, a Graduate From Law Department of Ann Arbor.

WILL OPEN OFFICE

For Practice—May Locate In Indianapolis After Taking Short Rest.

Ed. Meyers, son of Mrs. Mary Meyers, residing south of the city, returned home today from Ann Arbor, Mich., where he has been attending law school, from which he graduated this year, the graduation exercises being held last Wednesday and Thursday. He has completed a four years' course and finished with high honors. Before entering college he studied for some time at the law office of A. P. Beatty in order to prepare himself, and this was a great help on his arrival there. He has already been offered several positions. The professors at college desired him to remain one year longer and take the degree of doctor of laws and then accept a position as professor at the school there. But Mr. Meyers thinks he can do better by opening an office for practice and after a short rest will look for a suitable location. He does not at present know where he will locate, but has selected Indianapolis as a very favorable place and will no doubt practice there. His many friends wish for him success wherever he sees fit to locate.
