Entered at the postoffice at Decatur, Indiana, as second-class mail matter.

Senator Beveridge after spending two days in Indiana and after a casual glance over the political prospects as presented to him by his insurgent friends, admits that he is a winner. It evidently takes but little to console the senior senator.

The democrats of Adams county should remember the congressional convention at Muncie next Thursday and attend. Congressman Adair will be renominated without opposition and will be elected with but slight opposition. Go to Muncie. See and hear your next congressman.

Senator Beveridge and the republican candidates for congress have agreed to "play up" the tariff commission. As the tariff commission was voted $250,000 of the people's money to be used in defending the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, which Beveridge so recently denounced, and in figuring out the full measure of tariff graft that may be legalized, the job of playing it up will be a hard one.

The panic of the national republican leaders over the fact that a billion dollar congress has been added to the party's other handicaps for the fall election is pitiable. All the statistical forces of the administration are now trying to juggle the book-keeping so as to hide the extravagance from the voters.—Pittsburg

Post.

But "juggling" is not all. In addition to that there is a lot of ordinary, every-day lying being done, and it will not count this time.

AFTER paying all expenses during the year ending June 30th the government has a surplus of about nine million dollars on hand, and republican papers are pointing to the surplus with pride. In order to have a surplus, however, it was necessary to provide additional sources for revenue. One of these sources is the corporation tax, which alone brought into the treasury in the neighborhood of thirty million dollars. Without the corporation tax there would have been another large deficit this year. What the people are interested in most is the matter of expenditures. There has been no decrease there, but a tremendous increase. By laying on the tax high enough the treasury can be kept from going bankrupt, but a full treasury does not signify that the burdens of taxation have been lightened or reduced.—Columbia City Post.

ARTIST AND MAN.

Take thy life better than thy work. Too oft Our artists spend their skill in rounding soft Fair curves upon their statues, while the rough And ragged edges of the unbewn stuff In their own nature startle and offend The eye of critic and the hearts of friends.

If in thy too brief day thou must neglect Thy labor or thy life, let men detect Flaws in thy work, while their most searching gaze Can fall on nothing which they may not praise In thy well-chiseled character. The Man Should not be shadowed by the Artist.

Mrs. Harry Fritzinger, formerly Miss Mayme Conter, a bride of a few weeks, was the guest of honor at a lawn picnic and shower given Friday evening by Mrs. H. L. Conter at her home on First street, the guests being the members of the Bachelor Maids and telephone force, with a few other friends. The affair was arranged as a surprise for the guest of honor, but unfortunately some one gave the secret away just a short while before, and she wasn't a bit surprised. This, however, did not spoil the pleasure of the party and it was a merry company that found cushions, pillows and places at the picnic supper spread on the lawn at the Conter home at 6 o'clock, where all the cool breezes going are sure to find their way. The hostess was assisted in serving by the Misses Hazel France, Frances Ward and Leona Bosse. The gifts for the bride consisted of silver, linen, and everything—both useful and ornamental—that contributes to the comfort, convenience and beauty of the home, and they were given in a liberal "shower"—the bride finding herself nearly buried beneath the fall of the beautiful, lavish expressions of good will and esteem of her friends. The party included the Misses Ada and Mayme Deininger, Rose and Bertha Voglewede, Edna Ehinger, Mayme, Emma and Clara Terveer, Tena Conter, Mayme Brake, Margaret and Rose Conter, Mesdames Tom and James Haefling, Dick Christen, Ora France, the Misses Gusta Cramer, Ada and Agnes Murray, Pansy Ball, Pearl Purdy, Frank Rademacker.

The Sunday school class of Miss Nellie Nichols was entertained by the teacher at a picnic supper at Maple Grove park last evening. On returning to the city they attended the picture shows, completing one of the best times of their lives.

The regular monthly Christian Endeavor business and social meeting of the German Reformed church will be held next Tuesday evening with Miss Margaret Weidner, northeast of the city.

Miss Matilda Sellemeyer will entertain the girls of the Entre Nous club at luncheon at her home south of the city Sunday. Miss Jessie Simson of Berne will be a guest other than the club members.

The Concord Lutheran Aid society has planned to give a social Thursday evening, July 21st, at the school house at Monmouth, and they ask a liberal patronage.

Mrs. W. F. Rosenwinkle and Miss DeEtta Freidline of Fort Wayne were entertained today at the home of the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Rainier.

The Thimble club spent a pleasant evening with Miss Fanny Hite as hostess, the entertainment including a visit to the Stoneburner air dome.

The Bible class at St. Paul's, in charge of the Rev. Payne, was well attended Thursday evening. The class meets weekly.

Mr. and Mrs. John Everett and daughter, Ina, and Mr. Cal Peterson drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Everett, south of the city Friday evening, giving a pleasant surprise call in honor of Mr. Isaac Everett, whose sixty-first birthday occurred Friday. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were enjoyed, together with a general social time.

The Lady Maccabees' social, which was to have been held next Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Nora Butler, has been postponed until a week from next Monday.

ANNUAL PICNIC

The Zion Lutheran Church Arranging For Big Event Next Sunday.

WISHMEYER GROVE

Special Cars if Necessary to Care For the Crowd—A Good Time.

The Zion Lutheran church picnic, their annual celebration of Children's Day, will take place at the Wishmeyer grove, near St. John's church, seven miles north of Decatur, next Sunday. It promises to be a most delightful and pleasant day and the usual big success. The grove is along the interurban and if necessary special cars will be operated to that place to accommodate the crowd. The committee is working hard this week to arrange suitable and appropriate means of amusement. There will be bowling alleys, shooting galleries, horse shoe pitching, fish ponds and all the other harmless amusements. Refreshments will be served on the grounds and there will be a program of much merit. The picnic begins at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and you and all your friends are invited to come and bring your dinner and supper, or come any way and be at the grounds. It will be a happy day and you will enjoy seeing the other people enjoy themselves. Come.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Clover Leaf Niagara Falls Excursion.

On Saturday, July 30th, the Clover Leaf will operate what they term their annual excursion to Niagara Falls and return.

This excursion will be handled on their regular Train 4 in connection with special train via Lake Shore from Toledo, consisting of their best coach equipment, and both standard and tourist sleeping cars, which will run direct to the Falls without change.

The attention given these excursions, together with the low limit of twelve days, the stop-over privileges and opportunities for the many side trips from Toledo, Detroit, Put-in-Bay, Buffalo, Toronto, etc., really gives a passenger more for his money than any other short line excursion during the summer.

The Clover Leaf representatives are working strenuously to make that of 1910 the banner excursion, and those desiring a nice inexpensive outing are recommended to call upon or address our genial ticket agent, Mr. O. S. Cartwright, or Mr. E. L. Browne, District Passenger Agent, Toledo, Ohio, for pamphlet containing all information with reference to rates, limit of ticket, stop-over privilege and side trips, which will be furnished free of charge. 1613 and it is MUCH CHEAPER. There are several different springs, having different curative properties.

For Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bowel troubles and their attendant nervous affections, these waters have produced wonderful results. They allay gastric irritation, render soluble in the body substances that are harmful, and thus free the body of them. Their action on the kidneys and bowels, as well as on the skin, corrects the acidities due to various kinds of fermentation in the body.

An excellent adjunct to these waters is the good air and the opportunity for exercise in the open.

Booklet telling all about the waters and giving list of hotels and boarding houses, with their rates, sent free.
