WINDSOR REFUTES LODGE.

It may allay the pangs in the stomach, which hunger produces, to be told that the tax on imported goods does not increase the cost of living. Senator Lodge, chairman of the special senate committee appointed to investigate the subject, and report before the fall elections, finds that the tariff has nothing to do with what we eat, drink or wear. Such assurance may alleviate the ache which the unsatisfied demands of nature creates.

Across the river from Detroit is the town of Windsor, Canada, where a suit of clothes, on which there is no tariff, can be bought for $10, the same suit costing in Detroit not less than $25. The following table contains a sample of the difference in the cost of living in the two towns, separated only by a stream of water half a mile wide, to-wit:

	Price in Windsor	Price in Detroit
Butter, best per lb.	23	36
Beef, cheapest cut	06	10
Pork, mess	13	20
Bacon, breakfast	13	24
Cheese, per lb.	11	16
Turkeys, dressed	20	25
Plug tobacco, per lb.	1.00	2.50
Stetson hats	3.00	5.00

A number of citizens have approved the suggestion made a few days ago through these columns by a Decatur business man that this is the time to take some steps in the matter of a sane Fourth for 1911. If it is necessary for the council to pass an ordinance to do this they should make the start at the next meeting.

the effect of the respective speeches on the respective communities. But, whichever way it may be, Colonel Roosevelt will receive a warm welcome in Indiana, and whatever he says it will be listened to with a respectful consideration. Our people, however, have a way of reading and thinking for themselves and are becoming more and more set in that way."

SOCIETY DOINGS

Picnic and Children's Day at St. John's One of the Best of Season.

AT THE TRUE HOME

Company From This City Entertained—Guests at John Niblick Home.

CLUB CALENDAR FOR WEEK.

Tuesday.
Black Rag—Miss Midge Smith.
German Reformed C. E.—Miss Margaret Weidner.

Thursday.
Helping Hand—Mrs. Fred Heuer.
U. B. Aid Society—Mrs. Blanche Elzey.

Should some great angel say to me tomorrow:

"Thou must tread thy pathway from the start,

But God will give, in pity for thy sorrow,

Some one dear wish, the nearest to thy heart"—

This were my wish: From my life's dim beginning

Let be what has been; wisdom planned the whole

My want, my woe, my sorrow and my sinning—

All, all were needed lessons for my soul.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. John Niblick will have a number of house guests, who arrived this afternoon and evening. A telegram this morning from Mrs. Elizabeth Morrison, who has been spending several months at St. Paul, Minn., announced that she would arrive here from Chicago this afternoon. A message received a little later stated that her daughter, formerly Miss Harriet Morrison, now Mrs. Dick Wallace, of Oaxaca, New Mexico, would arrive this morning, having left Oaxaca July 6th, arriving at Fort Wayne this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Burton Niblick of Quincy, Ill., will arrive this evening and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Suttles and children, who have been visiting with his parents at Butler, Pa., and with relatives at Conneaut, Ohio, will return tonight.

The picnic and Children's Day exercises of the Zion's Lutheran church of this city, held Sunday afternoon at the Wischmeyer grove near St. John's, was one of the most delightful of several years, the cooling showers of the previous day having contributed to making the day ideal in regard to weather. The children's part in the program, under the direction of the Rev. Wehmeyer, was carried out well and proved a delightful feature of the day. Amusements of all kinds contributed to the good time, and after the picnic the attendants were taken to the homes of the members of the St. John's congregation, where they were royally entertained.

The forty-first wedding anniversary of Judge and Mrs. D. D. Heller will be celebrated Friday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Heller, when and where a family reunion will be held in honor of the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Heller were married at Millersburg, Ohio, July 15, 1869. They came to this city immediately and have resided here ever since.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Erwin entertained a number of friends at supper Sunday evening at their home on Second street. The party included Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Vance and daughter, Lee-Anna; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lewton and daughter, Eloise; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Peoples, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Michaud and daughter, Florine

Brice True entertained a company of friends at the True farm near Poe Sunday afternoon and evening, the entertainment proving most delightful. Guests were Madge Hite, Frances Rademaker, Ada Murray, Ted Sowers of this city and Mr. Crooks of Van Wert, Ohio.

Miss Hazel France entertained a few of her friends at a tea party at the home of Mrs. Belle France Saturday evening. The occasion was enjoyed by all, especially because Miss Hazel herself prepared the delicious refreshments.

Miss Veda Andrews of near Monroe was entertained over Sunday at the home of her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Rainier.

The Sunday school class taught by Miss Edna Hoffman was entertained this afternoon at the home of two of the members, the Misses Anna and Grace Garard. A program, followed by games and a luncheon, were the features of the entertainment, thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hurst and daughter, Grace, of Sixth street had as their guests at dinner yesterday, Mrs. Tyndall and son, Elmer; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurst and babe and Mrs. McCullough.

Miss Midge Smith will entertain the Black Rag club Tuesday afternoon instead of Wednesday afternoon.

The Helping Hand society of the German Reformed church will be entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Fred Heuer.

The attention of the public is again called to the social to be given tomorrow evening on the Evangelical church lawn by the Young People's Alliance, providing the weather is favorable. Ice cream and cake will be served. Everybody is invited.

Miss Frances Dugan is the guest of a house party given by a former classmate at Ferry Hall at their summer home at Morris, Illinois, the guests being seven former students at Ferry Hall, to whom the reunion will be a most happy one. Miss Frances will go from Morris to Racine, Wis., where she will visit with her roommate at Vassar, Miss Ethel Diedrick.

One of the many pre-nuptial parties given for Miss Nellie Schrock, a bride of July 25th, will be the fruit shower to be given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Fred Heuer at her home on West Monroe street.

A crowd of ladies drove to Willshire this morning and this afternoon were entertained at the home of Mrs. O. N. Snellon. The time was spent in a social way and the trip was much enjoyed.

O. L. Oliver of Monroe was a business visitor here this morning.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.
The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Decatur Cement Roof and Block company will be held at the office of Kirsch, Sellemeyer & Sons at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. 16t12
