

We've Sold

--a bunch of Tan oxfords this week and tomorrow will see a lot of them go. We have priced these goods so low that you can afford to have several pairs. Some of the styles displayed in the north window,

$1.45, $1.95 and $2.29

Charlie Voglewede

The Shoe Seller

WEATHER FORECAST

Partly cloudy with thunder storms tonight or Saturday.

Miss Emma Gillig spent the day at Berne.

A. J. Smith was a business caller at Pennville today.

Dr. Sowers was a professional caller at Portland today.

Chas. Christen made a business trip to Fort Wayne today.

Miss Lulu Atz was the guest of friends at Berne today.

The Misses Maud and Jennie Kurt of Monmouth were shopping here yesterday.

Murray Scherer, who was transacting business in Monroe, has returned to the city.

Mrs. Durbin returned last evening to Peru after a visit here with Mrs. Helen Berling.

The Misses Marie and Clara Boknecht of Allen county were shopping here yesterday.

YOUR MONEY

Through those many little leaks that could be stopped with a checking account.

Start a checking account with us today—have us keep your funds safe from careless spending, theft, fire loss, etc.

The checking account costs you nothing and is a convenience and real business need of today.

THE OLD
Adams County Bank

Charles Christen made a business trip to Fort Wayne today.

Mrs. Louise Murphy and Mrs. A. VanCamp visited at Fort Wayne.

William Bodell of Pleasant Mills was a business caller here today.

Mrs. Noah Loch spent the day at Fort Wayne as the guest of friends.

Louis Koenemann, from north of the city, was a business transactor in the city this afternoon.

Philip Schlemmer and Ed Carrier of near Monroeville were business visitors here today.

Mrs. Otto Reppert will go to Cincinnati, Ohio, tomorrow to be the guest of relatives.

Ed Kleinhens of Fort Wayne was the guest of friends for a short while Thursday evening.

Walter E. Cook of Fort Wayne was in the city today looking after some insurance business.

Byrd Smith left today for Rome City to spend a week or so with the John Peterson family.

Dick Buckmaster went to Fort Wayne yesterday afternoon to call on his wife, who is a patient at the hospital.

Mrs. Henry Knapp and son, Harry, will leave tomorrow for Cincinnati, Ohio, where they will visit with relatives.

Frank Gass of the Fullenkamp store returned today from Detroit, where he attended the Elks' convention.

Edwina and Beatrice VanCamp and Richard Boch were among the number who witnessed the show at Fort Wayne.

Josephine and Letta Lang and Jessie McLain will leave Sunday for Rome City to spend several weeks out.

Grandma Steudler of Union township returned Thursday from an extended visit with relatives at Mauch Chunk, Pa.

Mrs. B. J. Terveer will entertain this evening at her home in honor of Mrs. Anthony Holthouse of Jonesboro, Ark.

Mrs. and Mrs. Eli Ray of Monroe passed through the city this morning on their way to Fort Wayne for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Omer Lewellyn.

The checking account costs you nothing and is a convenience and real business need of today.

J. S. COVERDALE, M.D.E. & COVERDALE, M.
Drs. J. S. Coverdale and Son

Special attention given to diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose, and Throat

Office 118½ 2nd Street

Decatur, Indiana

J. S. Bowers, Pres. F. M. Schirmeyer, Vice Pres.

LOANS

The Bowers Realty Company calls your attention to its loan department.

The Company has five per cent money to loan on sensible and advantageous terms.

Our loans have certain features that will appeal to you.

See us about farms, city properties and abstracts.

The Bowers Realty Co.

French Quinn, Secy.

Emma Gillig was transacting some business at Richmond today.

John Miller of Detroit, Mich., is a business caller in our city.

Mrs. William Woods of Wren, Ohio, was shopping here yesterday.

Ed Boknecht of Allen county was a business visitor here today.

C. I. Goader of Huntington was a business caller here yesterday.

O. V. Graham of Monroe was a business visitor in the city today.

Miss Mina Acker left today for Richmond, where she will make a short visit with friends.

Quite a number of people from this city will leave Sunday for Rome City for a couple weeks' outing.

Charles Loch returned home today from his regular trip and later left for Fort Wayne on business.

Charles Peterson will leave this evening for Denver, Colo., where he will look after business for some time.

Mrs. F. A. Stettler of Willshire was shopping in the city yesterday afternoon, leaving for her home on the evening train.

Mrs. Jere Torrence of Marion and Miss Frances Bryson of Portland are guests today of Mrs. Harry Staver.—Bluffton News.

Mrs. Della Fetzer and daughter, Hattie, of Frankfort, who have been visiting here, were spending the day in Fort Wayne.

Before leaving on your summer trip don't fail to order the Democrat sent to your address. Sent anywhere for ten cents a week.

John Brandyberry of Monroe changed cars here this morning on his way to Ohio City, where he was attending to business interests.

Don't fail to notify this office if your paper is not delivered each evening on time. Prompt and careful service is what we desire to give our patrons.

Rev. Imler and Joe Lower were at Monroeville today, where they attended the United Brethren Sunday school convention, which was held there today.

Dr. H. E. Keller made a professional call at Bobo this morning on Arthur Harris, who is recovering from severe case of blood poisoning of the hand.

Mrs. John Christen has returned from a visit with her son-in-law, Rev. B. B. Uhl, and family at Mansfield, Ohio, and with her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Magley, at Kenton, Ohio.

Jacob Miller of Detroit, Mich., left today for Geneva, where he will visit with two of his brothers and then go on to Indianapolis, where he will make a short stay with his sister. From there he will return to his home at Detroit.

Mrs. E. A. Straub, who has been the guest of friends here for several days, left this morning for Kalamazoo, Mich., where she will put their household goods in shape for shipping them to Fort Wayne, where they will reside in the future.

The fire on the Joel Falk farm near Bobo last night was noticed here by a number of people, but they were unable to locate it exactly. A large barn, filled with new hay is thought to have caught fire from spontaneous combustion, and was entirely destroyed.

The quarantine on the Shafer Peter-son home, occasioned by the illness of his little granddaughter, Pauline Wolford, who had the scarlet fever, has been lifted, and Mr. Peterson was on the street again today, greeting his host of friends after his long confinement.

Miss Lucile Hale, stenographer for the Fort Wayne & Springfield railway company, will leave tomorrow for Chicago, where she will make a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. H. T. Gregg.

Mrs. Roman Holthouse, Mrs. Mayme Lynch, Misses Mayme Ter-veer, Mayme and Ada Deininger, Rose and Bert Voglewede will go to Rome City Sunday to spend two weeks at the hotel.

The Anthony Overman family of Covington, Ky., related to the families here, passed through the city enroute to Rome City, where they will spend the remainder of the season at the Barney Meibers cottage.

Ralph and Marie McCurdy of North Meridian street left on the evening train Wednesday for Monroe to be guests of David Everhart and family. They will be absent until sometime in August and before their return will visit an aunt, Mrs. Ella Wood, at Decatur.—Portland Sun.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Phipps have returned to Chicago after a visit here with his mother, Mrs. John Phipps. While here they made arrangements for the remodeling of one of their residence properties.

Miss Ada Fuhrman, who has been clerking in her brother's store at Cambridge City, and who is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Fuhrman, at Monroe, was shopping and calling on friends here today.

M. F. Worthman, teacher in the Decatur high school, who has been at Terre Haute for several weeks, attending the normal school, writes that the school work is fine and he is working hard. He will graduate from the normal this summer.

D. H. Hunsicker, conductor on the Fort Wayne & Springfield, has resumed work after an enforced vacation of a week or more on account of an injury sustained to one of his feet by falling from the car roof to the hard pavement at Fort Wayne.

C. G. Egley of Berne was a business visitor in the city today.

John Frisinger made a business trip to Berne this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Kauffman of Redkey are visiting friends here.

Mrs. Fanny Cole and Mrs. Presnall spent the afternoon in Fort Wayne.

Miss Dossie Beery is enjoying her vacation with friends at Lima, Ohio.

Master LaDelle at the Star airdrome this evening will no doubt prove a good drawing card.

Mrs. Florence DeVilbiss and Master Devere Pressnall are guests at the Kunkel farm at Monmouth this afternoon.

Harold and John Archbold returned home this afternoon from Peter-son, where they were visiting with friends.

Mrs. Anna McCrawley of Willshire, who has been the guest of friends here for several days, left this noon for her home.

Charles Loch returned home today from his regular trip and later left for Fort Wayne on business.

Charles Peterson will leave this evening for Denver, Colo., where he will look after business for some time.

Mrs. F. A. Stettler of Willshire was shopping in the city yesterday afternoon, leaving for her home on the evening train.

Mrs. Jere Torrence of Marion and Miss Frances Bryson of Portland are guests today of Mrs. Harry Staver.—Bluffton News.

Mrs. Della Fetzer and daughter, Hattie, of Frankfort, who have been visiting here, were spending the day in Fort Wayne.

Before leaving on your summer trip don't fail to order the Democrat sent to your address. Sent anywhere for ten cents a week.

John Brandyberry of Monroe changed cars here this morning on his way to Ohio City, where he was attending to business interests.

Don't fail to notify this office if your paper is not delivered each evening on time. Prompt and careful service is what we desire to give our patrons.

Rev. Imler and Joe Lower were at Monroeville today, where they attended the United Brethren Sunday school convention, which was held there today.

Dr. H. E. Keller made a professional call at Bobo this morning on Arthur Harris, who is recovering from severe case of blood poisoning of the hand.

Mrs. John Christen has returned from a visit with her son-in-law, Rev. B. B. Uhl, and family at Mansfield, Ohio, and with her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Magley, at Kenton, Ohio.

Jacob Miller of Detroit, Mich., left today for Geneva, where he will visit with two of his brothers and then go on to Indianapolis, where he will make a short stay with his sister. From there he will return to his home at Detroit.

Mrs. E. A. Straub, who has been the guest of friends here for several days, left this morning for Kalamazoo, Mich., where she will put their household goods in shape for shipping them to Fort Wayne, where they will reside in the future.

The fire on the Joel Falk farm near Bobo last night was noticed here by a number of people, but they were unable to locate it exactly. A large barn, filled with new hay is thought to have caught fire from spontaneous combustion, and was entirely destroyed.

These hot, close days suit the Con-ter Ice Cream company for the popular product made by them is being sought for.

Lose & Thomas, the cigar men, are having a big run on their White Stag these days. While they are rushed all the time they want your business and will take care of you if you give them a chance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Heller and chil-children will leave tomorrow morning for Rome City, where they will seek the delights usual to that popular summer resort for the next two weeks.

Phil Macklin will take a two weeks' vacation from the Vance, Hite & Macklin store, beginning Monday, and he and his family will enjoy that period of time back on the farm, where they are planning many pleasures.

The season of special sales is here and the Decatur merchants, always alive, are offering great bargains. Read the advertisements the next two or three weeks if you want to take advantage of the marked-down prices in clothing, dry goods, shoes, etc.

3 GREAT SPECIALS FOR SATURDAY, JULY 16

No use in wasting time telling you why we're offering these bargains. You know that everybody cleans house and we're no exception to the rule. We've made up our mind to offer you some rare values and it's up to you to take advantage of them.

30 Outing Suits, Fancy Cheviots, make splendid work or business suits for summer wear. Sizes 31 to 36.

Formerly sold at $7.50, $10.00 and $12.50
Saturday's prices $3.75 $5.00 and $6.25.

40 Pairs Men's and Youth's Pants, fancy mixtures, splendid values, broken sizes;

Formerly sold at $3.50 to $6.00
Saturday's prices $1.85 to $3.00

25 Boy's Knee Pant Suits, fancy mixtures, splendid suits for service. Sizes 9 to 15 years.

Formerly sold at $3.00 to $5.00
Saturday's prices $1.50 to $2.50

To take advantage of these specials is like finding money. We'd like to show you Saturday.

Holthouse Schulte & Co.
Good Clothes Sellers for Men and Boys

Miss Jessie Magley was a Fort Wayne caller this afternoon.

Herman Yager was looking after some business at Portland today.

Harry Quinn of Kansas City is in the city visiting with his brother, French Quinn.

These are quiet days at the court house, where there is positively not enough doing to make a three-line local.

These hot, close days suit the Con-ter Ice Cream company for the popular product made by them is being sought for.

Lose & Thomas, the cigar men, are having a big run on their White Stag these days. While they are rushed all the time they want your business and will take care of you if you give them a chance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Heller and chil-children will leave tomorrow morning for Rome City, where they will seek the delights usual to that popular summer resort for the next two weeks.

Phil Macklin will take a two weeks' vacation from the Vance, Hite & Macklin store, beginning Monday, and he and his family will enjoy that period of time back on the farm, where they are planning many pleasures.

The season of special sales is here and the Decatur merchants, always alive, are offering great bargains. Read the advertisements the next two or three weeks if you want to take advantage of the marked-down prices in clothing, dry goods, shoes, etc.

DO NOT READ THIS

Plenty of money. Very Low Rates. No Extras. Life, sick, accident and fire insurance. Celebrated "Richmond Suction Cleaner" to let and to sell. Information where to buy the best stoves, ranges and furnaces at a great bargain, on a month's trial. W. J. MYERS, 233 N. 5th st. Phone 265

SAFETY AND PAYMENT OF